Subject: Is The Karmic Purpose Of This World Coming To And End?
Part 2 of 2. Aug. 12, 2011.

Here he says we get fr-e energy.

Please do not feel sad if persons dearest to you are among the non-receptive. S-iritual e-olvement comes at a pace that is as unique as each s-ul itself is. When the time is right for your beloved people to have conscious awareness of universal knowledge and grow sp-ritually, they will.

The more ev-lved a so-l is, the more inspired it is to help others evo-ve, and by doing so, it also keeps growing. The unified purpose of some civilizations in higher densities is beaming their intense light to lower-density populations to help them progress, and some of you came from those civilizations specifically to radiate your light to benefit less evol-ed so-ls on Earth.

While lightworkers with many lifetimes of experience in vital fields are in positions of influence, most of you are fulfilling your missions to simply BE the light you ARE. Let your life exemplify the peacefulness inherent in trusting your inner voice's assurance that the Golden A-e is on the near horizon, and in the continuum that Earth is fast approaching, you already are joyously living in that love-filled world. What a thrilling time to be on Earth!

Now we shall address other issues being questioned, and for the many newcomers to these messages, we are happy to include brief comments on topics previously covered. For more extensive information on topics of interest to you, use the index or type key words in the search feature at the top of Matthew's Messages on [www.matthewbooks.com, or scroll down the page to see the main topics under each message date.]

Serious unrest in the world will ease as the planet continues its course into higher energy planes, where the light is so intense that persons with dark proclivity cannot physically survive. The ones who are responsible for massive suffering no longer will be on Earth.

Not only national economies, but the global economy is headed toward collapse; honorable individuals will take the helm and keep disruption to a minimum.

Govern-ents are not going to confiscate individuals' gold. It is the multi-trillions of dollars in gold illegally accumulated by the Ill-minati that will change hands.

It isn't within our province to give financial advice, as many of you have requested, but we can say that it is sensible to have some cash on hand as well as the kinds of supplies you would need in case of a power outage.

During the months ahead, all unjust laws will be stricken and proposed laws with dark intent will not go into effect.

No mysterious Planet X or any other celestial body is going to collide with Earth or come close enough to have any effect, and the photon belt is so far distant from your planet that its meanderings are inconsequential.

The b-mbing and massacre in Norway was not a false flag. The perpetrator is an example of what we said about bad in humankind being its worst.

The Ill-minati's long-time suppression of fr-e energy developments will end within months and so will their use of HAARP to the detriment of humankind and the planet.

Current wireless communication instruments that are harmful to brains will not operate in higher vibratory planes, and harmless instruments with the same capabilities and more will become available.

The elimination of pollutants in your soil, water and atmosphere will include depleted uranium and radioactive nuclear waste. Nuclear facilities will be dismantled.

All war will end incrementally and troops in foreign countries, whether in combat, occupation forces or simply because military bases exist, will return to their own countries.

Unemployment and poverty will cease being of concern when money and the planet's natural resources are fairly distributed; doing so is a paramount goal of the light beings who lead the way into Earth's Golden Age.

Animals in the food chain agree to this at soul level, and the brutality they now are subjected to in life and death will change to kindly treatment and gratitude for their service to humans. All animals will be honored and respected as the souls they are.

Neither light absorption nor life in the Golden Age requires a vegan diet; however, as you move into lighter density planes, your bodies will become correspondingly lighter and many no longer will find animal flesh palatable.

If we knew when our universal family will land en masse, it would be a grand delight to tell you! We cannot give a specific date for that or any other major event because of all the variables involved, most notably free will choices, that can change a time projection in the twinkling of an eye.

Fourth density is not a single condition or soul evolution station separated from third density by an immutable barrier; no density is. Everything in this universe is energy ebbing and flowing, or more scientifically, expanding and contracting, and energy has no confined compartments. Densities have been numbered only for your understanding that as souls progress, they move forward to vibratory levels that offer new opportunities to learn and evolve, and each density holds many such levels. Furthermore, a fourth density soul can regress to third or lower, depending on the lifetimes of its personages. [The Cumulative Soul chapter in Revelations for a New Era comprehensively explains a soul's many personages.]

Third density is especially arduous experiencing because it encompasses so many levels, and the difference between its lowest and the first level of fourth density is as dramatic as night and day. The evolutionary process from third to fourth could be likened to countless similar objects; let us say dominoes for your picturing; some at the foot of a mountain and others climbing it. Observing closer in, you can see that not only are the dominoes moving at different speeds, but some are going straight up, others keep moving a tad to the left then the right as they climb, and some are falling behind the dominoes they used to be in front of.

Using that analogy, when this era of spiritual renewal and world transformation started some seventy years ago, the vast majority of Earth's residents was huddled at the bottom of the mountain. Since then, many have done so much side-stepping that they're barely halfway up, some souls have fallen so far behind that they can only see the mountain in the distance, and many others have climbed so fast and steadily that they've almost reached the mountain peak; and to this last group, we say, Hooray for you!

You will be able to communicate telepathically in the Golden Age, but speaking aloud still will be important and pleasurable. When telepathic conversations are commonplace again, you will be able to communicate telepathically with people whose languages are different because a translation process is an inherent aspect of telepathy.

Karma is not necessarily different for each lifetime. At the evolution level where karma exists, most often reincarnating is for another try to successfully complete the very same lesson that in other lifetimes, the soul's personages chose to do but failed.

All souls have free will regardless of their evolution status, whether living in spirit worlds or physical civilizations, or their location in the universe. The free will choices of all who live in Earth's Golden Age will be in the light because no darkness can exist in those high vibrations.

The Golden Age has been so named because life in that world is such a phenomenal contrast to the past many millennia of life on Earth. Not all the glories of that Age will be heaped on its threshold. Everything based in darkness will be gone, but as you and your planet keep journeying, you will keep discovering wondrous new knowledge and capabilities. New is in quotation marks because your souls have all knowledge and capabilities, you just need to get in touch with them consciously and you shall!

In addition to the light steadfastly beamed from lighted so-ls in sp-rit worlds and physical civilizations, technological help from crews in thousands of ships in your skies, and the beneficial influence of your universal family members who are living among you, you are surrounded by unseen helpers: your guardian a-gels or gatekeepers and the an-els who reinforce their efforts when needed; ang-ls in lower realms who embody briefly to guide and protect; spi-it guides, whose specialized experience often is the difference between your being stumped about something and later, suddenly ♦getting it♦; and the Nature people♦the various kinds of sou-s that you call the Devic kingdom♦who may help you find misplaced car keys or earrings♦that they mischievously hide things is a fallacy!♦or nudge a reminder about something you had meant to do, but forgot. These myriad so-ls, all emissaries of G-d, are ever-present helpers.

Continue your journey joyously knowing that you are Oneness in the Ch-isted light, the infinite, eternal unconditional love essence of Creato-r wherein all so-ls have their Beginning.

LOVE and PEACE

[Note from Suzy: Heartfelt thanks to all who have written appreciation for the books and these messages and/or sent wishes for my well being. I am doing well and so is my fur family (three very old dogs, like me, and an exhuberant young three-legged German shepherd). I♦m grateful for your understanding that there♦s no time to answer most emails and why my few replies may be appallingly belated.]
