Subject: From Where Did Some American Indians Come? Part 3. April 16, 2012.

This talks about two new pyramids that have been recently found. They are made of crystal.

Do you see how much power is involved in this knowledge? Do you understand that with each thought throughout your day, you are influencing the outcome of humanity, of earth, of this solar system that you exist in, and this universe that you play in? You think that you do not make a difference but you do. Every thought you have is a deciding vote. Every desire you have to make right, to do good, is a deciding vote in favor of illumination, ascension, and e-olution. Look at your day. Look at your thoughts. Look at your actions and then in a subconscious vision, see how many matchsticks pile up as problems and how many matchsticks pile up as solutions. Everyday work on that until that problem pile no longer exists and there is nothing but a grand mountain of solutions that is in your energy field.

This power seems minuscule to you, but you all sit on a jury of life and death in a multitude of expressions. Will your dreams live or will they die? You decide. Will the earth live or shall she pass into the dust. You decide.

Will disease be conquered, will there be a cure? You decide. Do not leave this up to what appears to be geniuses for they may use the frontal lobe of their brain, but they do not use the fullness of their hearts.

Make a difference from heart. Decree from heart. Hold the focus on what you want to see. You are the deciding celestial vote in everything that you wonder about. We are the Sananda Council. You are God's in swaddling clothes on a cold winter's night in a starry sky. Open your eyes to your gifts. We leave you in love and in knowledge.

You cannot worry and believe..In the same breathe in the same Heartbeat

As received by Gillian MacBeth-Lout-an

It's time to put on the ruby slippers of belief. Click them all through time and allow them to escort you into doorways of beliefs that are far greater than any you have entertained in the past. You cannot worry and believe in the same breathe in the same Heartbeat - they cannot hold the same space, the same time, the same frequency. The energy of flying through the air with the greatest of ease represents what we are being asked to do. We are asked to LET GO of what we have been holding onto so tightly and allow ourselves to freefall from one bar of light to another. The belief factor has to be 100%. Nothing less is acceptable.

When you do not see a solution to what befalls your heart, let the Universe intervene. Do what you can and trust Go-, and the Universe to do what you cannot. You are asked to hold your peace in the mist of the battle, to anchor with the divine certainty that you will arise unscathed. Believing so deeply and so strongly is not for the weak of heart, weak of light, or weak of purpose. Stand strong in what lives in your heart. In the mist of all Hell breaking loose become a living blessing. Use your light and your heart to bless another. Bless all that cross your path, become healing and holy, in your life, in your appearance and in your intention.

Look for ways to be a blessing. You can never out give God. Whatever you give, in blessing, in belief, in peace to yourself or another will be given back to you in denominations of completion that outweigh any expectations you have or have not had. Let the desire of your heart lead you into a place that will help you bypass all that comes to circumvent and circumcise your so-l.

TIME TEMPLES

THE LOST PYRAMIDS

NEWS APRIL 1, 2012

Pyramids of Glass Found In Bermuda Triangle: Two pyramids of glass have been found submerged in the Bermuda Triangle. They were identified with sonar and found at a depth of 2 thousand meters. It has been determined that both of the pyramids are LARGER than the great pyramid. These pyramids are Atlantean of nature with stellar technology. They have been programmed by the Ancients to pulse out a love frequency aiding the Human Heart into the next step of Ascension.

These peach hued pyramids are filled with a great power that is asking to be used for the highest good. They are hand carved peach selenite from Morocco. I have had them ready to go for some time now but could never get a go-ahead from the universe. They started releasing their truths the day the lost underwater pyramids were found.

These gorgeous pyramidal stones are sacred places that only time remembers.

They ask you to enter the Lost Pyramid not as yourself but as the Light that you are. As your mind and energy look deep into the pyramid structure, see your self entering a great pyramidal portal of light, a place beyond recorded time that holds within it mysteries that are part of your di-ine and stellar nature. This pyramidal power is powerful and exact.

When you get your TIME TEMPLE Stone you will feel a sense of remembering and a peace that you have not had in a very long time. Like an old friend that has shown up on your doorstep unannounced, a peace of home will enter your heart. A great hea-ing will begin to occur as you and your crystalline friend will have many a conversations and dream sessions. You will find that your clouded ps-chic abilities begin to clear and you are more tuned in than you have been in a long time.

WE WALK YOU THROUGH THE UNDOING OF TIME AS YOU KNOW IT

The smoothness of our surface is there to remind you of the smoothness of life's possibilities, if one learns to flow instead of follow. We have been polished several layers deep releasing an actual energy field that forms a shield of protection, a solidified light to be embraced by those that await our presence. Time-lines past and future are held within us. We are a directional of that which seeks to be seen above the tide lines of time.

We ask you to be brave enough to look at the future you are creating via your thoughts. We escort you thru time to your future potential that is being crafted from your present point of view. We are teachers of the time-lines and all that entails. Use us as the powerful tools of light that we are without pause or hesitation placing your self into a deep place of knowing.

You are part of a div-ne instruction that is larger than life and the price of living. Events come to lessen your value keeping you distracted and your life force lowered. You are vast beings that have waited your entire existence for this time. There is no lack in the universe it is overflowing with all possibilities. The universe does not know how to spell limitation.

Why do you listen to those that wish to extinguish your life force and passion? You are destined for Great things. Just by holding the vision of a great future for earth and her inhabitants you do a job that many walk away from. Remember when you worked in the Atlantean temples Working with the dolphins and the large crystals loving every minute of your day. Going to sleep so excited to wake up and continue the joy the next day. When was the last time you went to bed and you were excited about the next day like a child waiting for their birthday. We as a people have lost that excitement for life and this too is what the awakening of Atlantis brings to us. Let your Time Temple stone escort you home to a place of peace and strength and a deep courage of conviction as you hold the vision for the future of mankind.

Pink Selenite is a pink/ peach hued gorgeous he-ling stone that has the basic properties of selenite but takes it to a higher level into the heart light. This is a beautiful stone soothing to the touch and to the eye, with wonderful soft calming energies; I am really impressed with the energy of the stone, It is all about heart and healing softly.

Selenite is an ancient stone, a calm stone that instills deep peace. It has an ethereal quality and is said to inhabit the place between light and matter. Selenite can detach entities from the aura and prevent anything external from influencing the mind. They can be used to see the future or to view what has happened in the past. Selenite shields a person or space from outside influences. Selenite can evoke protection from the astral realm and also dispels negative energy. Selenite clears confusion and is a powerful disperser and stabilizer for erratic emotions.
