Christmas 2011

A Christmas greeting to all.

We come to wish you the joy and love associated with this holiday and also to tell you about the real meaning of Christmas.

Christ, which means Light, is a term for enlightened consciousness and is not the name of one special man. Je--s attained Christ consciousness while on earth, which enabled him to ◆seed◆ the heavy material consciousness of that time, with the light of truth. This allowed those ready and seeking truth, to access that which had not been available to them up to that point.
Christ is one who is illumined and carries the Light of D-vine Consciousness. Christ is the attained consciousness of oneness with Source.

The Christ is born within every man when they realize (not intellectually discuss), their oneness with Source. This is e-olution. This is what the business of third dimensional experience is all about.

The Christmas holiday is commonly thought of as a celebration of the birth of the son of G-d in a manger. The manger symbolizes that Christ consciousness can only be born within a consciousness emptied of material sense◆concepts and beliefs of separation and duality. Mary and Joseph◆s long journey to Bethlehem only to find no place for Mary to give birth represents mans◆ journey through lifetimes of third dimensional experience and lessons which still leave him with no real comfort or sense of completeness.

The manger then is that emptiness of ego necessary in order to recognize and give birth to the Christ consciousness. Into a humble consciousness devoid of ego and self interest, the Christ then can find room to be born. Christ light is always recognized by those also of the light, and thus the kings (illumined beings) brought valuable gifts to honor that which they recognized.

In the third dimensional experience, there will always be those unawakened ones who are threatened by the Christ, and so in ignorance of their own light try to destroy it, believing that it will undermine their material, ego driven agendas. And so, the Christ must often be hidden where only those of it, can recognize it◆ those with ◆eyes to see and ears to hear◆.

The Christ is born in every soul the moment it acknowledges and recognizes its own div=nity. The Christ is not one special ◆son of G-d◆ for all are sons of Go-. There is nothing else but Divi-e Source Consciousness◆ all that is, is in and of the ONE. Anything else is simply the false belief of separation.

The birth of Christ does not take place once a year to only one individual.
Although mankind is often not aware of it, the acts of love prompted during the holiday season represent an unconscious recognition of the Oneness of all life. All living things are connected by virtue of there being only ONE LIFE.

Your personal Christmas can come at any time if you have prepared, for all will have their own Christmas at some point in evolution. The Christ was never born; the Christ will never die. The Christ always has been and always will be.

Merry Christmas dear ones.
