Excellent message from Montague K-en

Ja-is

We are progressing, my dear, though the news of this is being kept from you. This is why more controls are being placed on your television coverage. It will be much more powerful than the TV you now have. The only way to deal with this outrage is to only watch what you know to be trustworthy. Tell your mind that you will not accept subliminal messages. Once you see them and are aware of them, they no longer work. Television acts as your prison warden, right there in pride of place in your home. It is always there in the background, keeping you asleep and under control at all times. The surveillance goes much further than you could possibly imagine. All it would take for people to become fully aware of what is being done, is for you to refuse to comply with it. It is time to take back your power. Refuse to be s-aves one moment longer.

The great awakening is happening all over your world. The sense of excitement is spreading. Even countries that were totally controlled from cradle to grave - such as Ireland - are waking up. The C-bal knows that it has reached the end of the road. They cannot survive beyond 2012. They have tried everything that their scientists and supporters from other planets have come up with, but to no avail. They are blocked. Their time is up. Your planet will be restored. All that is dark and destructive will be removed forever.

The banking scam that has brought fear and hardship to so many, will be exposed as the scam that it is. The world's gold will be returned to the people; it will no longer be important in the great scheme of things. Mankind allowed itself to be led away from all that was good. You were taught to strive only for material things. This has kept you busy and your mind off the reason you were on the Earth plane in the first place.

I ask that you all read David I-ke's new book, "Remember Who You Are". This book is truly inspired, its timing is perfect. We had a hand in this. Last year, we told you that this book had to be written. There is no one better to tell it, as it is, than David Ic-e. His devotion to truth is unsurpassed. His life has been lived to assist mankind to awaken and embrace the light. The truth will set you free.

The complete take-over of your world will not happen. The C-bal is outnumbered: 99% to its 1%. Many of them will have to be deactivated so that they can never again return. They used money and b-mbs to get where they are today. They left no stone unturned in their drive to take over your planet. What they overlooked was Man's capacity to love and to connect with S-irit. They do not understand this; it is alien to them. They have put so much effort into your destruction, and now, at the twenty third hour, they are defeated.

Please do try to see things as they are, rather than what you are told they are. Talk with each other. Be honest and open. Help each other to go forward into the light. Do not allow yourselves to be distracted from your path, no matter what is used to entice you away from it. It is time to be strong, to refuse to take part in the destruction of your world. It is only then that the k-lling will stop and peace will be restored. It is only when you research ancient times you will fully understand the extent of what that 1% has done to your world.

I know that you were shocked, my dear, to learn the truth; and just think - you have only just scratched the surface of the dastardly deeds that were done. To learn the truth of the Irish Holocaust shocked many of you, and to think that this was passed off in your history as a "Potato Famine", is just one example of how you have been l-ed to. The good people of Ireland were not beaten. They picked themselves up, and just when they were enjoying good times, the "B-nksters" returned to try to destroy the country once more. But try as they may, they will never succeed in destroying the Irish Sp-rit.

I used to call myself an "Honorary Irishman". My spi-itual link to that country was great. The spir-t of the people inspired me. I had spent most of my life surrounded by empty vessels, all clambering to be heard. Each one wanting to have everything bigger and better and to have more than others; concentrating only on material things, nothing spi-itual.

The greatest gift you can give your children is your love and your time. Not material things. Respect is sadly lacking in the young. It can only be restored by example. When you have come through this Transition, it will all have been worthwhile. The time is flying so fast, you will not have long to wait. The Ca-al is stalling for time. We are moving things through as fast as we can. We are at your side through this. You are not alone. It is a joint effort. We share your excitement.

Never get complacent, we need each other as never before. Let your mantra be "All you need is Love". Then peace and harmony will be enjoyed by all.

We will talk soon. My love is yours forever.

Your adoring,
Monty.
