

Subject: From Where Did Some Of The American Indians Come? Part 2.

From: "John Winston" <johnfw@mlode.com>

Date: 16/04/2012, 22:37

Newsgroups: alt.conspiracy.area-51

Subject: From Where Did Some Of The American Indians Come? Part 2.
April 16, 2012.

This shows how to deal with problems.

.....
.....

These time lines ask you to let go of the f-r of d-ath, of life, of love or of succeeding. You have come to Earth voluntarily and i-carnated into the physical house of flesh. Many of you are angry at your humanness. You want to be light and not deal with the flesh but in truth you can be nothing else but light, no matter what form you take in any in-arnation. Like a liquid that enters many different containers, you hold the same Light throughout all existences. Remember when you were pure Light, in the very beginning.

Remember the duality that once lived within the G-dhead. Remember the promises broken and kept, that you made to yourself and the Light? Let go of what you promised and embrace the fullness of time. Renew the promises and the vows of light that you have forgotten. Renew your joy for a life that seems so thick with mistrust, illusions and falsehoods.

You hold the geometries of what is s-cred

You hold the promises that you made before you inc-rnated. The solar initiations that come are just not of the sun but of the s-ul and that which comes to dine at the table of light you have set. Imagine the last supper, at the table sits twelve plus one (13 is a portal). It is important to hold tightly to the Go- code that lives within you. Know without a doubt that no matter what, the truth will be seen and the darkness will enfold back upon its self. The darkness does not have a need to be liked and when you interfere in its particular e-olutionary pattern, whether it is in person, p-litics, or objects/etc then it will show aggression toward your energy field. Holding the light in all scenarios in all existences is not for one weak of mind or purpose.

There are minute floating b-ack holes that surround your planet at this time. It is not your job to clean up the planetary bl-ck holes, mother nature herself abhors a vacuum (like most g-ddesses) and will enter deep into the sky bla-k caves, via the natural cycles. Mother Nature herself can never have a bl-ck heart; she has no wish to harm her children. These storms/and earth movements that come unexpectedly, like a babies heartbeat, represent the tsunami of emotional turmoil and lack of self-love on the planet.

In the year 2012 there will be a separation of light and dark and all in-between.

Picking sides demands your full attention, there are no default players, all of Earth will participate.

Time will change in unique ways for it is shifting every single day with every single thought. You will come to a point of ascension in physical form without trying to take the rest of the planet with you. You are 100% responsible for your life and the lives of your children until they are grown and then it is time to let it be. You must hold who you are through these shifts and not lose yourself to the mayhem that appears to be happening.

Resetting the KARMIC CLOCK is needed as you enter the times of Wesak. Many have cleaned their karma on a multitude of levels but forgotten to RESET THEIR KARMIC CLOCK. Do you want to Spring Forward or Fall back into the Old Ways? Do not become a victim of karma but a student of that which demands your pre-attention. Whatever screams at you in life is there to show you all about yourself. Every fracture has a reflection.

You are a living vortex, you are a living light and you are an emissary of the H-avens.

When you see an injustice and you cannot do anything about it you feel helpless asking the universe for divine intervention, but the Calvary does not seem to arrive. People of Earth need to see a light at the end of the tunnel, a single morsel of Hope. When people do not see Hope, when they do not see their prayers being answered, they begin to give up and slide hopelessly down the spiral of life. Hope is what keeps angels wings afloat. When people are without hope, their immune systems drop, disease increases and the will to live is lost in the shuffle. Many begin to wane in the darkness and their days shorten just because Hope has not perched in their hearts.

Each time you think that you have a grip on your life, something immediately changes. Each time you think you have tamed the wild beast in your family, in your boss, in your congress; it raises its ugly medusa filled head all over again. Know without a shadow of doubt that when there is upheaval around you that truly means the light is shining bright within you. When everything is turned upside down it represents that your life is a light that shines grand enough even for the darkness, to notice you.

