Message from the Galactic Federation
Dec. 30, 2011

Galactic Federation speaks

The universe is full of magic and adventure which, if you have not discovered for yourself already, will be at your fingertips as you ascend into the higher realms of possibility. 3D Earth has also possessed her share of magic and secrets, but these aspects of your experience have been quite limited. Soon to be unlimited are your new powers and your new experiences throughout the vastness of space.

You will explore unknown and uncharted corridors and meet new races and species of beings. You will discover countless new varieties of life; intelligent, animal, aquatic, and you will also find all beings possess greater intelligence than you might have previously imagined. Such are the many varieties of the animal kingdom of your planet Earth.

The reality of the advanced levels of consciousness of some of your species has been purposely kept from you, as well as even the existence of some of your intelligent life on your planet, although many of you have done your own research and have come to the conclusion without the necessity to be told what is and what is not by your so-called leaders, of what is myth and what is based on fact.

You may learn as you advance along your journey that there is very little of your history that is entirely myth, and that there is some truth to be found in many of your legends and folklore. We, the Galactic Federation, have chronicled intricately your history, and all truths will be offered you if you find you wish to possess this knowledge. There will be no more secrets, no more lies and cover-ups. Such will be your new lives, full of wonder, new knowledge and freedom to dwell anywhere you wish and take back home with you the secrets of your quest.

There exists such a rich history of your planet, and to relearn much of what you have been led to believe will take some time, but it will be time very well spent and we are confident many of you will greatly enjoy rediscovering the long-lost secrets of your past. Many of you have a history, even some of you a very long history, beyond the boundaries of planet Earth. The universe is far older than you may have been told, and many of you will undoubtedly be surprised to learn you have a history and even some memories of lives and events from very great distances into the recorded history of this universe.

Today, you stand with just moments left of your third dimensional incarnations into the physical relative to the long journey you have been engaged upon for eons. If the collective of your days from all your physical incarnations could be mounted upon one 24-hour period, your time left before your new journey begins can only be measured in seconds. This is the point you have reached today.

Many of you are beginning to feel the excitement of what this truly means for you and what awaits you now just up ahead on your journey.

If you could have just a brief glimpse from our perspective, you may be a s-ul whose joy and youthful excitement would be quite a chore to contain as you try to carry on with your very last days of duality. Others around you could only wonder what was creating such bliss inside of you. Such is one aspect of the overall plan.

Lead by example. Radiate the joy, happiness and excitement you feel inside knowing that every dream you ever had and any possible wish you could ever make is awaiting your imminent arrival just a few steps further ahead after your very long journey. For this is a powerful way to help spread the word, the vibration of your new and eternally blissful days ahead.

We are your Family of Light from the stars.

Transcript of Monday night's Hour With an A-gel by Steve B-ckow

Transcript of an Hour with an An-el, with Je--s, Jan. 16, 2012

Thanks to Ellen, who worked overnight to see that we received this transcript asap. Thanks also to Linda and Graham.

Jes-- here talks about many of the questions sent in by readers on Montague Ke-n, Sarah, the Course in Miracles, as well as Martin Luther King, the crucifixion, and other matters.

I asked --sus to return next week but we've decided that it may be better to spend an hour with A-changel Michael instead and touch base on current events. I have no doubt that J--us will not mind.

An Hour with an Ang-l, January 16, 2012

Martin Luther King, Jr.: We must come to see that the end we seek is a society at peace with itself, a society that can live with its conscience. And that will be a day not of the w-ite man, not of the b-ack man. That will be the day of man as man.

I know you're asking today, How long will it take? Somebody's asking, How long will prejudice blind the visions of men, darken their understanding, and drive bright-eyed wisdom from her s-cred throne? Somebody's asking, When will wounded justice, lying prostrate on the streets of Selma and Birmingham and communities all over the South, be lifted from this dust of shame to reign supreme among the children of men?

Somebody's asking, When will the radiant star of hope be plunged against the nocturnal bosom of this lonely night, plucked from weary s-uls with chains of fear and the manacles of d-ath? How long will justice be crucified, and truth bear it?

I come to say to you this afternoon, however difficult the moment, however frustrating the hour, it will not be long, because truth crushed to earth will rise again. How long? Not long, (Yes, sir) because no lie can live forever.

How long? Not long. Because you shall reap what you sow. How long? Not long. Truth forever on the scaffold, wrong forever on the throne. Yet that scaffold sways the future, and, behind the dim unknown, standeth G-d within the shadow, keeping watch above his own.

How long? Not long. Because the arc of the moral universe is long, but it bends toward justice. How long? Not long.

Graham D-wyea: Hello, and welcome to An Hour with an Ange- on this day, January 16, 2012, a day in which we celebrate and honor Martin Luther King, Jr., for his important work and service. The speech you just heard is an excerpt from his speech on March 25, 1965 in Montgomery, Alabama, and it's certainly relevant to the work we're doing today. He offers his vision for a society of peace. He talks of hope, justice, and however frustrating or difficult it will be, it will not be long before truth and justice will rise.

