MR. UFO BACK ON COAST TO COAST AM

Yes that's right! Our own Tim Beckley will be dazzling up the airwaves on Thursday Sept 22 at 2 AM EST (technically Friday morning) when he goes one on one with the always gracious Coast host George Noory. Though you never know where the conversation will take them, Beckley will be busy plugging away to get new Conspir-cy Journal subscribers (heck it don't cost anything) as well as discussing this week's book selection ROUND TRIP TO H-LL IN A FLYING SAUCER.

www.CoastToCoast.Am

Beckley recommends listening on affiliate www.wvnc.com which is also home to Joshua P W-rren's Speaking of Strange program every Sat. evening at 9 PM (Eastern).

DOES SATAN DRIVE A FLYING SAUCER?

ARE D-MONS KIDNAPPING HUMANS AND PERFORMING SADISTIC EXPERIMENTS ON THEM ?

IS THERE A RELATIONSHIP BETWEEN B-OD SACRIFICES AND ANIMALS AS WELL AS HUMAN MUTILATIONS ATTRIBUTED TO EXTRATERRESTRIALS?

CAN ALIEN LIFE FORMS SHAPE SHIFT, TURNING INTO HUMANS, GROWING ORBS, FIREBALLS, OR EVEN MANIFEST THEMSELVES AS PHYSICAL 'HARDWARE' TO FOOL US INTO BELIEVING THEY ARE MECHANICAL DEVICES?

It's the dirty little secret of UFOlogy -- something that only a few insiders dare discuss amongst themselves. For example, Lord Hill-No-ton, the late five-star Admiral and the former head of the British M-nistry of Defence, believed strongly in the existence of UFOs. But he did not see them in a positive light, professing instead in his privately printed UFO Concern Report: "UFOs are essentially a r-ligious matter rather than a mi-itary threat and furthermore there is certainly a degree of p-ychic involvement in almost every case. Quite often, however, such experiences are definitely antithetical to orthodox Ch-istian beliefs."

Journalist and author of "The Mothman Prophecies" (made into a film starring Richard G-re) John A. K-el was adamant when he stated: ". . .The UFOs do not seem to exist as tangible manufactured objects. They do not conform to the accepted natural laws of our environment. . .The UFO manifestations seem to be, by and large, merely minor variations of the age-old demo-ological phenomenon."

Other researchers of supern-tural phenomena have noted that... The casting of magi-al spells, the performance of oc-ult rituals and a ceremony to conjure up spiri-s are sometimes attempted by witnesses prior to a UFO appearing in their proximity.

Alien Abductions: Mi-itary Manipulation?
by Nick R-dfern

Pretty much everyone, I'm sure, who is acquainted with conspi-acy theories will also be aware of at least some of the controversies pertaining to accounts of so-called alien abduction. And, for the most part at least, it all began on the night of September 19, 1961. On that night, Betty and Barney Hill, a married couple from New Hampshire, were driving home from Canada when they were subjected to a terrifying experience. Until their arrival home, there was little to indicate that anything untoward had happened during the course of the journey, however.

After some months of unexplained emotional distress, the couple could take no more, and they sought assistance from Benjamin S-mon, a Boston-based psychiatrist and neurologist. Subjected to rigorous time-regression hypnosis, both Betty and Barney recalled what had taken place during that missing two hours. Astonishingly, they provided very close account of encounters with seemingly alien beings who had taken the pair on-board some form of craft, and who had subjected them to a variety of distressing physical examinations.

Since that day, hundreds - perhaps even thousands - of similar accounts have surfaced throughout the world. A turning point came in 1981 with the publication of the late Budd H-pkins' book Missing Time. Detailing a number of such accounts, Ho-kins put forward a theory suggesting that at least one extraterrestrial species was involved in the routine abduction of human beings. Hopki-s' later work revealed a potentially far more sinister link to the abductions: namely, that the aliens were kidnapping people as part of some genetic operation, the goal of which was the production of a half-alien, half-human hybrid r-ce.

There is, however, another aspect to the alien abduction mystery - one that is, in some ways, even more controversial than the extraterrestrial hypothesis. There are those researchers and eye-witnesses (or perhaps "victims" would be a much better term) who believe that alien abductions have nothing to do with the activities of real-life extraterrestrials, but are, in reality, the result of clandestine work undertaken by the U.S. mil-tary.

So the theory goes, the mili-ary uses the alien abduction motif as a carefully-camouflaged cover to allow for the continued testing of new technologies, such as mind-altering and mind-controlling d-ugs, and sophisticated hypnotic techniques on unwitting and innocent citizens.

An example of a case of alleged alien abduction that appears to have been part of a sophisticated mind-control operation is described by A-ison, a now-forty-year-old woman from Arizona, who lives on a ranch not too far from the town of Sedona. From the age of twenty-seven to thirty-one, Alison was subjected to at least five kidnappings that bore all the hallmarks of the classic alien abduction scenario.

On each occasion, she was in her living-room, either reading or watching TV, when her two pet dogs - Lucy and Summer - began to act in a distressed fashion - pacing around the room and whimpering. At that point, things always became a blur, and Alison would later find herself in a different part of the house with several hours of time having passed. She would always awake feeling groggy, and with a pounding headache and dry mouth.

For days after the weird experiences, she would dream of the moment when things would begin to go awry - which always resulted in a complete loss of electricity inside the house, a deep humming noise emanating from outside the large living-room window, and powerful and intensely bright lights enveloping the room.

In her semi-conscious state, Alison would see small shadowy figures scuttling around the room. They would then carry her outside onto a small craft where she was subjected to a gynecological examination and some form of nasal probing. She would then be returned to another part of the house and the aliens would leave. It was only after the aliens had departed that the intense humming noise would cease.

On what Alison believes to have been the fifth abduction, however, the mysterious humming sound abruptly came to a sudden halt, only a few seconds after her cosmic visitors had entered the room. At that point, Alison recalled - significantly, not in a later dream on this occasion but in real time - she began to slowly regain her senses. And, very surprisingly, so did the aliens. In their place was not a group of frail-looking bald-headed, black-eyed "Grays," but a number of large and burly men wearing what looked like suspiciously like black military fatigues.

According to Alison, one of the men screamed into a small microphone something like: "What's happened?" The men then suddenly started to back away slowly. And, as Alison began to regain her senses, one of them held his hand up "as if to say 'stay where you are.'" Alison did as she was told, that is until the man was out of sight and out of the house.

Alison then made her still-slightly-groggy way to the living-room window - just in time to see the group of men jump aboard not a state-of-the-art extra-terrestrial spacecraft, but instead a very terrestrial-looking black helicopter. At a height of several hundred feet, a powerful lamp was suddenly turned on by someone aboard the helicopter that lit up the dark sky around her property.

Today, Alison has cast aside her ufological beliefs, and firmly believes that as a result of a combination of subliminal hypnosis, mind-altering technologies, and perhaps even non-lethal weaponry designed to temporarily disable her nervous system and bodily movement, she was ingeniously made to think she was an alien abductee. But that in reality, she was merely the guinea-pig for the testing of sophisticated weaponry designed to affect and manipulate both mind and body.

There's no doubt that an alien abduction phenomenon exists. But, the big question is: does it originate up there, down here, or - incredibly - is it a combination of both.
