(MENTA): We are a vast and powerful energy field of a billion or so collective s-uls. When we embody, we live on a planet called Retorno in a galaxy beyond the constellation Lyra. Our homeland is one of many inhabited worlds not yet seen by your telescopes. I shall explain why I say "I" and "we" interchangeably. It is because I speak with you as a so-I self, but never am I separate from our group mind. No sou- is considered better than another as all aspects of our mind are necessary for our world's stability and our ever-growing awareness. ❖❖

As collective selves we resemble a tree much more than a human because our "head" area is an abundance of sensors that look like flowers in a tight cluster. That is the "housing unit" of the group mind. W-ite is the predominant color of this head area, but pastel colors also are seen❖they are the colors of specialty areas such as the arts, technology, engineering, child rearing and so forth. We are an array of the colors most closely identified with the primary talents and abilities and interests at a particular time, so the colors change to reflect the frequency in which we are operating. That is, it's the facet of the prism refracted into the color identified with that frequency.

Connected to the "housing unit" cluster and extending throughout galaxies are a billion or more fine "threads." Those are our -oul selves roaming the h-avens in search of new knowledge, or more accurately, remembering, because at highest so-I awareness level everything is known. All so-I-self discoveries instantaneously and automatically are transmitted to the group mind. ❖❖

We are more powerful than many others who also are helping to their full intensity, but their wavelength is less than ours, so we volunteered for a twofold mission. We are beaming in our own energy and also sustaining the light from those other sources once it is within Earth's atmosphere. This is essential so that your bodies can absorb the rays at cellular level and adjust to the higher frequencies Earth will be entering. This gives you the opportunity to physically survive during her ascension process that some call "the shift" and others call "the cleansing."

Mother, thank you.

In addition to emphasizing once again the vital importance of staying out of fear, it also is for sound reason that we have focused on extraterrestrial assistance past, current and future. With Earth entering the last stage of exiting third density, it is time that you stop thinking of yourselves only as individuals with distinctive personalities, characteristics, talents, hopes, dreams and accomplishments. That you are indeed, but you are so much more, and you need to start thinking of yourselves as the powerful, multidimensional beings you are! You are members of the universal family of interconnected s-uls, eternally bonded as inseparable parts of Go-, and your brothers and sisters want you to feel a personal kinship with them so your imminent meetings will be joyous family reunions!

Our love is with you in every moment as you traverse the last short ways to Earth❖s Golden A-e.

LOVE and PEACE

[Notes from Suzy: Huge thanks to all of you who knew Matthew did not give the disinformation in that recent message falsely ascribed to him by some other source. Also my thanks to you all who wrote ❖ludicrous❖ or similar adjectives about the posting that claimed Matthew and SaLuSa were ascended masters and had been censored by some council. Apparently what SaLuSa and Matthew are saying is really annoying someone!

Being way behind in reading emails has become a permanent situation and I'm grateful for your understanding that I won't be able to reply to many of them.

Occasionally Hatonn's messages are part of Matthew's, so I'll answer questions about him. He's an ancient soul who has lived in The Pleiades for the last few thousand years, but he and his family are aboard a large ship more often than they're home. Most of that time he has been commander of an intergalactic fleet and for the past hundred years or so also has served as director of universal communications. Hatonn and I have talked frequently ever since my telepathic connection opened early in 1994, and since he and Matthew were friends long before that, sometimes he answers questions that are more in his purview than in Matthew's. The first time Hatonn transmitted material for a book was mid-2003, and about two years later he started giving me information to include in Matthew's messages.]
