Subject: SaLuSa Has Returned.
Sept. 5, 2011.

Michael had changed his computer and this took a while. The new computer has now been installed so he can bring SaLuSa through again.

Wonderful! SaLuSa is back.

Leaders all over the world are aware of the coming changes, and realize that for the good of the people they must come into being. However, some still believe that they can receive all of the benefits and cling to the old ways that are no longer compatible with the plan for you. Do not worry, as those who feel that they cannot accept what we have to offer, will have to stand down. Those who will come forward to take their place are already known to us for being visionaries, and are aware that they have an important role to play. No longer will you be subject to the corrupt deals with the major corporations, and their power and influence will be greatly moderated. Your faith in p-liticians will be restored, as you see that the ones entrusted with your future are s-iritually motivated and also of the Light.

When poverty and lack are addressed, at a stroke you will see an immediate drop in the criminal acts that arise from such conditions. The "them and us" divide that has brought about two classes of people will disappear. Wealth will be redistributed and no one will be allowed to keep their ill gotten gains. Believe us that we know exactly how wealth has been created, and much has been acquired by manipulation and outright theft. We also know where it is being hidden, and s-cret accounts will be revealed and confiscated. There is no place in the future for the unfair distribution of wealth, and monies given or collected by g-vernments will have to be totally accounted for at all times.

We have little time left to continue convincing many noted persons in your world that the old ways must change, because they will come about whether people are prepared or not. The idea of a totally new society is readily being accepted by more people than ever. Indeed, you have made it clear that you are unhappy with the old system, that has failed to give you the benefits of your labors and failed to honor your sovereignty. Unlike earlier civilizations you are not going to be destroyed, and talk of great disasters and worldwide catastrophes are not to be your experience. We are able to control such events, and although we must allow Mother Earth to also take part in the cleansing we can limit its effect.

Clearly there is not much longer to wait for the whole process of change to commence. The plan is in place and will quickly bring about those initial changes, they will signal to everyone that the dark Ones have been denied their seats of power and no longer hold sway over you. The resultant joy and happiness will raise your consciousness levels further, and these wonderful energies will release the frustration and anger that has been building up for a very long time. Peace will descend upon Earth and those long established differences between you will be settled. In times of plenty there is no reason to covet your neighbours belongings, and happy and fulfilled people are able to share their love with others and enjoy their new found freedom.

As you approach the end of this year, it may be your conclusion that the many events we have continually spoken of must get underway. That would indeed be true, and rather than many individual ones, there will be a whole succession of them that will be linked. Much has to be prepared in advance for our mass landing, and any likely threat against us will have to be removed. Therefore First Contact will be dependent upon certain factors before we can go ahead. Come it will, and be part of a great celebration of your reunion with us who are after all your true brothers and sisters. You have been in the dark for far too long, and the Light is now clearing away the cobwebs of a system that what was designed to exercise total control over you.

SaLuSa Has Returned.

These are the times when your resolve will be sorely tested, and whatever is calculated to distract you from the truth should be ignored. Nothing will stop the Ascension process from finally manifesting at the end of 2012, so hold fast to your beliefs and walk tall in your Light.

Thank you SaLuSa

Mike Qui-sey.
