Hi Fellow Dowsers

A reminder that next Saturday, April 7th, is the talk about labyrinths by Ophelia, starting at 10:00 am. Bring a brown bagger to enjoy during the noonish lunch break. The last part of her presentation will be held outside, using her portable labyrinth. I have dowsed that the weather will be good, much better than this last Saturday, in which it rained and snowed. I live at 11545 Yankee Hill Rd, Columbia, CA, within Marble Quarry RV Park (above the pool) - stop at the park's office for parking directions. RSVP if you can be here!
