Subject: Our Wonderful Future. Part 2 of 2.
July 18, 2011.

This says we will do away with d-ath.

How often do you feel tired in your physical body, or suffer pain and disability? Well, let us say that all of it will be put behind you when you rise up. Such conditions will never be repeated again, as none of the physical problems can relate to your Light body. Its vibrations are so high that nothing can manifest except it is in its perfect expression. When times get hard remind yourself of how short lived they will be, and how in next to no time they will become just distant memories.

(26)

Our enhanced bodily condition will have us resemble the galactics: We are in a perfect state of health and do not age as you do.

(27)

Bodily conditions such as hunger will be a thing of the past, he tells us.

In a physical body you experience hunger, but as an Ascended Being you will have a lighter body of a higher vibration, and that will no longer be your experience. Your requirements for sustenance will be largely served by the energies all around you. When you always feel vibrant and healthy, you do not stop to think about fuelling your body. However, there are occasions when light foodstuffs and liquid refreshment are taken and enjoyed.

Fatigue will fade into memory, he says. In the lower vibrations you become tired out very easily. Because you will be in a lighter body, unlike on Earth it does not require periods of sleep but rest is sufficient to re-energise yourself.

In fact, all frailties will be subdued, says Ag-Agria.

With Ascension you will have overcome so many of the frailties that exist now. Eventually the vibrations will be so high that you will be entering a state of near perfection as a Light Being. Then you will be able to be yourself, that is your Higher Self adorned with the Light of many suns, and radiate the love that knows no ending.

SaLuSa tells us that we will not experience de-th any longer.

You are in essence ageless, and it is only in the lower dimensions that you put on your physical body that has a limited life span, and you experience -eath. Even that is only an illusion, as you are immortal.

(31)

The final years of the end times offer a unique opportunity to move out of the cycle of r-incarnation, SaLuSa tells us.

(32)

M-tthew explains:

Yes, life spans will be much longer, but there will not be a specific drop-de-d age then any more than now always so-l growth is the decisive longevity factor; when Earth has presented all the experiencing a so-l needs to move into a greatly different plane, he will leave.

The splendid difference is, in the Golden Ag- there is the s-iritual clarity that life is unending learning and growing, there is no excruciating grief and sense of loss that exists now, and all can communicate tel-pathically with beloved -ouls elsewhere in the universe.

(33)

We'll have transcended dea-h, Ag-Agria says:

It is a unique time in this cycle that offers a release from duality, and death such as you understand it. Your future Self will when the necessity arises take a new body without the need to experience dying again.

(34)

Many of these powers and outcomes are to be found on the Astral and Mental Planes on the other side of death, the etheric Fourth and Fifth Dimensions, which strongly suggests that, with Ascension, we'll literally bring Heaven to Earth.
