

Subject: Words From A Draco.

From: "John Winston" <johnfw@mlode.com>

Date: 13/04/2012, 17:14

Newsgroups: alt.conspiracy.area-51

Subject: Words From A Draco.
April 13, 2012.

Here are some words from a type of space person who used to be our enemy and is now our friend and working on our side.

.....
.....

The Dracos Come Winged, April 12, 2012

I am the crystalline Draco named AK Thay Lah, and it is not in our requirement for pleasantries, though it is pleasant, for us to speak to you in this manner. Forgive our directness, but it is not the draco way to speak with tones of flowery words, we get directly to the point.

The point is this: The world has changed, you have changed, and we have changed with it. The energy of the planet is growing at a mass rate, that is moving faster now, and we the Winged Dragon's of the Crystalline Energy grid, made to come forth when the energy was at it's height, come winged to you now.

We are the Dragon's, yet we are also the Celestial Crystalline Draco r-ce, that long ago birthed forth the Draconian/Reptillian empire, and for some, what would later become the Grey's, and other colorful species, that came ushering forth from Orion.

Let it be known: Those of the house of Draco has purged, our Karmic cycle, now, and we come forth, to express to you, that this cleansing is complete.

Let this air of sincerity, echo through your bones, as the DNA strands, hear the power of our Celestial breath, thundering through your minds like an echo.

We are members of the Galactic fleet, as many other members have been known, and so it is up to you, to give up those beliefs, surrounding the support you shall receive, in these coming times.

We the Dracos are as much part of the Galactic fleet, having many members present, and are a foundation of the Galctic Federations of Light, as you are part of us.

We sit throned.
Know dear Human beings, that if there shall be a w-r in h-aven, it is us the Dracos, that are called, yet let the w-rring among your kind be no more. And so let the water rise.
There are starseed's present, who hold our energy, come ye forth now, and speak for what you are, without shame. Let tides of your turning, be ever present, in your Truth. For you are ancient, and are wise, having lived this experience through many ages, let the people stand ready to receive you.

The ones who write this are not of us, but yet, they have granted us audience, to allow, through unconditional love and compassion, the audience of the Dracos of Old, let them be known, in the records.

Hear the word's of AK Thay Lah, the Guardian of the Draco World, that in the Age of the One, let none be separate from the Love of Truth, and in the Sword's of Truth, let the book's of old be open in accord.

Hear me oh brother's and sister's, who ignite the fires of the Draco Heart, let the growl of your teeth be like lightning striking upon the stones, and let the thunder from the steel, be the word on the blade, for you know what we speak, when we say these things. In remembrance of the One, we come. And so in these coming day's, judge not, by whom you seek company, for in the company, we are aligned, and through the hall's of wisdom circle, shall we strike remembrance, here we shall stand.

Let respect, through honestly, truth and forthrightness, drive our brother's and sister's to speak. Let the Dracos come forth.

I am AK Thay Lah, Hear my word's.
The Dracos Unite.

Ansaluia, Hera.

John Winston. johnfw@mlode.com