These attacks and liberations

were utilized using Excalibur type technology. This is sonic, ground-penetrating weaponry that attacks deep underground but leaves the surface unharmed. This message was given to me on the night of August 25th by several small scout craft positioned overhead in a certain location in S-otland where I am now based. The attacks would take place between the 25th and 30th August, I was told. A couple of days later, I was told by Lin-oln that he'd heard of a huge explosion and fire in the underground facility at M-ntauk, where the Phoenix mind control project is being run. He also informed me that the mag-lev underground tube shuttle system had been shutdown between the bases in New Mexico. All the terminals had been closed and this went on for an unusually long time. Anyway, I don't want to dwell on the w-rlike aspect of the Pleiadians. I want to focus on the joy and ecstasy that comes with having a heart link with them, especially the female aspect of their civilization. They are a G-ddess-based society, which venerates females and family. The feeling of the energy is similar to being in love. Children with Pleiadian genetics are highly sought after in Mannequin and are known under such code names as Platinum Blues and Digital Children.

These are the most joyful and a-gelic children whose p-yhic abilities come from the ability to feel love and the feelings of another being. The people used in the project are like the phoenix. They are individuals of such passion and fire that their s-uls are often too powerful for their bodies. It often takes to their 30th birthday to learn how to slow down and take care and control over their physical bodies.
