Please don't be made at me when I quote Sheldan is saying they are about to make their move. They will do what they are good and ready in the fullness of time.

Federation

Dratzo!

We return! Our Earth allies have issued many orders to begin the final implementation of the transformation of your reality. The major g-vernments of your world are busily putting together 'quick fixes' with which they hope to continue delaying what is now underway. However, a series of legal decisions has recently been handed down by several international courts which permit a rapid change of go-ernment, but these major gove-nments' legal counselors are pursuing a quick appeal process, as a way of doing their part in staving off the inevitable.
This flurry of sudden activity is another indication of how close you are to the changes long promised you by our Earth allies. The last dark c-bal is in full panic mode. It has seen its once formidable empire whittled away by court decisions, which now threaten its very existence.
Those who, in the past, were able to use their power to hammer all opposition are in full retreat, bringing disclosure ever nearer. Our liaison teams and those of the Agarthans are meeting to discuss in detail how best to announce our presence and help the new gove-nments.

Disclosure, for us, is the cornerstone of why we are here. The time has come for your societies to put aside their childish behavior and accept the broad mantle of maturity. This one act banishes w-rs and distrust from your inventory and replaces them with Love and cooperation. Societies in limited consciousness often make the mistake of following models that are either dysfunctional or that were foisted on them by a supposedly superior and wiser group of individuals. In your case, you were literally drowned in the 'advice' of the Anunnaki and led astray by the ill-advised decisions of those minions placed in power long ago. You now have the opportunity for a major global course correction, which not only reverses the misfortunes of -ar and avarice but also heads you into prosperity and a joyous reunion with your s-iritual and space families. We have watched, over the millennia, as you blundered into one misfortune after another, most of which were craftily arranged by a handful of beings who were given power over you by the Anunnaki.

The transformations you are now passing through will enable you to get a truer picture of the reality you reside in. This information becomes the basis for collective decisions that can quickly resolve any problems that come up. We have known these things for what seems like forever to us. Think about the wisdom you are about to acquire as a huge resource that is easily accessed whenever you need it. Our task is simply to assist you in taking up the wondrous garb called full consciousness and mentor you judiciously in the use of the 'user manual'. Then your natural capabilities will kick in, providing you with the insights that characterize and i-luminate this most amazing tool which was given to us in such Loving grace by the Creator. You are destined to be a most beloved member of this Galactic Federation of Light. We look forward to your advice and the coming skill of your Science and Exploration teams. Your Agarthan kin is keen to meet you and teach you the history and wisdom that was lost in the fog of your amnesia.

Over the millennia, the Anunnaki and their minions literally sold you a 'bill of goods', and the Agarthans' primary task is to set the record straight by relating to you your true off-world origins and your long history as a member of this Galactic Federation. The Anunnaki's perfidy has burdened you with half-baked fallacies concerning your origins and the birth of your numerous societies. You would also benefit from a complete study of how life functions and survives in your realm. Much of what you are taught is based on principles that are only partially true. The Agarthans would like to remedy this and offer you a life science that can prepare you for what lies ahead: full consciousness. This end game you are going through needs a quick primer on physical life and information of how the energy of your soul enters and maintains your beingness. The new connections that are almost ready to manifest are to change how you are presently put together, which is why it is essential to give you the understanding that can easily banish the remaining uneasiness about your transformation into full-conscious Beings of Light.

Blessings! We are your Ascended M-sters! Everywhere, this reality, forged long ago by the dark and its Earth minions, is collapsing. The greed, hatred, and general discord are no longer able to keep the world's population at bay. We are seeing defiance, aided by a growing virtual network of support, take the offensive and demonstrating to the dark that the guidelines used to rule you no longer hold. The initial answers proposed by many governments to counter this growing insubordination are proving to be ineffective, and the dark is stunned by the strength of your desire for freedom, sovereignty, and prosperity. This shows how strong the need within you is to regain full consciousness. Within this energy lie the means by which you can finally throw off the yoke that you were saddled with some 13 millennia ago. The dark sees what is happening yet remains in a sort of prophylactic shock, unable to accept the inevitable.

Your work to bring in your Sou- Force is succeeding. You are a remarkable group of Beings! The energy you have put into this effort has helped to fuel others to keep moving forward with their demands to transform the governance of this world. As this pressure continues, the programs set in motion by our associates are ready to manifest. We are instructing them to use the various divine time decrees of Heaven as the instrument for final implementation of their agenda. New governments are prepared to issue a series of announcements that are to change forever how your world operates, and we stand at the ready to help our comrades carry out a full disclosure that leads to your grand reunion with your Inner Earth brethren as well as your spiritual and space families. These celebrations are really imminent!

As the time comes for your ascension into full consciousness, you need to look at this world in a new light. The realm of the dark has held you in check ever since your fall just before the last days of Atlantis. Now, you are preparing yourselves to transform this world into Light and assume positions of grace and wisdom. You have survived! This feat comes with a knowing that your Inner Earth brethren are prepared to welcome you to an array of spectacular crystal cities and other wonders you can scarcely imagine. We also reside in these cities of Light and know at first hand what awaits you. In these final days, see the dark call as Beings who are to undergo a great fall, and forgive them their ghastly trespasses. Soon, you are all to be one again, and the horrible events these ones created are to fade into history. Be gentle and above all, wise in how you carry out your affairs!

Today, we continued our talks with you. Much is about to happen. We can feel how close your new reality really is! We are in joy that first contact is the element that finally turns the tables on the dark and its horrendous plans. You are to receive many positive surprises! Be ready to celebrate with us! And to be morphed into a great joy! The time for this great joy to become your eternal now has come! Know, dear Ones, that the countless Supply and never-ending Prosperity of Heaven are indeed Yours! So Be It! Selamat Gajun! Selamat Ja! (Sirian for Be One! and Be in Joy!)
