Collectively there is nothing that you cannot do, but you have been split by various dogmas and beliefs that have seen you separate into many different groups. The continuing w-rs and confrontations have made enemies amongst people where none previously existed, and deliberately perpetuated by the dark Ones. Perhaps the biggest obstacles to integration have been r-ligious beliefs, because they also have provided the basis for ♦them and us♦ for thousands of years. You will find that fear is at the root of most differences, and historically speaking in the end people do not remember how it came about. Because of re-i-carnation you have lived through these periods, and somewhere deep down the result of those experiences still live with you. You have been continually trying to balance them out, and success lies in the fact that you will have experienced both sides of the problems. At heart your desire is to understand them and find a way of dealing with them to reach a peaceful conclusion.

There has never been a better time than now to achieve it, and you will find that the different r-ces on Earth are basically seeking a loving relationship with each other. Forget the rantings and ravings of those few who wish to perpetuate the old ways, as their influence no longer carries the power that it once had. The energy for peace is now most powerful, and through the Law of Attraction has drawn help from the higher Beings that are Masters of the different rays that are projected to Earth, and enable you to become a greater Being of Light than you were previously. By anchoring the rays on Earth you have created a powerful grid that is lifting you up out of the lower energies.

You therefore have what is necessary to fully bring the Light into manifestation, and it will create the harmony and balance that you seek. You and millions of other Lightworkers are changing the vibrations on Earth, and that can only lead to a greater concentration of that powerful energy. The dark Ones will attempt to break it up, but that can only be achieved if you allow it to be so. So concentrate your focus on the Light, and continue to hold fast to your vision of the golden future. Soon the truth of who you really are and your purpose for being on Earth will be known. That will bring people together as the Oneness in which you exist will become apparent. How else could it be Dear Ones, as you all come from the same Source? You are the One Family held in the arms of the All-Loving Supreme Creator.

It is you who are paving the way to Ascension, and it can be as easy or difficult as you make it. We of course along with many other Beings are helping the whole process, and nothing can stop it from manifesting. As we so often tell you, you are the ones who are creating your own reality. Think upon it for a moment, and in that event why would you create a scenario full of disaster d-ath and destruction? It is true that ancient prophesies paint such a picture, and even today p-ychics pick up on it. However, it will not manifest unless it is given the energy to empower it. It is true that the Earth must be cleansed and that physical changes will take place, but they will not be of the scale to destroy large areas. We monitor such changes and we use our technologies to lessen the impact upon you. If you are disturbed by recent happenings, bear in mind that the dark Ones have been behind most occurrences. We can only fully engage them when we are able to work openly with you, and can put a complete stop to their activities.

They Say We Were Galactic Beings Before Coming to Earth.

The Galactic Federation is charged with keeping peace in the Universe, and is of such a size that it is equal to the task. Only a part of our force is presently stationed around Earth, and totally adequate for the upliftment of you and Mother Earth. You may be assured that if you have chosen to ascend, and are ready when the end time comes you will complete the process. It is far too late for the dark Ones to have any impact upon you, and they are being forced to retreat and allow the D-vine Plan to be fulfilled. Is it not ironical that it is they who now experience fear about their future, knowing that they will be called upon to answer for their crimes against Humanity. Justice is coupled with love and understanding, and is not a tool for revenge as every person still has the potential to grow into the Light.

We know that regardless of how much information is given you as to your true selves, there will still be some who do not feel ready to move into the new energies. That is fine by us and their needs will be given as much attention as any others, as all will find that they end up in exactly the right level for their present stage of evolution. Remember that it is in the same way as you are given free choice, everyone in your family and circle of friends have exactly the same options. It is not therefore your place to try and force another soul to do your bidding, or chastise them for choosing differently to yourself. As it happens most families come together because they are on a similar vibration, so many will go forward as one.

We want to be more active with you all, but for the time being must wait for the correct opportunity to be officially recognized and welcomed to Earth. Our allies push forward for the announcement that will allow us to do so, and we know it is getting nearer than ever. Be patient as we assure you the wait will have been well worthwhile. Matters in your world will progress at a remarkable pace, particularly when the necessary governmental changes have gone through. Meantime attend to your own needs where Ascension is concerned, as in the long run that is the most important issue for you. You have a little work to do, and as you say, ♦walk your talk♦ as the time has long passed where you need to hide behind your beliefs. Live now as you would when all souls have been brought together, and recognize themselves in each other. You are One, so how else could it be?

I am SaLuSa from Sirius, and becoming more excited at the thought of First Contact, that will follow the announcement of disclosure. It will be a most enjoyable period in your lives, and we can almost feel the relief and joy. How could it be any other way when you are to meet your real families from way out in Space? You were Galactic Beings prior to coming to Earth, and will be again as you lift up your vibrations to the higher levels.

Thank you SaLuSa.

Mike Qu-nsey.
