

Subject: Truth Of UFOs.

From: "John Winston" <johnfw@mlode.com>

Date: 26/02/2012, 06:53

Newsgroups: alt.conspiracy.area-51

Subject: Truth About UFOs.
Feb. 25, 2012.

Here are some people who they claim to have told the tuth about underground bases and other things.

.....
.....

Inside the M-litary UFO Underground
(Article by A.J.S. R-yl)

This article was written by A.J.S. Ra-1 and then placed on a newsgroup. It deals with three specific individuals, who have come out into the open and shared what they have known about UFOs including Robert Dean (ex-Nato Officer), Bob Lazar (Scientist who claims he worked at the base in Area 51) and Col. Charles I. H-1t, U.S. retired-officer who was at the Bentwaters U.S. A-rbase in England in the 1980's. We obtained a copy of this through the mailing list organized by Francisco L-pez, who is searching the airwaves for key information about UFOs.

Illinois

<http://www.v-j-enterprises.com/ufoart/trek2.gif>

Date: Thu, 25 Apr 1996

Francisco Lo-ez

<mailto:d005734c@dcfreenet.seflin.lib.fl.us>

Subject: Inside the Mi-tary UFO Underground

From: hugger@gonzo.Colorado.EDU

Newsgroups: alt.alien.visitors

Subject: REPOST: Inside the Mil-ary UFO Underground

Date: 22 Apr 1996

Inside the Mil-tary UFO Underground

By A.J.S. Ray-

In 1969, Project Blue Book--the 16-year U.S. Air Fo-ce investigation of UFOs--came to an end, and so did the g-vernment's interest in extraterrestrial flying discs. Or so the American public has been told. In recent years, numerous individuals and documents from various agencies have emerged from behind the veil of go-ernment s-crecy to tell a different story. Their spin: that while the gov-rnment officially abandoned all interest in UFOs, a se-ret mi-itary underground was hot on the trail of suspicious radar blips, saucers, and even the aliens themselves. What follows are the stories of three individuals--two of whom come with impressive milit-ry credentials; they say they have glimpsed what seems like evidence of a decades-old cover-up cloaked in the guise of national s-curity. The third interviewee, a propulsion-system engineer, claims he was hired by an independent milita-y contractor to study the innards of an extraterrestrial spacecraft being researched and tested on the Nellis A-r Range in central Nevada.

Omni cannot endorse the veracity of the stories told below. In fact, we must emphasize that extraordinary tales like these require extraordinary levels of proof certainly not furnished in our pages, nor, we feel, anywhere else. That said, we'll get to the fun part. In the pages that follow, you'll find strange tales of alien intrigue and UFO woe. Decide for yourself: Are these the ravings of demented hoaxers and madmen or r-relations of truth?

Their stories, delivered in dossier format, have been edited from interviews conducted by author A. J. S. -ayl during the past year.

N-TO Meets E.T.

Name:

Robert O. Dean, retired Army command sergeant major Claim: Back in the Sixties, NA-O issued a classified report stating that UFOs were real, of extraterrestrial origin, and had visited the earth.

This extraordinary report was said to come out of NAT-'s command center, the Supreme Headquarters Allied Powers, Europe (SHAPE), located then just outside of Paris, France.

Background: Dean, a highly decorated veteran, served on the front lines in both Korea and Vietnam. In 1963, while assigned to the Supreme Headquarters Operations Center (SHOC), SHAPE's w-r room, headed up by then-supreme allied commander of Europe, Gen. Lyman L-mnitzer, Dean claims he was able to read the detailed 12-inch-thick NA-O report on UFOs.

The Story: "SHAPE was one of those choice assignments. You had to have a spotless record and pass security background checks. I applied on a whim and got it. I was very proud and pleased. At SHAPE, I was put through more security checks, given a Cosmic Top Secret (yes, this is a real term) clearance, the highest NAT- has, and assigned to the Supreme Headquarters Operations Center, known as SHOC, the NAT- war room. In those days, the activity would run hot and cold and much of it would depend on how the Soviets wanted to play it. The most intriguing thing to me was that we were continually having a problem with large, metallic, circular objects that would appear over central Europe; these were reported as visual phenomena by our pilots and appeared on radar as well. Some flew in formation, and most of the time we spotted them coming out of the Soviet Union, over East Germany, West Germany, France, and then they would often circle somewhere over the English Channel and head north, disappearing from -ATO radar over the Norwegian Sea.