Well, tonight, J--us joins us once again, c-anneled by Linda D-llon, the ch-nnel for the Council of Love, and Steve Be-kow, editor of the 2012 Scenario, will be asking him questions again. So with that, I'll pass it on to you, Steve.

Steve Bec-ow: Thank you, Graham. And just before beginning, may I say that Linda has the flu tonight, and that does put certain it makes it somewhat more difficult for someone like Je--s to speak his words through her, and I just would like the audience to know that. But Linda has bravely decided to come on the air, because she knows people are looking forward to tonight. Welcome, Jes--.

--sus: Welcome. And I tell you again, you may call me J--sus, or you may call me Yeshua

SB: Thank you.

J: or you may call me brother or friend. But I welcome all of you tonight. And yes, I welcome the cha-nel as well, and we will work her to make sure that we can go forward together.

SB: All right. I'm have - sorry, L-rd.

J: I thank our host for playing these words and reminding our audience about this wondrous so-l, Martin Luther King, a man who believed in what he was doing and who brought about great change, not only in your North American society, but all over the world. But I also know that he echoes a question that so many of you hold in your heart, and that is, how long? How long until truth and justice will reign?

And so I ask each of you, my beloved friends this night, within your own hearts, how long? Is truth and justice and fairness and love resting there? Because that is the nature of my messages. That is the nature of my being. And it is what I truly come to offer. It is about all I have to offer, for I do not bring riches, I do not bring food this day. I am not in the loaves-and-fishes business right now. But what I bring you is hope, but this hope must be married to what is in your hearts. And if the truth and the hope is not within you, then you do not match it throughout the universe, you do not find it because it is not there with the light within you.

If you ever have any doubt about the truth of your being, about the justice that you deserve, in every moment of every day, in this and every other i-carnation you have ever had or will have, then look to my light and let it give you that hope to continue on. Because what you are seeking is right around the corner. There is far too much discussion these days about ascension, about shift, about movement forward, and about the opening of hearts, about a society that is based on love, on fairness and heart. But it begins with you, dear ones. It does not just begin with me. It is within each of you to effect this change and to build this new world, this Nova Earth, this Nova Gaia.

We are partners in this undertaking, not simply I but the legions that serve and who stand ready to extend their help.

But it is in direct partnership.
You are not in servitude in the way of waiting for us to do for you. That is not the way of this unfoldment. It is you claiming your birthright as creators, acknowledging the d-vinity within you, and from that place, walking in tandem - hand in hand, arm in arm, heart in heart together. So, as many years ago, with your beloved leader, Martin Luther King, I ask you tonight, across these airwaves, to put your hands together and to commit your hearts to this change that we are all seeking.

SB: Thank you, lo-d. Sorry, I - everybody relates to the s-ints and the Ascended Ma-ters in different ways, and I-m finding it very difficult not to use the word Lor-. I will do my best, but that is the way that I relate to the Ascended Mas-ers.

J--us, I feel a little sad this week because I've lost one of my best friends who believes that this is a hoax, that I'm not speaking to Je--s or Arc-angel Michael, and that Linda is hoodwinking our listeners. I don't believe that for a moment. But could you direct your attention to that and tell us whatever you can that would help listeners who are having difficulty with thinking about you speaking right now?

J: I wonder how long it will go on, Steve, that people will think that what I say or what I have to offer - as Yeshua, as Jes--, as Sananda, or as any of the Ascended Ones that speak through this chan-el - how long do people need to think of it as a hoax? What is this issue of doubt? What is this need to not believe? This is not new. This even predates when I have walked the world. And it has predated many galaxies, even universes that have gone astray. Doubt is based in fear, and it is the fear of being led astray, it is the fear of being wrong or being thought of as foolish or thought of as incorrect.

What I say to you is not as important as what I would say to your beloved friend, and that would simply be, what does your heart tell you? What does your heart yearn for? Does it not yearn for friendship and trust? Does it not yearn for fellowship? Put your f-ith in me aside and look to the brother whom you have known for so long, and the times that you have cherished together.

Each of you who are listening this night - you, Steve, Graham, yes, the ch-nnel Linda - have all had times when you have lost those that you thought were very dear to you, who you thought loved you and whom you certainly loved, and who have said, I cannot walk down that road with you, I cannot walk that path with you. And even I, in my lifetime, have certainly experienced that. But I will say to them, and to each of you, what I said then: You do not always have to walk with me. You do not always have to agree with me, for as we have talked about last week, I am one that is interested in lively discussion. But do not give me your doubt. Do not try and place your doubt upon my shoulders or within my heart. But what I would ask of you, do not eradicate the love. Do not eradicate what is so precious and what needs to be, what each yearns to be, unconditional.

What I say to you, Steve, is be courageous as you have been, and accept the support of those who cherish you, myself included. And know [we?] will come when your friend will be back, and while many feel that they are going through separation right now, the time of union and of new community is truly at hand. It is not a bad thing to have doubt, but it is an obstacle when you let it stop you, when you let that fear interfere with what you wish to do with your life. So acknowledge the fear, acknowledge the doubt, embrace it, and then keep going.
