

Subject: Bigfoot Part 3.

From: "John Winston" <johnfw@mlode.com>

Date: 12/02/2012, 06:50

Newsgroups: alt.conspiracy.area-51

Subject: Bigfoot 3.
Feb. 11, 2012.

This talks about a Bigfoot who didn't want to let go.

.....
.....

Orleans, California

Mike Burke, Buck Ferguson and Bill Mueller find BF tracks with a 5-foot stride beyond Twin Lakes Turnoff at Camp Creek near Orleans, California.

Benjamin Wilder sees a BF at night east of Orleans, California. March 1960. Ivan Marx finds BF tracks near the lookout on Offield Mountain. 1952. A man sees a Bigfoot on a dirt road north of Orleans that comes out at the mouth of Bear Creek and goes through Bear Valley. After driving on, he later stops and gets out of the car. The BF comes toward him menacingly, then turns and stalks down the road, then suddenly charges back to attack the car as the man drives away. The BF holds onto the car for 200 yards before letting go.

Happy Camp, California 1886. Jack Dover and others see Bigfoot between Happy Camp and the Marble Mountains.

Scott's Valley, California

June 9, 1980. Dave Wilhelm and Ben Larson see a 12 foot Bigfoot in Scott's Valley. The following day they find BF tracks.

Yreka, California

Mid-1960's. Henry Dierkoph and 2 others see several sets of BF tracks near Yreka, California.

Siskiyou County, California

June, 1969. Bob Hardesty and Dick Carroll find BF tracks along the Klamath River in Siskiyou County.

Mt. Shasta, California

1956. Mrs. J. Pomray sees a BF run across Interstate 5 just north of Mt. Shasta.

Summer, 1962 Bonnie Feldman reports watching a female Bigfoot give birth in the heat of the afternoon by pine tree at the base of it's upturned roots. She watched from the porch of her trailer while camping on the Eastern most side of Mt. Shasta.

1963. A man falls off a bluff near Mr. Shasta while deer hunting and is badly hurt.

A 9 foot BF carries him 2 or 3 miles to safety.

July, 1973. A naturalist watches an 8 foot BF for 45 minutes in the Castle Craggie Mountains.

Unknown date at the 8000 ft level of Mt. Shasta two men said they had seen Bigfoot while drinking beer in the Bunny Flats Campground. They said Bigfoot had come out of the forest knocking off a branch at the 19 foot level.

Bigfoot gave them a crystal and went back into the woods. Charlie Tom, a medicine man, said if you were in trouble in the woods to sing the Bigfoot song and BF would help you.

1980 Mt. Shasta

hunters watched through their cross-hairs as a Bigfoot lumbered across an open field and disappeared into the woods. He appeared to be 8 ft tall, weighing nearly 800 lbs.

1970 Bigfoot is sighted by vacationers crossing the road late at night near Mt. Shasta.

1986 Mt. Shasta a team of naturalists report seeing a Bigfoot cut across a field of berries through a thorny thicket at day break.

1987 Obrien Campgrounds near Mt. Shasta Lake Bigfoot wanders through the area oblivious to a raucous volley ball game being played by retired fire fighters.

August 10, 1962.

Joseph Wattenbarger sees a BF in the lava beds 30 miles east of McCloud which is near Mt. Shasta base.

Willow Creek, California

1967. Russell Summerville sees a 9 foot BF walk 50 feet along Highway 299 one half mile west of Willow Creek and then go into the woods.

Mike Fordon, while sleeping in his Dodge van at Gray's Falls Campground wakes up at about midnight because a BF is kicking his tires and rocking his van violently.

Mike sees the BF's hairy chest, chin and hand through the van's windows.

The 8 foot BF continues to harass the van for 2 hours, until Mike Blows the horn.

Dave Zebo follows a set of BF tracks up Weaver Bally Mountain.

1936 Dave Zebo sees BF tracks on Mt. Bally heading over the mountain.

Salyer, California

July 11, 1968. A BF walks past a family camping by the Trinity River near Salyer.

Weaverville, Trinity County, California

1966 Larry Browning sees a BF near his campsite north of Weaverville in the Trinity Alps.

April 6, 1968. After 2 more visits to the same campsite with no luck seeing another BF, Larry Browning sees a BF wading the South Fork of the Salmon River. The next day, a female BF follows him for a half hour on a hike, then charges him.

April 8, 1968 At the same campground, Mike Melton sees a BF leaning over the river to get a drink of water.

April 2, 1966. Nick Campbell sees a Bigfoot searching through the trash cans at a campsite north of Weaverville in the Trinity Alps. The next day, he sees the BF again 3 miles west of camp and spends a half hour playing hide and seek with it. Several other campers see the same Bigfoot. It raids the trash can two more nights and is seen one more time.

July 1969.

Don Ballard and a companion riding horseback see a BF in the Trinity Alps near Trinity Center.

1958. While driving on Highway 299 east of Weaverville, 2 doctors see a Bf cross the highway at night.

Redding, California

October 8, 1972. Randy Norton and Steve Gillespie see a BF cross Clear Creek at the Placer Street Bridge near Redding.

