Ashtar on the Road Teleconference,
December 27, 2011
Telepath, Susan Le-and

Ashtar speaks

"Alrighty, what else are we saying 'goodbye' to? We're saying 'goodbye' to poverty, we are saying 'goodbye' to financial lack, we are saying 'goodbye' to elementary, Divine rights being withheld such as good food, clean water to drink, housing, clothing in whatever quantity a person wishes to wear, communications open and free with nobody spying on you - we're saying 'goodbye' to restrictions that are based on any kind of discrimination. A big one here is we are saying 'goodbye' to the rules and regulations, the da-nations if you will, that the c-urches have made up for their own profit. That's a biggie. Everybody take a breath, and everybody who thinks they were born a s-nner take a few deep breaths and let that one go! Out of here, off the planet for good! Of course none of you in this family still believe those things but you may have been taught those things when you were very young.

"So, if you have any little bits of guilt or fear about those things - no you are not going to be punished, you are being honored even now and that will continue. You are being loved for who you are even now. That will continue. You are being celebrated as D-vine Beings walking Planet Earth in human body, and your human body is being, shall we say, adjusted so as to be in harmony, so as to hold the higher vibrations of the higher dimensionalities for even longer, and then permanently. As you move your consciousness up, you take your human body with you. It transforms, it's a little see-through if you want to put it that way -Light-body, translucent - that means it's letting the Light in.

"We see that now when we look at you, Beloved Ones, and we understand that not all of you see that in each other, but you will. And you'll see beautiful, beautiful fields of energy, beautiful colors, waves and spirals of energy in each other, you'll feel it in yourselves and yes, you can look in your mirror and see it. And this is becoming more and more a matter of you opening one of your gifts that have been with you for all time, it's just that...Do you know what a Jack in the Box is? You play a happy little tune and all of a sudden the Jack in the Box pops up? That's like when you are not in your human body, you are free. But then in order to get into a human body what do you have to do? You have to stuff Jack back down in the box, that part of you that is your Di-ine Sp-rit, your connection to Mother/Father G-d, and to some degree or other you have to stuff that little guy or that little girl back down in the box because you, yourself, find that a human body is a form of a box.

"Alrighty, say goodbye to all of that stuffing!!! Because you are coming in to your own unlimited beingness while you are still walking around on Planet Earth, because Planet Earth is going where you go and you are going where Planet Earth goes. It is a jolly journey, to be sure!

"Alrighty, there are other things. Now, here is something that is an absolutely brilliant idea! We have given you some 'goodbyes.' There are some 'goodbyes' that we haven't mentioned; there are individual and very personal 'goodbyes'. So, we would suggest that you make a Goodbye List. It can be as brief or as long as you want to make it. It could be one big long sentence:

'I hereby say goodbye to all that has ever been any kind of a disharmony or an imbalance or a diseasement for myself and all of planet Earth.'

"But it's really fun to start making a list, because your Goodbye List is just as you make that list of specifics - general for the World, specific for you, maybe a group in between with whom you are a member. You actually lighten up a lot just making that list. We know that because we have observed enough of you around the World making just those kinds of lists.

"Alrighty. Now, there is also another kind of list and we would call this the Hello List. And you can make this list of all that you are welcoming in to your life. Again, it can be Planetary-wide or it can be specific for you. This is much better, by the way, than what you call the New Year's resolutions, because resolutions sometimes resolve themselves by not happening. How many of you have made a resolution that didn't happen? That's okay, everybody has.

"So, we would suggest that you make a Goodbye/Hello List. It's alpha/omega again. And your Goodbye List is everything that you are so happy that you and Planet Earth are saying 'goodbye' to. But now at the bottom, or at the top, put some kind of a sentence that says, 'I hereby release you with Gratitude for all that I have learned, with Forgiveness, with Compassionate Understanding, and of course, with Love!'

Now, we suggest that if you like to do ceremonies, here's a real good one. If you have the ability to light a fire, we're talking about lighting a match or something, a fire, you know, somewhere it is safe to do this. You could, just before midnight or at a time that is appropriate on the last day of 2011 - December 31, you could ceremoniously burn that list saying whatever words are appropriate, whatever words are written on the list. You could read it and burn it, then take your Hello List to 2012 to bed with you and say, 'I thank myself, Mother/Father Go- and the whole entire Universe that I am living my hello list. Welcome 2012, I am in joy!'

"And you could even keep your 2012 list close and handy - under your pillow at night is always delightful, or under your bed, or put it on your wall somewhere. Read it, and you might even make a copy of it and keep it in your car, or if you carry a bag with you regularly, so that if you get someplace - let's say you're in a traffic jam - there are going to still be some traffic jams in 2012, at least at the beginning - so that you can get out your Hello List and get happy and get high. No d-ugs, no d-inkie winkies, just you and your happiness!

"We are talking about Joy here. We're talking about the most joyful of new years - 2012 - ever on Planet Earth. And you, Beloved Ones, not only have front row seats, you are standing up to participate, so give yourselves a big applause and welcome yourselves into this wondrous new world of Joy and Love beyond all expression in words. It goes way beyond words, it's a feeling, a vibration, and you all deserve to live in this vibration, always. That's where you're headed in this Homecoming to Love, and we say, 'Let's start the party now!'

"We have a little help here. You may have caught on to the fact that I am not speaking by myself. We have that fabulous Sekhmet, she's a party girl, she's enthused, she is thrilled that we are finally here at this place in the history/herstory of Planet Earth. Look for the stories behind the scenes if you choose to do that. If you choose to just know that Joy, Joy, Joy is sweeping the Planet, that is entirely appropriate. However you choose to acknowledge it, welcome in the Joy, focus on the Joy, be the Joy, and know that this is what you've been waiting for and that it is happening now and it will not stop!!!

"There is no being, group, or consciousness of any kind of darkness, that any longer prevails with such power as it has had in the past to create such unhappy events. It's over, so build and build and build upon the foundations of Love, Compassion, Forgiveness and Gratitude, and build the Joy in the high vibes, because the time is now. We know that you've already been working in this area - we are only here to make some things crystal clear. This is for all time! This is it!

"We are not turning back and neither is Planet Earth. Never again will Earth and its Kingdoms suffer in the ways that have been the history/herstory of this planet. The timelines are moving ahead toward Ascension - nothing will stop it! Just add your Love to the Light which is prevailing and will continue to do so, and it will only grow in its magnificent radiance, even as you grow, Beloved Ones, even as you evolve and heal yourselves along your own beautiful paths.

"I, Ashtar, and The Mentors, salute you, Beloved Family, for coming to this place of alpha/omega, of end and beginning. We are with you always, hand-in-hand, heart-to-heart. And now comes one who will share with you that Love, that Joy, even as you share from your hearts, and together we co-create even more Love for our Beloved Planet Earth.

And so it is! Salut!"
