It is commendable to take on the burdens of other people, but you must give sufficient time for your own development. It is vitally important that you continue to hold your focus on this final run in, as to the whole purpose of what you are experiencing. There is not one s-ul that can fail to learn lessons from the transition of all that has become familiar to you, and allow for the new to come in and replace it. If there are regrets at the prospect of some of the changes, even if you cannot see the outcome be aware that they are making way for all that resonates with the higher vibrations. You yourself are experiencing subtle changes within your body and consciousness levels, and out of it will eventually arise the new you, the Galactic Being. Let go of that which is clearly going to be out of place in the New A-e, and know that it will exist in a suitable form in the higher dimensions.

Take for example the various resources of Earth that are used daily to sustain your world and its demands. In the higher levels that will become almost unnecessary as you will have little need to take from the Earth, when you can create what you want through the power of thought. In the same way as you dispose of your creations when there use has expired, there is no waste or pollution as all is returned to the unmanifest to be used again. When you reach such levels you will have the knowledge and ability to handle such matters, as your consciousness will be consistent with that expected of a Galactic Being. If you cannot fully comprehend the changes, simply accept what is happening is to elevate you to a level where all is in harmony and balance. At a subconscious level it is all familiar to you, because it is your natural home.

We have often mentioned that you will be well informed as to what is ahead of you. However, we cannot expect to do very much until we can be openly amongst you. The stage is set for these events, and whilst we do not expect everyone to immediately accept what we will have to say, we have to prevent any outright attempts to prevent them taking place. You will certainly be aware when matters are nearing such a point, as no s-cret will be made of our actions to remove the dark Ones. These are the ones who plan large-scale disruption, even to the extent that they will k-ll and maim people without any hesitation. That is not meant to make you fearful, but quite the opposite, as you will know that their activities are being curtailed and will eventually cease.

There has to be a period of peace, and the unnecessary controls and restrictions removed so that your sovereignty is gradually restored. We of the Galactic Federation respect you and want you to have the freedom you are entitled to. Draconian laws and anything that unfairly restricts your actions will be removed. That of course will be the duty of the new go-ernment which will soon be appointed. For that to happen naturally there will be vast changes, and no representative will survive who has been guilty of breaking his/her oath. Clearly you can look forward to an earth-shaking end to this year.

Those of you who follow messages that you have found reliable and carrying the energy of Love and Light, will have foreknowledge of what is occurring. You will then be in a position to help others who may be confused and shocked by what they hear. It will take time for the truth to sink in and even then there will still be uncertainty as to the future. This is where you can be of great personal assistance, but be assured that as soon as possible we desire to set up system of good communications. We want everyone to know exactly why we are here and what the future holds for you. The age of secrecy will no longer operate and the truth will be openly discussed. We come not to dictate or dominate you, but to share the good news we bring and work together towards the end times. We are after all One on the great journey through the various dimensions, as we head towards the Source and re-unification with the Supreme Creator.

You are a giant when it comes to experience and hundreds of lives have taken you to the four quarters of the Earth. You have like any other so-I left your mark upon your civilization, and collectively you have brought yourselves to these final days as you created them. That is why as with any experience you set up it is not our place to interfere; otherwise there would be no point to it. What is important is that you have learnt how to conduct yourself, and treat other so-Is as yourself. For those who have not, the lessons continue and will do so until they are ready for upliftment. Since in reality there is no such thing as time, you have all the  $\diamond$ time $\diamond$  you need to progress at your own speed.

The urge to press ever onwards is quite natural, and your evolution will continue even if you are not conscious of it doing so. Yes, you can go backwards or forwards as you choose, but the net result with few exceptions will always be in some form of progress. It is possible for a soul to deny their source and Light, until it is best that they return to the Source and start all over again. However, we address our remarks to you who are not only aware of your Light, but have already chosen to ascend. Your feet are firmly upon the path forward and many are aware of the changes within Self, particularly those that are bringing in the higher vibrations that are changing their body cells. We see so many of you that can now walk around without being affected by the negative energies, and indeed you are able to diminish their affect through the power of your Light.

We are well pleased with the progress made over the years to bring the truth out. To be well informed and intuitive has enabled you to rise up above the lower energies. They cannot cause fear or threaten you unless you allow it to be so. Stay calm and as we so often say, keep focused upon the wonderful future that beckons. You will soon become aware that everything you have been promised is near to coming your way, and your patience has been admirable in view of the time taken to reach this point.

I am SaLuSa from Sirius, and can tell you that the Spiritual Hierarchy also draws near to witness and participate in the end times. You are receiving immense love and assistance from them even if you are unaware of it.

Thank you SaLuSa.

(JW Lesson learned)

While I was over at Ralph Squires I was talking to a lady and I had mentioned that a person from Venus had attended the same church that Elvis Presley had attended, played his music and sang his songs to start him off when he was a young man. This lady then informed me that Elvis had read the Urantia Book in his lifetime.
