Subject: Change Your Heart And Change The World. Part 2 of 2. ly 20, 2011.

This tells when we should practice this procedure.

We are One with the Earth and there is two-way communication. The collective power of human hearts and minds can break the spell of the Matrix which is a two-stone weakling compared with the potential of the collective human heart and mind/consciousness. This is the power source of transformation that has the Control System trembling in its boots.

Hearts and minds connecting as a single whole produce the power in rain dances that change the electromagnetic field and make it rain. We can transform the world from a p-ison to a paradise merely by focussing together in sufficient numbers to release the transformative power of the collective human heart and mind.

Author and researcher Barbel Mohr writes: 'Whenever a great many people focus their attention or consciousness on something similar like C-ristmas time, football world championship or the funeral of Lady Diana in England then certain random number generators in computers start to deliver ordered numbers instead of the random ones.' Numbers are digital versions of vibrational waveform states.

The Global Consciousness Project was established in 1998 to study the effect of human consciousness on the 'physical' world. The project has a network of random event generators on every continent and in more than 50 locations to measure the impact of human consciousness. Spikes in activity are produced during events of global and national focus.

The project concludes from the findings so far: 'The results are evidence that the physical world and our mental world of information and meaning are linked in ways that we don't yet understand.' Or maybe we do. Experiments have shown that DNA can imprint information into energy fields. This is called the 'phantom DNA effect'.

We can communicate with each other and connect with each other through heart, consciousness and DNA transmissions and this is how t-lepathy and remote h-aling is possible. All this is happening beyond what we call time and space in levels of reality where everything is One. This is the antidote to the Control System.

So to Awakening the World - Every Heart Makes A Difference and the Non-compli-dance. We have introduced a special section of Davidicke.com (click here) where every day at 9.30pm UK time we will offer the opportunity for a global connection of hearts and minds to send love, peace and harmony into the collective field. Every day we will post a picture to aid that focus. It might be an image of the Earth, the ocean, Tripoli, or an individual that requires he-ling and harmony in the face of the onslaught of e-il and chaos.

I want to do this every day for 20 minutes with eventually millions coming together to create a collective field of love, peace and harmony that will have a fantastic effect on world events. Don't expect this to happen overnight.

The effect is cumulative and we need to keep doing this for as long as it takes and until we have harnessed the hearts of those millions, tens of million, hundreds of millions.

What can we do? This is what we can do.

I am also encouraging people all over the world in every town, city, village and community to step forward as organizers of groups and gatherings of people willing to come together regularly - several times a week - to connect their energy fields and project love, peace and harmony into the atmosphere. The more that come together the better.

We also need massive gatherings organized at known 'sa-red sites' which are perceived as 'sacr-d' because they are located at major vortex points where the planetary impact is much greater. We now have a section of the Davidicke.com forum specifically for people to communicate and organize these groups and gatherings - click here. All it really needs is a time and place. We will dilute the energy of fear, anger, hatred and hostility and replace it with love, peace and harmony - everything the Control System doesn't want.

Please get involved because this will change the tide in the hearts of human beings and remove the power of those that seek to control us. Make a decision to dedicate yourself to this cause and then follow your intuitive knowing and everything will fall into place.

The 'Force' will be with you because you have made a decision to connect with the 'Force'. The transformation in other levels of reality is ready to roll. We only need to ground that energy in our reality. This is what we came here to do. The human population is a sleeping giant of incredible power, and we need to wake up to that truth and harness that power for the greater good of all.

The world will benefit in a most fundamental way from these collective energy transmissions and you will see the world changing for the better as the energetic distortions, hate and fear are dissolved along with the effect of that energy on human perception and behaviour.

W-rs, engineered catastrophes and financial meltdowns are instigated for many reasons, but the most important one is to produce ever more incoherent energy from human reactions and responses.

I also make an appeal to those that are increasingly taking to the streets to protest at what is happening and it is good that people are demanding that their voice be heard, but we have to be streetwise here. If the protests are angry, aggressive and hostile they are doing exactly what the manipulators want - producing still more of the energy on which they depend.

Imagine the power of replacing stand up angry protests with sit-down silent focus where thousands join their hearts together and send out the energy of love and peace which is thousands of times more powerful than anger and resentment. Instead of shouting slogans or abuse at the authorities and police, we just sit down in great numbers and silently focus on the heart. We love them and help them see the nonsense that they protect and enforce. People so misunderstand love. They see it as weak when it is the ultimate power because it represents energetic coherence that unleashes our true potential for shaping our own reality. Love is without fear. Love does not run away, but nor does it attack. It transforms through vibrational balance and universal intelligence. The hate and ignorance of the Control System simply cannot compete when we understand this and collectively express it.

When we have completed the heart focus together in the streets, at Control System locations or sacred sites, then we do the non-compli-dance. Let us dance with love, joy and laughter and give that energy of love and harmony even more power as we swirl and twist our electromagnetic fields to whip up the electromagnetic energy sea and make it dance with electrical power on the vibration of love and harmony.

Doing what I am asking for here is not only of crucial benefit to our collective reality. This will make transformative changes in everyone who contributes. Taking the time regularly to sit quietly and focus on heart coherence and to send out love, peace and harmony will manifest as love, peace and harmony within you.

This will produce coherence in heart electrical and vibrational activity bringing into harmony the trinity of heart, brain and nervous system. This harmony will unleash your fantastic potential for self-healing, clear thought and inspired knowing that comes when heart, mind and body are working as one unit.

Remember that there are more nerves going from the heart to the brain than going the other way and the electrical and magnetic fields of the heart are as much as 100 times stronger than the brain. Love, appreciation and caring are 5,000 times more powerful than fear, hate, anger, resentment, frustration and depression.

We clearly have the power to change the nature of the Earth energy field to create feedback loops of love, peace and harmony to replace the fear, hatred and chaos that we currently have. The 'head' got us into this mess and the heart, in harmony with the 'head', is going to get us out of it. Heart coherence also increases the power of intuition and the immune system.

Everyone's a winner here. As you give, so you will receive. Mind has created our present reality and heart will set us free. As a song that I know says:

We are the power in everyone
We are the dance of the Moon and the Sun
We are the hope that will never hide
We are the turning of the tide.
Come on people. Let's go.

The Non-Comply Dance - Dance for the World

I don't go with the idea of 'killing' here, only removing their power, and for 'believe' I would say 'know', but apart from that this video is right on.

If you revolt and protest with anger, resentment and hostility you are giving them exactly what they want. Let us give them exactly what they don't want, what they are terrified of - unleashed collective human energetic power. Awakening the World - Every Heart Makes A Difference is asking you to 'protest' (run at them energetically) in vast, vast numbers all over the world by sitting down and focusing on your heart and joining with thousands of other hearts - tens of millions, hundreds of millions worldwide to send out love, peace and harmony into the energy field with which we constantly interact.

And then to DANCE together with love, joy and laughter. The energetic impact of this on yourself and the world is going to be fantastic.

Awakening the World - Every Heart Makes A Difference and the Non-Comply-dance.
Together in love and harmony we are unstoppable. The Rothschilds have already cancelled the laxative order.
Please post your videos so we can let the world see the peaceful revolution that will set us free.
