Subject: Quayle On Coasttocoastam.
June 9, 2011.

Stephen Quayle was recently of the Coasttocoastam radio show and he was saying that the recent outbreak of E. coli bacteria that couldn't be traced and was thought to be from Germany's organic farms was actually a disease that was manufactured in a chemical lab of the powers that be. It was made to make the organic food producers in Germany look bad and people to not buy their produce. It is to make people only buy genetically produced products.

Here are some things that Stephen Quayle talked about in the past.

Steve Quayle Biography:

Stephen Quayle is the author of five books. For over thirty years, he has been investigating ancient civilizations, giants, UFOs and biological warfare as they relate to the future of mankind. Stephen discusses the coming worst-case scenarios approaching this world and how they interrelate to each other.

Earthquakes, volcanoes, nuclear and biological terrorism, coupled with the planned financial meltdown of the U.S. dollar will thrust us into unimagined tribulations. Stephen Quayle is on record as stating that we have moved from the realm of natural threats into the arena of supernaturally guided events of the unseen hand of evil orchestrating world events of unfathomable proportions.

Investigating the Paranormal

Tuesday June 7, 2011

Reporter Steve Volk discussed how he came to reconcile an old family ghost story and the whole realm of the paranormal with the rigors of professional journalism. While growing up his family was besieged by unexplained pounding noises in their home, and in one incident the sound moved to the top of the stairs and then came down one step at a time, "like a child throwing a tantrum," he detailed. First hour guest, author Steve Quayle shared his reactions to the recent E. coli breakout in Europe. ...

Flashpoints, End Times & Giants

Wednesday September 3, 2008

Author and researcher Steve Quayle discussed escalating geopolitical flash points and their possible relationship to biblical prophecy and 'end times.' He also spoke about his research into UFOs, aliens, and giants. According to his military sources, there are underground facilities such as Dulce that house labs with alien experimentation, and "back physics." Quayle claimed there are giants, 12-14 ft. in height, currently alive. Aliens and UFOs are often associated with reports of giants, such as on Solomon Island, he said.

And, in a catacomb underneath Rome there are two 12 ft. tall lizard creatures with leathery wings, bound in chains, according to two witnesses he spoke with. The military confrontation between Georgia and Russia could be an indicator of the coming Gog-Magog war mentioned in Ezekiel, he said. China is pouring money into high energy weapons, while the Russians have Tesla technology, Quayle noted. He believes 'end times' are around the corner, and outlined a ...

"Un-Natural Disasters & Giants"

<http://www.coasttocoastam.com/show/2008/05/15>

Thursday May 15, 2008

Author and expert in survivalism Steve Quayle discussed how disasters such as the Chinese quake, the Myanmar cyclone, and the tornadoes in the U.S. have been coming fast and furious. He suggested that some of these events could be caused by weather warfare brought about by the Illuminati, who seek to reduce the population. For instance, the recent volcanic eruption in Chile was generated through a tremendous amount of energy, similar to what scalar and electromagnetic weaponry could produce, he noted. Such natural or man-made devastations can lead to food and water shortages, Quayle pointed out. He stressed the need for people to be prepared with water storage & purification devices, and medical & food supplies. He also advised against living along the coastline. Quayle updated his research into giants, reporting that a search was being conducted in an underground island labyrinth. According to his "Special Forces" contacts, there are literally tens of thousands of giants living ...
