 This says the news media will change.

"Now, expand that concept out to countries and nations. It's not quite as simple as all of the heads of state of government, the top dogs, going and sitting down together at a high-vibrational concert of music, but it would certainly help if individuals would focus on higher dimensionality, would it not? Well, guess what? You can say 'goodbye' to corruption in government and 'hello' to humans who have volunteered to bring that high dimensional vibration into the offices which they are prepared to assume or hold. How about that? The volunteers are already lined up!

"Now, you heard masters Tara and Rama speak about volunteers when they were speaking of the one called Chris, and of course O-ma was a volunteer to be what you might call a double agent. In fact, it was a group of the ones you call the '13 families,' the Illuminities - we call them the 'naughties,' who thought that when Obama got elected their candidate had won. Well, the truth is that they thought they were controlling the elections no matter who won, because they were controlling the candidates. What they didn't know, but they're starting to find out, is that Obama is truly a double agent. And even though it has seemed as though he has been doing what they have wanted him to do, he has also been finding ways for the rest of the world to look upon these actions and these words that these naughty ones have done, and start seeing them in the light of Truth. Now that is quite a feat for somebody whose life is in peril all the time, or at least so the naughties think, because they are continually making threats to him, not only to him, but to his family, any living relatives, close friends and so on and so on. But he is protected!

"We are wanting you to say 'goodbye' to fear. We have already discussed the end of war, the end of the nukes, the end of the fossil fuels which are being replaced by clean, non-toxic energy that you can all have access to for free. That's right, no dollars! We have said you can say 'goodbye' to illness and disease and drugs that only do harm, and yes, you can say 'goodbye' to the illegal drugs too, because what is the point of getting high on drugs? It's to access the higher dimensionalities. Ask Master Ram Dass who tripped out with Dr. Timothy Leary. Boy they had some high times, I'll tell you!

"But when you are high dimensional you don't need the rugs, right? The whole illegal drug business is going to absolutely collapse. Oh, the naughties will take some - those of them who remain will be going to the other Planet Earth and they'll probably figure out a way to open up the drug trade there. But for those of you who are coming and are on the Ascension path you won't need the drugs, legal or illegal. You'll need the attention of healers and people who know how to heal. You, yourselves, each one of you, are healers and you can learn to access your gifts even more! !! Sananda is teaching that now* and there are others who are teaching it, you can go to any number of places. You can go, for instance, to a Reiki class and learn how to do that kind of he-ling. And this is wondrous indeed, because it's high vibrational and high dimensional.

"So, we have discussed some of the things and the institutions that you can say 'goodbye' to. We were discussing g-vernment, and you can say 'goodbye' to the corruption that has lead to such i-sanity. And we want to particularly highlight the U-ites States of America - talk about insane - laws that have been passed - and talk about how in-ane it is not to pass laws that should have been passed, that's something to say 'goodbye' to in 2012. And Ob-ma will stand forth and shine as these ones that he is giving the podium to are removed from the stage.

"You see, what he is doing is, he is bringing these ones out from behind the curtain, so to speak. Giving them jobs, how about that G- guy? Talk about putting the wrong guy in the wrong job, or whatever you want to say. Boy, that is a mismatch. The naughties are jumping up and down and saying, 'Oh, good, you did a great thing there, what a great choice!' And the rest of the world is saying, 'You've got to be kidding!' Just let this one go to work, he's already making headlines. We're talking about the one from -E, and you can look it up and see what he is up to. And you see, this is what people need in their news media.

"By the way, we are going to say 'goodbye' - we're going to make a little prophecy. You can say 'goodbye' to F-xy News as it has been run. If Fo-y News survives it has to pass a test, and the test is real simple - give true results. Are you telling the Truth or are you l-ing and spinning? Now you can just imagine that there might be an individual or two from -oxy News - well, let's just put it this way: they are scheduled for trial, they are scheduled to go before the people of the world so that they can have an opportunity to express, or shall we say, come clean, about the li-s they have been telling. If they don't, the -ies are going to be exposed anyway. So, say 'goodbye' to l-es in the news media. It's gone.
