Welcome to the r-volution. Your re-olution. It is finally arrived at your doorsteps.

As we had anticipated for quite some time, the purging of darkness, deceit and corruption from planet Earth has begun in earnest in 2012 and we have barely advanced through first two months of this year.

Every single day of 2012 thus far, has seen life altering events unfolding in all corners of the globe. These events are profoundly historic in nature yet still go mostly unrecognized by the average Joe Public and the blabbering talking heads on cable TV. However, it is likely that many of you reading this report can feel in your hearts and s-uls the massive changes that are occurring on the planet at this time.

The signs of staggering transformations are everywhere. What is happening behind the scenes, but bubbling up the surface from time to time, is the complete dismantling of a deeply intricate, d-monic and corrupt global financial system that has enslaved the world for thousands of years.

Every fraudulent financial institution that has operated over the last one hundred-fifty years (or more) is undergoing, or will undergo, unforetold pressure to either transform or be completely dismantled. It is becoming very clear now that the global financial system is the fuel that powers every other dra-onian control mechanism put in place in our world such as g-vernments, m-litaries, corporations, b-nks, media conglomerates and r-ligious organizations

all of which are undergoing an equally profound metamorphosis.
The privately-owned F-deral Reserve, the very heart of the economic s-ave machine, is on the verge of totally collapsing. Its 100-year charter from its origination in the year 1913 is set to expire in 2013. Much of the world is now united in marginalizing the Fed and the ba-king families who own it know they are rapidly running out of time.

A LITANY OF EXPOSED CRIMES AND SIGNPOSTS ALONG THE WAY

In turn, massive arrests are taking place all over the planet and those who are wise enough to see the handwriting on the wall, are resigning in droves from their lofty positions of privilege. The ones who stubbornly refuse to change from darkness to light will simply be taken out by force, if necessary.

In the country of Romania, the Prime Minister and the entire cabinet
resigned en mass. Former Italian Prime Minister Silvio B-rlusconi is facing up to five years in prison for his role in a bribery operation. In Germany, President Christian W-lff has been forced to resign.

While in this country, Treasury S-cretary Timothy G-ithner has been subpoenaed for his role in the Lehman Brothers scandal and reportedly was recently detained by p-lice officers in New York City for questioning.

Geithner Is A Criminal! So How Is It He COULD Face Criminal Charges?

CEO's of powerful financial institutions such as Lloyd Blankfein of Goldman Sachs are resigning or being pressured to do so. In point of fact, a mass exodus is underway at Goldman Sachs. Numerous lists of banking Presidents and CEO's who are resigning or being indicted are being tallied on various tracking websites. It is rumored that as many as 1,500 to 2,000 arrests of international bankers has already been executed with many more to follow! Even major players in the media are starting to jump ship as was seen by the resignation of James Murdoch from News International Corp., the son of News Corp. and Fox News chief Rupert Murdoch. Another Murdoch newspaper tabloid, News of the World, became embroiled in a phone hacking scandal during James Murdoch's watch and was forced to shut down in July 2011. While still another, The Sun, is mired in a similar phone and email impropriety that has resulted in the arrest of many members of the paper's editorial staff in January 2012.

Rupert Murdoch's deeply corrupt media empire is in a total free fall and will likely implode before the eyes of the world rather soon. If so, then good riddance. Similarly, many other leaders of deceitful multi-national corporations on the planet will find themselves swept up in this prodigious global reform that will grow stronger and stronger by the month. Microsoft Corp. and other financial corporate empires seem to be high on the list for reform. Even the Vatican, the richest and most powerful institution the world has ever seen, is now feeling the heat bearing down upon it as the indictments and arrests begin to pile up. Soon, the heat will be turned up so hot and so high, that we may well see a total meltdown of the Vatican as it exists today! It is vitally important to remember that as the truth comes pouring out all roads lead to Rome.

What is becoming apparent is that the protection and firewalls afforded the corrupt conspirators is crumbling around them as the criminals turn on one another in a vain attempt to save their own skin. They simply can no longer afford to pay for the protection services of judges, police, district attorneys, etc. that shielded them from prosecution in the past. Other signs of dramatic world economic turnabouts include the withering Baltic Dry Index which tracks the flow of shipping goods around the world from its lofty position in the City of London. It has dropped by a staggering 65%, indicating that most other countries are no longer accepting goods from controlled G8 countries such as the US, UK, France, Germany, etc. In addition, the clearing house for inter-bank payments, the institution in charge of shuffling trillions upon trillions of dollars between the major banks, has been virtually shut down. Two significant arrests have been made regarding the theft of trillion dollar bonds more than $2 trillion in Manila, the Philippines and the other valued at $6 trillion in Italy and Switzerland. For a much more detailed explanation of these events and the history of world economic slavery, see David Wallace's "Financial Tyranny- Defeating the Greatest Cover-up of All Time" and "FINANCIAL TYRANNY: The Final Sections". WIKILEAKS, ANONYMOUS AND OCCUPY WALL STREET FORM ALLIANCE

On Monday, February 27, 2012, WikiLeaks held a press conference in London to announce their release of 5,000 emails that were gathered from a shadow CIA corporation known as Stratfor, based in Austin, Texas. After mining through the 5.5 million company emails they now have in their possession, the WikiLeaks team determined that Stratfor was not only illegally collecting intelligence information from informants around the world, but it also had conspired to arrange insider trading deals, had spied on activist groups such as the Yes Men, PETA and most significantly, WikiLeaks leader, Julian Assange himself. WikiLeaks obtained the email files through the hacker activist group known as Anonymous, who is increasingly proving itself to be a major force to be reckoned with on the world stage. WikiLeaks also partnered with over 25 other media outlets including Rolling Stone Magazine, The Sydney Morning Herald, the McClatchy Group and many more from the world journalistic pool. Meanwhile, Anonymous also announced it had broken into the websites of Interpol (in retaliation for the arrests of 25 members of its group) the CIA, Department of Homeland Security, a Florida-based PR management company, the NASDAQ- stock exchange and various US Government agencies, all within the last few weeks.

Anonym-us also successfully hacked into the Greek government websites as a retaliation for saddling the people of Greece with fraudulent debt disguised as austerity packages. Anonym-us is basically telling the Greek political leadership, the IMF and the international bankers that enough is enough!

These attacks occurred the month after Anonym-us had already successfully taken down the websites of the FBI and many entertainment companies (RIAA, the Motion Picture Association, Universal Music Group), who were pressuring Congress to enact the SOPA and PIPA legislations.

Not only has Anonym-us teamed up with WikiLeaks, but they have now forged an alliance with the Occupy Wall Street movement, as well. This triangulated coalition between these three organizations will be truly formidable for the powers that be to contend with in upcoming months ahead. The Occupy Wall Street movement has had an enormous impact in only a few short months of its existence. Somehow, as if by a miracle, it has blasted in record speed all over the planet as people a half a world away got wind of it and occupied their city, state or region. Did you notice how so many in other foreign countries picked up the mantle and ran with it?
