Tree Talk. Not only is the Earth HOLLOW, but it is inhabited by Advanced Civilizations!

Read about the existence of these evolved civilizations that live in peace and brotherhood in the Center of our Earth, which is HOLLOW, and contains an Inner Central Sun, with oceans and mountains still in their pristine state.

You Have Waited Thousands of Years to Hear Our Messages....

Greetings from the Hollow Earth!

I am Mikos and I dwell inside your Earth. I am reaching up to you in consciousness, to impart our frequency to you as you read the words on these pages of our book. These pages are s-cred, for its content contains the mighty power to change the world - if but enough surface folk read them. This is our purpose for dictating our messages to you. It is to hasten change on the surface so that people will once again be connected to their d-vine self and source of inner guidance.

it is only now that the vibration is high enough for us to come forward and speak to you. These messages you read, come directly through our hearts, relayed from the heart of G-d. Your heart is Go-'s receptacle - so open it wide, my dear readers, and receive our words directly into your heart - where their vibrations will raise your consciousness enough to meld into us directly as your eyes perceive our words.

Were Life is a flow of energy, connecting everyone, everywhere, simultaneously.

We invite you to be in this flow, and flow with our thoughts and our heartbeat as you read our words carried to the surface on the winds of t-lepathy - winds that bring our thoughts and feelings into your heartspace - for you to also access as you learn to resonate with our vibration. As you think of Us, you will feel a heightened sense of being as our energy cascades into you. It is a physical sensation that is unmistakable. Move into it - for it is Us - making contact with you - consciousness contact - and it feels like energy currents flowing through you, currents of heightened sensitivity and divine bliss, putting you into a protected space of peace during our connection, that lingers about you for the remaining day. We offer you this, as a gift freely given as you read our words. We've been calling to you for so long, and now through this book to the world, you are hearing us. We are joyously anticipating your heart contact and are ready and eager to respond to your thoughts. So tune into us, sit quietly, and feel our vibration engulf your physical body and raise your energy field. We wait for your call."

"MESSAGES FROM THE HOLLOW EARTH"

Dictated to Dianne Robbins by "Mikos"

Reviewed by B-ANTON (Bruce Alan Walton), Hollow Earth Researcher.

Imagine a perfect garden on a warm summer day, the sunshine only obscured now and then by cool clouds drifting overhead. However, this day does not end, but is continual, since the "sun" (the "central sun" within the heart of the earth) never moves. This body of light is just the right size and intensity to keep the inner surface at a warm (not cold nor hot) temperature perpetually. Since there is no "night" there, the inhabitants simply take occasional "naps" to replenish their energy.

This is the setting just outside the library of "Porthologos", which is a magnificent jeweled structure such as has no equal on the surface of the earth, like a structure out of a living dream.

Porthologos is not just a library, but also a holographic "observatory" of our multi-dimensional universe, where all spaces, times, and dimensions may be studied in depth. Truly, Porthologos is a "doorway" to the Omniverse... In Porthologos, you will meet people from other worlds in space, from various underground cities, and even from other dimensions as well. Unlike our Internet, Porthologos has a Psi-net much like the virtual-reality chairs and helmets that you see in the movies. However it is not "virtual" reality, but "true" reality, as the Psi-net takes you through the virtual galactic info-net to explore other worlds and dimensions with your thoughts AND feelings.

Or, you may experience the crystalline recordings of all the recorded history of our Omniverse, if you wish. Before the deluge, a canopy or firmament surrounded the entire planet, blocking out the harmful radiations of the sun. This is why centurions such as Methuselah lived to be over 900 years old. But with the falling of this canopy, the protective shield was lost, and man's life span decreased dramatically.

The inner sun, with its electro-magnetically-focused "auroral" nature (its reflection is sometimes seen through the northern and southern openings as the "polar lights"), does not possess the harmful radiation that would otherwise deplete the life-force of its inhabitants, causing these inhabitants to live in the hundreds of years, or even longer than Methuselah's 900+ years. Some of these Inner dwellers, like Mikos himself, live to be many thousands of years old. With the canopy that once covered the earth, the outer surface was once as lush as the inner surface. However, with the fall of the protective canopy that kept the outer planet at an even climate, and blocked out the harmful radiations, the inner surface alone remains in an "Edenic" state.

Most of the cities in the inner surface are underground within the vast caverns of the inner crust, in order to protect and preserve the natural beauty and foliage of the inner surface. All the buildings on the surface of the inner hollow sphere are circular rather than possessing sharp corners.

The crust of the planet is 800 miles thick between the inner and outer surfaces". Since the center of gravity is not the center of the earth, but some 400 miles down from each surface of our 'hollow' sphere, those on the inner sphere might seem to live in an upside-down state from us (just like those living on opposite sides of the outer sphere).

The inner surface of the earth contains only one-half of the gravity as the outer surface. In other words, if one weighed 200 pounds on the outer surface, they would weigh only 100 pounds on the inner surface, possibly explaining why some of these people are nearly twice our size.

Just inside the polar openings there are vast "spaceports" which accommodate galactic visitors who come to visit their friends within the earth.

"MESSAGES FROM THE HOLLOW EARTH" is a must-read, if one is interested in knowing the truth about this strange and wonderful world in which we live, a world that plays such a central role in the history and destiny of the human race in this grand universe."