These objects were very large, moving very fast, at very high altitudes--higher than we could reach at the time--and they seemed obviously under intelligent control.

"I was told this had been going on for some time and that in February 1961 there had been quite a scare. Fifty of these objects were spotted on radar and headed in formation from the Soviet Union toward Europe, flying at about 100,000 feet. The Soviets had closed all borders. Everybody went to red alert. All hell broke loose. We really thought 'The Wa-' had started.

We scrambled. We knew the Russians were scrambling. It was the largest number of these objects that had been seen. Fortunately--and only by the grace of -od--we didn't start bombing and neither did the Russians. In nine minutes, they were gone.

"I was told that then-Deputy Supreme Allied Commander of Europe, Sir Thomas P-ke, had been repeatedly requesting information from London and Washington about these objects, but nothing would ever come. We found out later that the Columbine-Topaz s-y ring in Paris was intercepting everything and forwarding it to the KGB, which often got intelligence information even before we did. So Pik- decided, I was told, to develop an in-house study to determine whether these objects were a military threat.

"In the meantime, the UFO matter literally brought about the establishment of direct communication between the East and West in 1962, which I have always found interesting and ironic. We had pretty well determined by that time that these were not Russian craft, and the Russians had determined they were not ours. So, we came to an understanding, and a direct telephone line was opened between SHOC and the Warsaw Pact Headquarters Command. Of course, a setup was always a possibility, so we had backup ways of checking out whether the Russians were being truthful. But since we were both armed to the teeth and World War III was just ticking away, it was a logical step in the right direction. That idea developed into the hotline between the president of the United States and the Soviet premier, following the Cuban Missile Crisis.

"Well, by the time I arrived in 1963, everybody had been talking about the study, and I had heard the rumors, seen the blips on radar, witnessed the commotions, and some of us occasionally even talked about the possibilities.

But nothing really prepared me for what I started to read in the early morning hours one night in January 1964.

"It was about 2:00 a.m. and a relatively quiet night when the SHOC controller on duty went into the vault and came out with this huge document.

'Take a look at this,' he said. The title was simply Assessment: An Evaluation of a Possible Military Threat to Allied Forces in Europe. It was numbered, #3, stamped Cosmic Top Secret, had eight inches worth of appendices, dozens of photographs, and had been signed into the vault by German colonel Heinz Berger, SHOC's head of security. I quickly learned that it was based on two and a half years of research, was funded by NATO money, and that only 15 copies were published--in English, German, and French. Each one was numbered.

All were classified and ordered to be kept under lock and key.

"Every time I got the chance, from then until I left, I would read a section or two in it. It was the most intriguing document I'd ever read. It was put together by military representatives of every NATO nation and also included contributions from some of the greatest scientific minds.

These objects were violating all of our known laws of physics, and the study team had gone to Cambridge, Oxford, the Sorbonne, MIT, and other major universities for input on chemistry, physics, atmospheric physics, biology, history, psychology, and even theology, all of which were separate appendices.

"I read about theories on Einstein's sought-after unified-field theory, the high radiation at various landing sites, and UFO reports that dated back to the Roman era and up to our own F105 pilots' sightings and encounters, and on and on. I had always been a skeptic, but this report, well...it concluded that this stuff was not science fiction.

"I read about contact encounters. One incident that had just happened in 1963 involved a landing on a Danish farm. According to the report, the farmer went aboard with the two little beings and two more human-looking men who spoke to him in Danish. The report included parts of his interrogation by gov-rnment authorities and their conclusions that he was telling the truth. In another incident, according to the reports, a craft landed on an Italian airfield and offered to take an Italian sergeant for a ride. He wet his pants--that's what it said--and was so scared, he didn't go.

Part 1.

John Winston. johnfw@mlode.com