It is to be an event of unprecedented significance

WE'RE all of G-d's d-vine creation are almost euphoric as we observe the moment of humanity's awakening approaching rapidly. The we includes you, because deep within you, where you know that you are di-ine beings, you too are well aware of the momentous event that has been meticulously planned and whose time is almost upon you. To understand this with the limited sentience that you have available to you in the illusion is impossible. But your awakened Selves at One with Go- fully understand, and are filled with joyful anticipation as we wait for the div-ne dawn to break and awaken you all.

It is to be an event of unprecedented significance that will amaze and delight you as it unfolds, and you finally awaken from the dream into Reality.

It is a state that is impossible for you to imagine, despite its being your natural state. Nevertheless, when you awaken, you will instantly realize that you are Home, and your joy will be boundless.

You have been traveling for a very long time on your s-iritual journey toward awakening, and much of what you have experienced has been extremely traumatic. Initially it seemed that separation from -od would be fun, interesting, and exciting. The fun did not last long, but the excitement intensified and then changed to fear as your survival became increasingly threatened, and you began to identify yourselves more and more as bodies, instead of as spir-tual beings having an imaginary bodily experience. And with that misidentification of yourselves your fear and confusion grew. You began to imagine strange g-ds whom you could offend, and who, unless expiated, would punish you severely; and any catastrophe, flood, earthquake, volcanic eruption, drought, famine, and even personal tragedies became evidence for you of the go-s anger with you. It is only very recently that beliefs of that nature have been released, allowing you to start making progress on the sp-ritual path that would lead you Home, and your rate of progress has been accelerating wonderfully since then. No longer are you trapped in a seemingly endless loop of punishing disasters and constant acts of expiation.

The realization that -od is all-loving and never punishes was a great sp-ritual step forward for humanity a step into true knowledge. There are still many who are hanging on to the belief in a judging and punishing go-, and many more who are atheist or agnostic. However, all have the div-ne Flame burning within them, and the powerful energy effects that those who p-ay and meditate regularly are creating all across the planet are nudging these lost ones to look within and discover their own divi-e Flame.

Not one person on Earth today remains unaffected by the Love that sweeps constantly across, through, and around the planet, nudging all toward their natural state of wakefulness. Everyone is feeling it, although they may be very confused, initially, by what they are feeling. But that confusion is clearing as people start to experience love, compassion, and acceptance on a scale that has never before been seen on Planet Earth.

The awakening process is accelerating and intensifying. No one is completely unaware of the d-vine energies embracing them. All that is necessary for all to awaken is a desire for peace, love, and abundance for all. And that desire is growing and strengthening in every moment as the dawn approaches. And as it passes, the glorious brilliance of eternal day will envelop you and embrace you forever.

With so very much love, Saul.