You are a top of the page creation. You are on Google's proprietary list. You are listed first on the label of this particular creation. However, if those like you stop believing there will be no hope for the planet. No matter what the proof is, you have to believe in the highest aspect of love, the highest light, the highest good outcome, no matter how it appears until the very end.

You are becoming a singularity, from now until the end of the year you will find yourself in an accelerated visionary capacity open eye visions, will speed up as the Pineal gland awakens and takes a good look around. This ocular frequency, is opening up visionary portals within the actual eye structure. Your eyes are becoming like a honeybees, there are hexagons within them. These portals of seeing come as a gift for you. Many have lost their sphere of visibility. This time period allows you to see and then hold on to that information as a truth.

As you have the eyes to See, a great responsibility comes forth.

As Seers, what you see does not always have curb appeal. See with the eyes of the universal soul. Allow these truths to escort you into higher octaves of your own DNA patterning. You have played every role thru time and you hold that information within you. We try hard to prepare you with as many vibrational tools as possible. Helping you to move effortlessly in a fluid manner through these shifts. You are the one that holds the light and anchors it. We are the Pleiadian Counsel of One and we are part of your light as you are part of ours. We leave.

YOU ARE A RECORD KEEPER

As received by Gillian MacBeth-Lou-han

You each hold and house records of what has come, records of what will come, and records that exist dimensionally through space and time. You hold within you ancient truths that did not work, and ancient truths that succeeded. Every essence that is alive issues to you a declaration. Use these escaped truths as a platform, a base, and a microphone. Voice, and decree what it is that you seek, what it is that you desire, and what it is that you place your thoughts upon in order to bypass the chaos of manifestation.

The sacredness that you are, the sacredness that you seek, the sacredness that you yearn for, comes forth to you in the upcoming time as you breathe in the possibilities of your evolution, your expansion, of your promised tomorrows.

The world is not haphazardly created by outside energies or beings, for all is contained innately upon the surface of humanness and the surface of earth. Each one of your prayers does not leave the auric energetic field of Terra Gaia your Mother Earth, but ricochets off of her external body and lands upon a place that then creates a wish fulfilled, a dream imagined, a problem solved, a success assured. Your prayers do not leave the surface/environment of the earth. They are not sent via cosmic mail delivery to a god that checks his prayer-mail. Earth herself has the quantified ability to manifest for and with humanity all desires and wanting no matter how casually they were created. These thoughts that run in your minds, in your hearts, and in your everyday existences are asking for solutions, not from a gov-rnment, not from a board or a committee, not from a book or a dialog with a wise one, but from you. You house and host the truths, the wisdom's, and the solutions to all thoughts and problems within your sphere of existence. Everything that is issued to you in thought, in action, or in decree can be solved by you in thought, in action, in decree!

When you ponder injustices, you awaken a cellular vibration and knowledge of every time throughout existence that injustices occurred. At that point of awakening you can strengthen or dilute the injustices by your thoughts. Your woes, your wants, and your non-solutions can command the elements into disaster. Or you can embrace your inherent power by using your breath, your intent, and your manifestation ability to assist in the solution of the problem.

You inherently hold all questions, all answers simultaneously. In this upcoming experience of humanness, when you have a thought that involves or revolves around a person's decisions, a place, or di-ease, or injustice your biological essence is asking you to add your thoughts of completion to it. It is crucial to add your thoughts in a positive element to the outcome, not to hold on to the negativity and the injustices or ask why on any level (body, mind, and spirit) that the problem is not solved.

Your destiny is to be part of the liquid solution of all things that you seek. Everything that is addressed by you is because you are part of the destiny of the solution. It does not matter if it is personal, planetary, or private. When it comes to you, it is asking for your help. You have the deciding energetic vote. You have the deciding X-factor. You have the deciding quantum/quark that will shift the situation from problem to solution.

Part 2.

John Winston. johnfw@mlode.com