Jennifer's unique life history has been an inspiration to her clients as she has had two near death experiences that occurred during life-changing incidents. As a young child she had a paralyzing illness and was unable to walk for several years.

Then as a young teen she was hit by a car and walked away from the accident.

Jennifer was told that she had a mission here which would be revealed to her at the right time. After graduating from college Jennifer began a career in technology during which, in her words all I wanted to do was be a corporate vice president. But the Universe had other plans and after experiencing six layoffs in less than seven years, Jennifer decided to focus on using her spiritual gifts as she was guided to.

Her writings have been featured in many publications around the world, including many of the Internet's largest spiritual sites. In 2005 her series on the Shift in Consciousness received Planet Lightworker magazine's Series of the Year award. She is a featured writer in some of the Internet's most popular spiritual sites and her writings are translated into dozens of languages. Her popular classes and seminars are widely attended and the list of newsletter readers grows daily.

Her work has helped many people understand their spiritual connection, find peace on their life journey, learn how to use their own spiritual gifts and create powerful transformation in their life. Jennifer has worked with thousands of clients with her intuitive readings and coaching programs and trained people to use their spiritual gifts and abilities in empowering, life changing ways.

Jennifer is available for speaking and teaching engagements, info@enlighteninglife.com her office for details.

Of her commitment to working with Archangel Uriel, Jennifer says "It is with great joy that I bring Archangel Uriel's message to the world. I am honored to be a part of this effort and to be a facilitator for the Shift, a time when all of humanity will have an opportunity to heal karma and to apply the lessons of forgiveness to all aspects of their lives. Through me, Archangel Uriel has announced a number of books and articles and there are more to come. Each month a new message will be posted on this website, along with channeled information about the Shift. Please return to this website often as I will post the information as I receive it. Be sure to <http://www.urielheals.com/default.html> go to the Uriel Heals weekly newsletter, as it will contain many messages and insights from Archangel Uriel. to help everyone, everywhere with the Shift in Consciousness." Uriel's message applies to everyone and you can schedule an individual reading and channeling session clicking http://www.urielheals.com/UrielReadings.html#full\_reading. Many Blessings,

A talented artist whose aura portraits reveal your inner magnificence. This is the portrait she did for me and she is a guest on the Enlightening Life radio show on December 9, 2009. Visit her website <http://www.urielheals.com/images/Img24.png>

Eloryia also includes a detailed description of the elements in the photo, here is what she wrote for me:

Hi Jennifer

Above is your aura portrait displaying your Divine Magnificence radiating through your human form; both are exceptionally beautiful. As you continue to read the information, I will show you the individual parts, a portrait within the portrait and explain what each of them represents.

Starting with the image behind you, This brilliant image of the main colors in your aura cascading and expanding all around you, represent that you are indeed a ma-tered being of light with a very passionate heart desire combined with the highest intention of healing the world. You are continuously inspired to push forward to do all that you can to reach as many as possible, so they can benefit from your example of following the heart to the full manifestation of H-aven on Earth. The gold lining around all the colors shows your mast-ry of wisdom gained through experience, obtained in worlds beyond worlds and universes beyond universes where you were enschooled in the freedom of self-expression through the heart.

The deep reds are not only the passion but the understanding of how to root this mission into the earthly realm.

The deep oranges are the fire within. The lighter oranges and persimmons are the inspiration continually flowing through the crown chakra and expanding all over the earthly realm. The greens overlaying the yellows are the healing energies to overcome the old incorrect beliefs, behaviors and patterns of thinking you are less than your divin-ty. Of course this is also your worldly pattern of healing, to assist many others in the same; to overcome the conditioned teaching and incorrect beliefs about self to get them out of their lower mental bodies into the expansion of the higher mind expressed thru the heart. The pinks and fuscia just around the white star represent the self loving nurturing support of self through the role model, acceptance and acknowledgment of the G-ddess within. The white star radiating out all around, of course, is the love and light of the ONE, supporting you in evry and any express of self you choose to follow, as long as it comes from the heart.

This image to your upper right is the Sp-ritual Intent. In its form it is very well defined and clarified, again it represents "mso-spacerun: yes" the higher intention (circle within the diamond) to "mso-spacerun: yes" bring the expression of self, navigated by self love (pink) through the dimensions to earth to help hea- and raise the vibration. (The half moon lit by the sun, is also a message to pay attention to the dream state), I am sure you are already aware how empowering that realm can be to our clarity here on earth. Besides, Uriel, (whom loves you greatly) Gabriel is also seeking your attention, he is the one speaking to you in dream time in terms of how to expand self even more for the betterment of all.

"mso-spacerun: yes" The Sun and moon also represent the masculine and feminine, Go-/G-ddess within. The sun is supporting the moon as it holds within its womb the child of light to be birthed upon the planet. The child is not necessarily a physical baby, although there is always that chance. The child of light is you and at times you may feel like a child who at times is not completely supported by the father/mother, as this was your experience when you were a physical child. What you are to remember, always beyond a shadow of a doubt is that you are the love child of the light and are meant to realize your full potential, trusting completely that as long as you play in life, Father and Mother -od/G-ddess takes care of all the rest.

The memory of the intentional mission of the higher mind expands throughout the lower mental as it integrates within your cellular memory, reminding you of who you truly are, far more than you ever thought you were.

This image is lit at the center with white light, illuminating all your experiences, those you perceived as positive and those that you perceived as negative. As a light teacher in this world, you know how important it is to be able to see, not just one sighted sight but to see all and bring the lower vibratory experiences into the light of higher understanding. As you can see in the image above at least three quarters of the egg of creativity (your lives) is lit up with light there is a bit more to clarify within you but it is not in the mental body, as you know and understand it is in the emotional body, meaning the release of some past pain. It is not about figuring it out, it is about feeling it out. This healing integrates throughout every cell within you and comes out the other end, earth to light and heal the world at large. Again this image shows the worlds within worlds, with you radiating light with your passionate desire and firm intent to heal all that is.
