THE PLEIADIAN LIGHT
LOOKS AT THE CURRENT
WALK-IN SITUATION

Walk-ins, as you call s-irits who take on the body and life of a sp-rit who wishes to leave, are still coming on to the Earth plane in large numbers. Those who are assisting through variations of this exchange process: s-ul braids, stand ins, etc. are also expanding their help to the ascension of your world culture. The chaos of Earth's many elements, both light and dark, at the time of this c-anneling (2011), have reached the level of either combustion or transcendence. We support the transcendence scenario. And each spi-it walk-in to your plane is supporting this transformation of your species.

Many of the walk-in-type arrivals of spir-ts, at this time, are those who have extensive experience with life on Earth. In the earlier decades of this project, many of the -ouls were closely connected to extraterrestrial cultures. This alien energy gave a strong impetus for the world culture to expand its perspectives and move toward a new path. The ET resonance provided a pattern to which you could entrain your own energies and jump-start your ascension. Although there are still incoming ETs, there is a large influx of s-uls who resonate a strong Earth signature. Some of these are even recently departed from your plane. In part, their reason for leaving, in your recent past, was for the purpose of returning as walk-ins, the concept having been presented to them in their recent Earth i-carnation.

The return to Earth, after a very recent life, helps the incoming spi-it in terms of adjusting quickly and moving on to his/her own agenda. Ordinarily, a so-l that crosses over is not inclined to return without first digesting the most recent life and learning and expanding on the spi-it plane. But these are not ordinary times. The drama of Earth's ascension is so variegated, so multidimensional, so tenuous that unusual circumstances must be called into play.

When we speak of ETs or strong Earth spir-ts walking-in, please understand that all spi-its working on this level of assistance have inc-rnated many times, in many different world cultures. The difference in the energy that they resonate is more the choice of the walk-in in order to tap their former Earth lives or to pull in the vibrations of other worlds with which they are familiar. The choice is to clothe themselves in the qualities that would be the most helpful in what they wish to accomplish.

As we have said before, a walk-in does not need to take on the phenomenon as their personal identity. It is simply a means to change. Having an awareness of the spirit exchange on a conscious level is only of value to the walk-in or those close to the walk-in who can better give support with the understanding. This is helpful if there are difficult problems that need to be resolved from the earlier life or conflicts between the walk-in energy and the original soul energy.

There are many soul exchanges in which the walk-in has no consciousness awareness, no knowledge of the phenomenon and no reason to have the awareness or the knowledge. There are many ordinary people who realize there was some change in their lives after which he or she began to move in a new direction. This could be a waitress who charges the food she handles with a nourishing energy beyond its natural characteristics. Or it could be a bus driver who creates a pleasant energy on his bus that gives the passengers a lift. These people are walk-ins who don't do anything special. They came simply to be present and increase the light factor.

The ascension of the Earth species has reached a level of overlapping elements with regard to walk-in problems and ascension symptoms. Everyone will be dealing, to one degree or another, with the symptoms of detoxification from all your bodies of consciousness. As the transformation progresses many will feel an altered sense of identity, which is disorienting. Your species is dealing with changing genetic patterns. It is handling alterations in time. Walk-ins get a double dose of adjustment requirements, but unlike ten or twenty years ago no one is totally unaffected by this world roller coaster ride. This is the destabilized state you are presently experiencing and which will evolve into a stable world culture operating at a whole new vibratory level.

What could possibly be comforting about this information? Well, the more common the discomforts the more empathy/sympathy you can share and the greater the movement toward the integration of the disparate elements of your world. These are the elements that create your endless wars, the destruction of your planet and your inability to sustain happiness. Integrating the opposing elements of your world will bring peace, from which all that is benevolent flows. And we wish you Peace.

OPENING CONTACT WITH PLEIADIAN ANIMAL CONSCIOUSNESS

Through Hannah Beaconsfield

We are the unified animal consciousness of the Pleiadian world. As Pleiadian counterparts of your animal world, we wish to apprise you of changes occurring with your planet's animal/human interspecies communication.

If you watch nature programs on television, you see more and more incidents in which a wildlife biologist or other animal-centered career person describes surprising new behavior in your wild animals or companion animals, as well as the expansion of animal awareness of humans, their emotions, and their intentions.

At this time there is a definite opening in the capacity for interspecies communication. There is a range of levels of interaction from a simple expanded sensitivity by humans with regard to animals, all the way to complex relationships involving high levels of conscious and subconscious exchanges.

The expansion we are addressing is a phenomenon, which is part of the ascension of your world and all elements and species that are part of your world. The integrative elements, which are a part of the ascension process, include the closer interactions with and understandings of your animal species a greater integration of all Earth's animals, including yourselves.

If you are one who can take or leave all the pet stuff (coddling the live stock), then it is time for you to brush up on your animal (animal communication) skills! You will not be able to avoid situations in which you must deal more closely with animals any more than you can avoid interacting with other humans.

Question from the c-annel: Can you give a name to work with in ch-nneled interactions with you?

Certainly. When the Pleiadian thought artist, Spandia, described to you the feline entity with whom she and her partner shared their life (in Riding the Phoenix), she said he was known by a thought tone not a spoken word. She said that if she had to translate the tone into words it would be Quiet Presence.

We will use those words to represent our energy and the individual spi-it of Quiet Presence to act as our front man for channeling our total energy. Quiet Presence's life is in a time line 400 to 500 years in your future and in 4th to 5th density in the Pleiadian history of development. All cha-nels of any kind color the information that flows through them to some degree. It is always good to factor in the source when evaluating channe-ed work.

Ch-nnel: Thank you Quiet Presence. I look forward to hearing more from you.
