The idea of a secret organization of enlightened mystics, guiding the spiritual development of the human race, was pioneered in the late eighteenth century by

http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Karl\_von\_Eckartshausen

Karl von Eckartshausen in his book "The Cloud upon the Sanctuary (page does not exist)

The Cloud upon the Sanctuary; Eckartshausen called this body of mystics, who remained active after their physical deaths on earth, the Council of Light.

Eckartshausen's proposed communion of living and dead mystics, in turn, drew partially on Christian ideas such as the "Communion of Saints"
