Above Photo - MAX, the original 13th Crystal Skull, projecting a complete human Spinal Column and Cranium. This is truly a remarkable, very real photo, unretouched, of the incredible energy of MAX. Examine it closely. MAX is the most powerful Crystal Skull on the planet, and is the source that feeds energy to all the others. Within MAX are the codes for the heralded Ascension, and he will be at the 11-11-11 to align the Crystal
Vortex for the Crystalline Activation of the new Crystalline Grid and Crysto Sun Disc.

MAX is the 13th Paradigm, the Code Carrier, THE original core data source generator that feeds the energy and information downloads to ALL other Crystal Skulls.

2012 - A Glimpse Into The Magnificent Year Ahead

Greetings M-sters!

We encircle each and every one of you with a nurturing energy and with the field of self empowerment, for each of you are truly Ma-ters on your path of Ascension. It is our purpose to offer you inspiration and clarity, but indeed it is once and always requisite that YOU, as a s-cred and sovereign BEING, practice discernment with this and any such 'channeled' message.

We will begin this assay regarding 2012, a truly auspicious year, by addressing the fears some of you may have. We will first tell you the Ascension is on track, and will in fact occur. You have made it so. In many aspects, the Ascension has already taken place. What remains however, is tantamount to the completion of the Crystalline Grid, and the final activations of the Crystalline Transition.

Now, regarding the fears, we gently ask all of you to look at the world around you for just a moment. What do you see?

Your media outlooks are reporting war, famine, disasters and economic collapse. And what is broadcast is what is seen in 3D. It is oft full of gloom and doom, is it not?

The doomsday prophets are especially in high gear on this topic, are they not? Some of the doom speculators are on particularly fertile ground in this arena, generating fear-followings around collisions of comets, asteroids, cataclysmic polar reversals and economic collapse. Whether these naysayers recognize it or not, they feed on the fear they generate.

Dear Ones, we tell you again the Ascension will occur, and humanity has made it so. It is time to let go of old energy, of F-AR. The doom prophecy, the Global Cataclysmic disasters will NOT take place.

We tell you there is a new sun dawning, and it is indeed the sun of change. It brings the light of the magnificent New Earth. And Dear Ones, we do mean magnificent.

Masters, there have always been the naysayers on the planet, those who predict gloom and doom and warnings of fear. And these serve a purpose in duality, and certainly a quick glance around the globe would seem to justify their stance. But we tell you it is old energy. And it is not the role of Spirit to ever tell you to give up hope, or to let go of your free will. Our message is to tell you of your Divinity, and to tell you as a matter of fact, as a point of truth, that the planet and indeed humanity will Ascend...and are absolutely on track for that to happen. Period. So we speak of 2012!

The Year Ahead

2012 is an incredibly important year. It contains within its sequential linear flow, points of multidimensional intersection and time-gates. It is in fact the enhanced points of manifold time that have allowed the Ascension to occur. These points are the gateways many of you that are envoys from the future, Sirian-Pleiadian Navigators and Code Carriers entered through to be here on the planet for the Ascension.

2012 is a final awakening clarion call for many of the code-carriers. And there is much to do in 2012. In many ways your work truly begins in 2012.

The 2012 Envoys:

Now, many of you involved in the Planetary Ascension have found yourselves in a phase of Earth time that you occasionally cannot fully fathom, cannot totally embrace. It is at times as if you are a visitor here, far from home, and your energies do not exactly fit into the earth of 2011 and beyond. In fact you have at times felt lost over the past decade.

Dear Ones, know that these feelings are valid, and are in a true sense, culture shock, as you awaken into the flowering multidimensionality that is unfolding before you as you enter into 2012. You see, many of you, in your terms, are indeed from the future!

There are a vast number of souls who have chosen to come to the Earth at this time, from dimensions beyond the fifth from both the future of Earth, and from the future of higher dimensional worlds that will become better understood to you in linear time progression especially in 2012.

You are indeed Envoys of Crystalline Light, Ambassadors of Love. You have moved back from the future, in your terms, in linear Earth time, to assist mankind in navigating through the tumultuous times that have unfolded in the last forty years, and the times that will be presented in the next twenty. You see many of you are only awakening to your 'future in to past roles in 2011 and 2012. And that is by design. The time gates of 2012 are trigger points.

You began accumulating in mass in what is termed the 'Baby-Boomer' generation, the post WWII era; and your numbers have steadily increased into what is termed Generation X, Indigo and Crystalline children. You are the Envoys of Crystalline Light, the pioneers of the alternate Earth.... the Ascension. Many of you walked-in to current bodies during your 7th 7-year cycle and 8th 7-year cycle, your years of 49 and 56 in terms of linear age.

You have walked into physical bodies that were, in fact, versions of you, and by what may be termed 2nd Stage walk-Ins. And that is a more highly developed version of your future self, stepping back in time for a specific purpose. This is similar to, but quite different from a So-1 Integration as it is a specific role in which a time gated link from a succinct ev-lved future self is connected to a present sojourn for a specific purpose of assisting the Ascension.

You have had many roles, many assignments, and many duties. You are the Wisdom-Keepers, the Earth-Keepers, the Shamangelics, the Fire Dancers, Dream Walkers, Warriors of Light, Shape-Shifters, Star Beings, Elders, Strength Bearers & H-alers of Time!

You came here to engineer the reconstruction of a different outcome here on the planet of duality, the Earth! You are here to guide mankind through the parallels of probable calamities and potential catastrophes that otherwise could wreak havoc, as has happened so many times before through troubled waters. You are here to make sure history is NOT repeated. And we tell you, you have succeeded.

You see, you are the troubleshooters, the renegades, the paradigm busters! We use the analogy of the sea to clarify this concept of the Envoys of Light. Imagine the ascension as a sea going vessel, the Light Envoys are expert navigators that know exactly where the currents are perilous, where the tides are crashing into rocks...and the Envoys know how to avoid them, where to sail past, how to maintain ballast. They are the teachers, with expertise in many fields, and in your vast gathering you bring a collective wisdom that is unparalleled on the earth at any time in the planets history.

You see, many of you have experienced the Ascension of other planets and other worlds, several times; and you know the perils. You understand the mechanics. And you are now almost done.

There are a few rough patches remaining in 2011 and 2012, and then the game changes, as you will remain over to lead the masses in 2013 from 2012... the true beginning.

Perhaps the most important role for you envoys in 2012 is to assist all by shining your light, and not succumbing to the Fea- and throes of the Old-Energy. Do not be discouraged. For in 2012, the old energy will kick hard to discourage the change. Amplify your energies, and anchor the light. Align the Crystalline.

What Will Occur in 2012

What happens in 2012 is a new beginning. That new beginning is the New Template of the New Earth. The Ascension of the Earth will allow for the dimensional revision and expansion of the planet. The Earth is transferring to a Crystalline Field, expanded from the 4th to the 12th dimensions.

The Crystalline matrix is generated from the below primary events and occurrences:
