Subject: The Forces Of Light Are Helping Us. Part 2 of 2. Feb. 7, 2012.

These space people suggest that we pay attention to our dreams because they will try to give us information in the manner.

You must know there must be a powerful guiding force behind all that is transpiring in and around your world, and we say to you to think big, outside of the normal realms of thought that you may have grown accustomed to here throughout your 3rd dimensional incarnations. There is so much to this vast universe and so many different levels of conscious awareness, and we would just like you at this time to begin to ponder these immense possibilities in order to prepare yourselves for what you are s-on to experience. What is in store for you is immense and what could be rather shaking for some of you. To transform from a limited 3rd dimensional being, isolated for so long from the rest of your universe, to then suddenly behold such vastness, such wonder, such beauty, excitement and surprise, will surely come as quite a shock to some of you and this is where we are concerned, as shocking your systems is not what we intend for you and is not good for you in any way on any level. What we wish for you is a slow and careful process, where increasing levels of knowledge are carefully administered, allowing you the time to process this new information well enough to then permit you to safely learn more of what exists outside of the world you have come to know as your only home.

You are all much more than you can possibly understand at this time, and you all have vast experiences beyond your current lifetimes. We wish for you to remember once again all of what you are and all your experiences as we are sure you do as well. We must tread so very carefully however, through these stages of remembrance as your safety and welfare is our greatest concern and it is we of the higher realms who have been entrusted with your care. We will make every attempt to see to it that you are well cared for and that you are all carefully and safely returned to your natural states of full consciousness and we ask for your patience at this time and allow us to proceed as safely and cautiously as is necessary.

We too wish for you to return to full consciousness so that you will remember us, your Star Families, and our reunion can be as intimate as is possible and we do see this day on the horizon. Please continue to pay close attention to your dreams, as many of your Star Families will be sending you gentle reminders of yourselves and clues to your past. You all have many members of your Star Families looking out for you and assisting you at this time, and they would be heart warmed to know you are consciously looking out for their signs that they love you. We see so many of you searching diligently for these signs, and we say to you that if you search for these answers to your questions you will find them, for they are there waiting for you, sometimes in the most mysterious of places. Continue on in your quest, for you shall not be disappointed, and tomorrow you shall discover a treasure so great that today hides just beyond your reach.

We are the Galactic Federation of Light.
