Subject: Are About 70 Alien Civilizations On Earth? Part 4 of 4.
Sept. 4, 2011

This talks about The Men In B-ack.

Many publicized expeditions into these tunnel openings around the world never returned: During the late 19th century and early 20th century a few explorers of the ice caps left diaries stating they accidentally hiked into warm dry openings in the ice with vegetation near the north polar region, yet few believed their stories. Eskimos have legends about a warm dry land in the north where ancestors lived:

In 1964 a one-day one time news release stated a huge, underwater, metallic, cylindrical shaped object had been found on the floor of the North Atlantic. it was about 60 miles long and gave off strong energy fields that distorted navigational and electronic instruments. It was quickly covered-up. In the scientific non-fiction section of the Library of Congress, Dan C-hen said he found books about these openings and underground r-ces.

The m-litary was reportedly warned they would be destroyed if they penetrated the underground areas and to keep civilians out by s-crecy. There is no bad weather inside these underground civilizations and life is in peace and harmony with 10,000 years of no interference.

DANGEROUS LIFE AS A SE-RET AGENT
When Al B-nder publicized the first exposure of the underground UFO bases in the Australian media, he was visited by three mysterious Men in Bl-ck who threatened him and silenced him from further details.

The 3 Men in Bla-k have reportedly been seen by thousands of UFO witnesses all around the world since 1947, and they all report threats, intimidation, and often silencing. Some UFO witnesses disappeared after reporting UFO activity and Men in Blac- encounters. The Men in -lack wear b-ack suits, bl-ck 1930s F-I type hats, thick black sunglasses even at night), bla-k shoes and socks, and have blac- hair and dark complexions. They always drive what looks and smells like brand new factory released black limos or Cadillac's. Sometimes they fly bla-k helicopters with no numbers or insignias. They carry blac- briefcases. Who are the Men in B-ack?

Although they sometimes have shown CI- or Air F-rce identifications, both agencies deny they are aff iliated. No Go-ernment. agency admits. Even some air fo-ce officers and mil-tary agents reported they were harassed by men in bla-k. When Ray P-lmer published his UFO magazines in the 1940s he was never harassed until he published an issue about alien cities inside our planet.

Somebody attacked the delivery truck full of magazines and ripped them all off, and the driver disappeared. The printing press was broken into and vandalized.

Pa-mer was threatened by men in bla-k. In the 1970s many researchers considered John K-el the leading UFO writer and researcher in America. Ke-l reported many threatening phone calls with monotone voices, tapped lines, and Men in -lack spying on his office. One day he saw one of their bla-klimos parked out in front, and gave chase to it in his car around New York City. The blac- car outmaneuvered Kee- into a narrow road through the woods, where it lost him. The Men in B-ack reportedly speak in monotone with no facial expressions or emotions. One incident described them with a bl-ck dog that never barked. One witnessed described harassment by 3 women in bla-k.

