Subject: Wormwood.
Mar. 28, 2011.

The name Wormwood is something that rings a bell, so to speak in my mind everytime I hear it. I hope the good type space people will take care of us if this object comes by close to the Earth. It's pretty big.

This will be a duplicate message for some people. Please understand. This could be important. T. [MM: Yep, T, some will hopefully want to put down their remote, bottle of b-er, pizza or burger and fries and seriously check out this video!!! The Hopi's Oral Traditions have identified Nibiru (Planet X) as the "Red Katchina" and "The Great Purifier", which will bring the "Day of Purification"!!!

Most of the people on this list have heard of Zacharia S-tchin and the theory of the "twelfth planet." For years I dismissed it. Waiting for someone to "show me." And that was probably wishful thinking. Well the show me moment might be here. N-SA says that this "thing" hurtling into our solar system is just a comet. Good enough. But if there is any truth to the information in this video then we can forget about apocalypse in 2012. (This, video, btw, is one of many on the internet). 2012 and the Mayan calendar business could just be a diversion.

If this thing is Nibiru, or Marduk, or whatever you want to call it, and if it is six times the mass of Jupiter, and if it will pass between the Earth and the Sun sometime in September of this year, then, in my unscientific opinion, things are going to get very uncomfortable for the inhabitants of mother Earth. I think the least of our worries will be massive earthquakes and tsunamis. There could be a geographic pole shift with catastrophic consequences.

One of the things that struck me were the dates in this scenario and the recurrence of the number 11--- an important number in M-sonic culture. For example, the "second alignment" is 03/11/11, which is the date of the 9.0 earthquake in Japan. Six months later this "thing" will pass between the sun and the Earth. That will occur 09/11/11 and at that time will be the closest it will get to the sun. Does that number ring a bell? The last alignment occurs as this object is leaving the solar system, that would be on 11/22/11. Does that date resonate with anyone. Forty eight years a go?

Is this why there is a seed vault in Norway? Is this why g-vernments all over the world are spending trillions of dollars to build deep underground bases?

Let's all p-ay that this is just another hoax...[MM: Sorry people...Planet X is NOT a hoax!!! Actually, it's described in about 32 different ways...See partial list below...and have a nice life!!!!]

32 names of the Nibiru: Ancient history, astronomy, folklore and prophecy records many names for Planet X. The Sumerians called it the "12 Planet" or "Nibiru" (translates into: planet of passing). between the Babylonians and Mesopotamians there were at least three names "Marduk" , "The King of the H-avens"and The "Great He-venly Body". The ancient Hebrews referred to it as the "Winged Globe"because of its long orbit high among the stars. the Egyptians had two names "Apep" or "Seth" . The Greeks called it "Typhon" after the feared leader and "Nemesis" (one of its most telling names). Other ancient peoples have given it labels such as; "The Celestial Lord Shiva"and "G-d of Destruction". To the ancient Chinese it was known as "Gung-gung" , "The Great B-ack or Red Dragon".

The Phoenicians said it was "The Great Phoenix". The Hebrews called it
"Y-hweh". The Mayans called it "Celestial Quetzalcoat1"or"Tzoltze ek'".
The celestial body was known to the Latins as "L-cifer". R-velation 8:10-12 the name of the star is "Wormwood". From works of prophecy there are other names for X."
The Red or Blue Star" [Katchina] is of the Hopi Indian and Gordon Michael S-allion designation. The "Fiery Messenger" is in the Ramala prophecy.
The "Great Star" is from the book Re-elation. "His Star" is how it is referred to Edgar Cayce Readings. The "Great Comet"and "The Comet of D-om" is right out of the Grail Message. From an early English prophet named "Mother Shipton", "The Fiery Dragon"was the name she gave as seen from her second sight. Our solar system's "10th Planet" is "X" or "PX".

(JW Maybe we should go over to the "PX" and get a candy bar and a coke.)