Round Mountain, California (South of Mt. Shasta)

January 6, 1971.

Bigfoot tracks 18 inches long and 7 inches wide are found in the yard of a home on Fenders Ferry Road at Round Mountain.

1947. Mr. and Mrs. Russ Tribble see two Bigfoot south of Fall River Mills and also find their tracks.

Hyampom, California

-----1963. Bob Titmus finds and casts 3 sets of tracks near Hyampom.

May, 1963. Sylvester McCoy finds BF tracks near Hyampom.

April, 1970. Buzz McLaughlin see a 9 foot Bigfoot at Manzanita Ranch School, Hyampom.

Fall, 1963. A man sees Bigfoot tracks heading south of the Hyampom area.

Wildwood, California

July 4, 1969. Eldon Brackett see a 7 foot Bigfoot with 16 inch tracks and a 4 foot stride north of Wildwood.

January 1966. Bob Kelly and Archie Bradshaw see a Bigfoot peering into their cabin window. Bob fires his shotgun at the Bigfoot and thinks he hits it. They find 18 inch tracks in the leading into Hayfork Creek from Wildwood.

June, 1969. Ben Foster and several others see a 6 foot Bigfoot fighting with dogs at the Wildwood Inn.

May 14, 1970. Archie Buckley sees a 7 foot Bigfoot with 15 inch tracks at Stuart Gap, south of Wildwood.

Platina, California

Winter, 1966. After a 2 day absence from their house 2 miles west of Platina, Mr. and Mrs. Hampton find their door broken off at the hinges. They find 18 inch Bigfoot tracks in the snow.

Saddle Camp, California (Yolla Bolla)

August 1964. A man finds 12 inch and 14 inch BF tracks high up the north side of Low Gap in the north Yolla Bolla near Saddle Camp. The tracks are in 3 different places several miles apart.

July 14, 1969. George Haas and John Dana find - mile of Bigfoot tracks on a trail at West Low Gap in the Yolla Bolla Mountains going to the East Fork of the South Fork of the Trinity River. The tracks are 16 inches long and the stride is 3 feet.

Covelo, California 1961. Bob Titmus sees tracks of several different Bigfeet northeast of Covelo.

November, 1962. Bob Titmus sees tracks of several Bigfeet northeast of Covelo again.

Fort Bragg, California

June, 1962. Robert Hatfield gets up to investigate barking dogs at his house in Fort Bragg and sees the head and shoulders of a Bigfoot above a 6 foot fence. He returns to the house to tell Bud Jensen, but when they return, it is gone. Bud goes back for his gun while Robert rounds the corner of the porch and walk right into the Bigfoot. He was knocked to the ground and scrambled to the house on his hands and knees. Bud sees the middle of the Bigfoot go by the window and tries to close the door, but the Bigfoot holds it open! Shotgun in hand, Bus says "let it in and I'll get it, " but the Bigfoot lets go of the door and walks away. A muddy hand print on the door is 11 inches long, although the fingers are quite stubby.

1977 JS reports hearing dogs chasing a bipedal creature through the woods along Little Lake Road and the discovery of other animals found disemboweled.

Oroville, Central California

Summer, 1969. Ken Coon finds and photographs Bigfoot tracks near Oroville.

July, 1969. Homer Stickley see a Bigfoot in his yard in rural Oroville.

July 17, 1969. Charles and Kevin Jackson see an 8 foot female Bigfoot by an outhouse while burning rabbit entrails in their backyard on Cherokee Road a few miles south of Oroville.

February 28, 1963. Lennart Strand and Alden Hoover see a 10-foot Bigfoot from a plane near Sonora, between Confidence and Cherokee Valley Road. They take color photographs, but the pictures turn out blurry.

Summer, 1969. A man sees a Bigfoot run across the Feather River Highway near Oroville.

September 3, 1975. Mark Karr drives his car into a tree to avoid hitting a 7 ft Bigfoot near Oroville.

October 31, 1969. Wes Strang sees a Bigfoot outside his home near Oroville.

April 16, 1970. Homer -tickley finds 11 inch Bigfoot tracks near Oroville.

January, 1970. Ken Coon finds Bigfoot tracks 15 inches long and 9 inches wide near Oroville.

Bigfoot Part 3.

Fall, 1969. Ron Sanders sees 2 Bigfoot turning over rocks in French Creek across the reservoir from Oroville and eating something.

On the Feather River report:
October, 1969. Charles Mauldin sees a Bigfoot running on an abandoned road above the Middle Fork of the Feather River.

Stirling City, California
April 16, 1969. Mr. and Mrs. Robert Behme see a Bigfoot limp across the road between Paradise and Stirling City.

Twain, California
July, 1969. A teenage boy and 2 girls see a Bigfoot crouched in the middle of the road while driving home from a movie in Twain.

July, 1969. Lester Orlinger swerves to miss a Bigfoot in the middle of the road near Twain while coming from Quincy.

Part 3.

John Winston. johnfw@mlode.com