Subject: Report On Long Island Medium.
Mar. 26, 2012.

The TV show Long Island Medium did appear of the TLC network on channel 55, as suggested. I watched in for three hours covering the episodes starting at 6:00 P. M., 8:00 P. M. and 9:00 on Mar. 25, 2012. It was a show about a Long Island housewife who could talk to dead people. I got some good reports from people who saw it and I enjoyed very much and highly recommend it. It will be on again next Sunday evening.
