Subject: Is Comet Lenin A Mother-Ship? Part 5 of 5.
Sept. 10, 2011.

This talks about Star Seeds.

This level is associated with the causal worlds, from where I get my information.

I am fairly aware of the fact that there are other classifications of astral strata in the esoteric literature, but they essentially relay the same knowledge: The higher the frequencies of your four bodies (physical, emotional, mental, and ethereal) are - the more evolved your soul is, until you reach a level, where the soul is dissolved into the bigger soul-family or monad and merges with the Source. At this level, there is no longer any separation between individual souls. This ought to be basic esoteric knowledge.

Now, the following is a completely new information, which I have not found in any channelled or other message so far - and you know that I have a good overview on this type of literature. The paradoxical situation is that the higher the frequencies of your physical vessel are, the more easily you can present your body in the 3d-density on earth. This is the actual difference between various ascended masters.

Generally, all souls that have finished with their incarnation cycle enter a new dimensional level, which can be described as the 6th dimension. These souls are generally defined as Ascended Masters in the popular channelled literature. You know that I am fond of precise definitions as to avoid any misunderstanding. This is the core of the new Theory of Science of the Universal Law.

These Ascended Masters cannot return on earth, as it is very difficult for them to create a light body that will be visible to normal human beings. I am not saying that it is energetically impossible, as it is definitely not the case. This act of materialisation of high frequency energies simply affords an enormous amount of energy.

However, in All-That-Is reigns the basic "mini-max-principle" of Creation, which I also define as the "principle of cosmic optimisation". It says that it is the duty of any sentient, creative cosmic being to achieve the maximal, the most beneficial result with a minimum of energy input.

No responsible Ascended Master will ever show himself on earth by creating a visible light body through the exhaustion of huge amount of pure energy, unless there is an absolute necessity to do so. In addition, if a society, like the current human civilization, is living under the veil of total forgetfulness, such an appearance with only infringe upon the rules of incarnation on this planet. This is the only reason, why the Forces of Light do not usually show themselves on earth, although there are no principle hurdles that prevent them from doing it.

Only in the special case, when the incarnated entity has transformed his physical vessel during his last incarnation under the usual material conditions of 3d-space-time on earth, can this entity materialize and dematerialize his body anytime at his discretion. I define such an incarnated soul as "transliminal soul". This is a unique achievement that goes beyond the popular term "Ascended Master". The reason for this is that the ethereal and astral fields of such an entity have incorporated so much high frequency energies from the 6th and higher dimensions that his body fields are mere prolongations of these dimensions in the dense 3d-space-time on earth.

In order to be a transliminal soul, one must have reached at least the 144-octave of earth's crystalline grid.

Now, below the level of Ascended Masters, as described above, there are several distinct levels of Ascension. For instance, one can ascend in spirit to the 144-octave, but still dwell in his physical vessel, until the final mass Ascension in December 2012 takes place.

After that this entity will no longer dwell in the lower 5th dimension, but will automatically reach the highest 5d-levels, where he can exist as pure energy.

This entity, or s-ul, can create anytime a light body and appear in the second level of the 5th dimension, where most of the inca-nated human beings will find themselves after Ascension.

These entities are the current star seeds, who will be the new sp-ritual leaders of the ascended humanity. The energetic differences in the higher dimensions between individual s-uls are much more pronounced than on earth, where an old, high frequency so-l cannot be easily discerned from a young or baby so-l of low vibration at first glance.

This is the chief reason, why old sou-s find it so difficult to stay on this toxic planet - it defies any spir-tual hierarchy. Quite on the contrary - the less evo-ved the so-l on earth is, the higher its social status and greater its power abuse.