In ancient times 3 hooded men in blac- in bl-ck chariots harassed witnesses of strange lights in the sky. -eel did some historical re- search on this case.
In the middle ages 3 knights in bl-ck Armour riding blac- horses threatened UFO witnesses. In the Renaissance era 3 caped hooded men in -lack robes in black carriages pulled by b-ack horses harassed UFO witnesses. In all of these old cases UFO activity and Men in Bl-ck were accompanied by the outbreak of a great plague that k-lled millions of people. Old drawings and paintings from the Middle Ages and Renaissance clearly show aerial vehicles spraying the people or hovering overhead before the plague broke out, and one of these clear drawings shows what looks like a humanoid being spraying Germans with a tube device as the Bl-ck Plague broke out. A thick bla-k mist or fog, lights or strange objects in the sky, and hooded blac- beings repeatedly accompanied huge disease outbreaks.
Some researchers theorize this was an alien method of population control because a much smaller population is far easier to control and exploit, and all through history aliens have se-cretly started diseases and w-r incidents to reduce population...A-DS and their "gift of n-clear energy" the latest methods.
B-blical versus also contain accounts of great disease related to angry g-ds or fallen a-gels that Sumerian tablets state were really extraterrestrial rulers wiping out people and rulers who rebelled from Enki and Enlil...the alien ambassadors from Nibiru. Enki, according to those tablets, Genetically engineered the human s-ave r-ce in Sumeria with cross-breeding between indigenous apes ( JW It is my opinion that they bred with the undeveloped people of that area.) and Nibirian aliens, and Enlil used weather control technology to engineer the Great Flood to drown them when they rebelled against their alien masters.
The Sumerian tablets also talk about people in bl-ck in these events. But the Nibirians, from another planet in our solar system, used their base on Mars to manipulate us too.
Some UFO researchers speculate the Men in Bla-k are alien humans based On Sirius planet Darnat, the r-ce ancient Egyptian writings state the Egyptians descended from themselves. One UFO abductee reported her abductors claimed to be from Sirius and they looked like dark complexioned humans. They told her she was a mere human who did not have the brains to understand how their ship was powered so don't even ask, and they regarded us like we regard livestock.
I was attacked by a man identifying himself as a French e-pionage agent, who tried to strangle me and said he was assigned to ki-l. He ripped-off my top sec-et Xian State Department international code book, which translated Xian documents and the Xian language and codes into 5 languages. I knew some martial arts, and some fast karate kicks loosened the grip from this huge, muscular, powerful man. I escaped to the San Francisco police station where the information officer informed me that attacker had recently been in jail and was dangerous.
That same week I had been establishing a new Xian international network in San Francisco in 1968, and was attacked by a gang of b-acks at night who pulled a gun on me and threatened to kil-. Although alone I had a b-oody escape. It was dangerous to be a traveling agent of the State Department international that is) of the Xian Planetary Council (Exeren) trying to make contacts to set up local agents and centers for Xians (planetary citizens).
We showed allegiance to no governments except our own. It was the world planetary council of leaders who were in position because they did the most to help the Xians rather than power, money, or fame. I was a leader yet most of the Xian citizens didn't even know my name.
In 1969, on a sec-et assignment for South and Central America, I found myself in the middle of a Communist r-volution in Guatemala. An ar-y supported by Fidel Ca-tro had invaded the country and was trying to over-throw the nationistic dictator, and 3 armies were giving each other heavy casualties fighting each other. I was traveling with the director of Xian International from Venezuela, Pancho Planachette. He was a triple-agent s-y for 3 gov-rnments ...Venezuela, Mexico, and Xians Planetary Council. His former job had been a-sassinating enemies of the Venezuelan dictator and international es-ionage. (He had totally changed his consciousness after taking psychedelic mushrooms and LSD--25 at his mansion, the famous House of the Sun, near herto Vallarta. Like many others in the late sixties who had psychedelic experiences, he turned from violence and uptightness to peace, mellowness and the unity of humanity and had embarked, like Carlos in Mexico, on a spir-tual quest. He realized that his James Bond lifestyle had been the result of national, racial, and r-ligious boundaries that had divided up humanity into fighting factions, and was attracted to the ideation of Xian planetary citizenship with no national, racial, or re-ligious barriers.

At the border we were met with armed guards who were unfriendly and uptight. Pol-tical maneuvering got us in the country, and we were off to the capital in a bus full of armed soldiers guarding us from the shooting rev-lutionaries. Once in Guatemala City, we checked into a hotel guarded by machine-gun toting soldiers, for right across the street the chief of police had been ass-ssinated and there was bl-od all around. The Pre-ident of Guatemala had already been assass-nated before we arrived, along with over 2,000 more de-d bodies in the city streets. Would we be next? The Xian High Council taught emotional control and we were very calm. This was more like an exciting adventure. Why stay home and watch exciting adventure on TV when you could go out and do it for real? Live life to the fullest. The enemy was attacking A-ericans, stealing their passports, and selling them for a thousand dollars each on the black market. I didn't want them to get my Planetary Passport from the Xian state department, which was worth execution by firing squad for being a subversive infiltrating revol-tionary in a di-tatorship attempting to set up the revo-utionary- considered new Xian gove-nment!
