This says we are in the age of Kali.

It's all as natural as breathing or walking and yet it's overlook by the masses unless it's been made interesting a heartbreaking way: otherwise it's regarded as some ancient mystical mumbo-jumbo. Much knowledge which is currently available; sadly, has been dressed-up to the point it's inferred today as make-believe. Lobsang strips away the superfluous fancy-frills and tells it as it is, in simple terms that anyone with an ounce of common sense can recognize, understand and study. Everything Dr. Rampa wrote is 100% true - don't just dismiss it because your beliefs differ or because you've never heard about the topics he covers - and we've since had confirmation from the other side that they considered his life a success. We who believe him continue to strive in keeping his works alive as they contain very important messages, and failure to heed can result in consequences greater than you can imagine. The only thing in life to fear is fear itself, which is just something we don't understand yet - as you don't fear that which you fully comprehend; do you?

We are still in the age of Kali - the age of destruction and final quadrant of the cycle, brought on by the First World W-r but it might not be over in our lifetime as the pendulum of life hasn't quite reached its zenith yet. The Earth is still in a negative phase - and like all cycles it must end one day - as soon as mankind changes their ways and then we will venture forward towards a Golden age. Things won't be getting any better unless mankind seriously changes their ways - we have a choice - so choose wisely. Mankind's worse enemy is themselves and no one else. Feel free to browse this site and enjoy it's offerings, because it's been created for those who wish to start opening their minds, know and understand the truth with much valuable. "Direct link to Research material" <http://www.lobsangrampa.org/research.html> Research Material. I may be repeating and expanding on many things which Dr. Rampa has stated in his books, but repetition never hurt anyone as it only helps to drive the point home. One point to keep in mind - after his d-ath, his books were shamelessly plagiarised by countless other authors - if all Dr. Rampa's books were false why plagiarise his material? They plagiarised his material because it IS all true!

The translation on the Tibetan p-ayer wheel shown on the left-hand side below the menu is Om! Mani Padme Hum! that actually means Hail to Man's Overself! - Man as in mankind - the part of you that you should be pr-ying to, via your subconscious. It does NOT mean "Hail the jewel in the lotus" as many think, that was just made up to keep the tourists happy. <http://www.lobsangrampa.org/#top>
