The Hall of Records

Elestial Crystals

The Hall of Records is a dimensional portal passage, and storage area that connects to the higher-dimensional morphogenetic fields of Earth where the complete planetary memory banks are stored in the form of crystalline energy substances. These crystalline morphogenetic imprints contain the entire living memory of the Universe. The Hall of Records represents a conduit through which data from the Akashic Records and Ancient Stellar Texts, can be downloaded through the Earth's primary vortices and morphogenetic field. The data is transferred automatically through the Hall of Records, into Earth's core, then into Earth's crystal grid. The history of the universe then becomes available to anyone on Earth that seeks these truths.

Within the structure of the Sphinx there are several dormant portal passages that lead from the Sphinx, to the Great Pyramid then into the gateway passages of Earth's inner being. These portals are energetically accessible to individuals who carry precise frequency codes within their bio-energetic fields. In order for the Hall of Records to release its data through the portals a series of instructional symbols and codes, which are multidimensional in nature, are pulled and absorbed into the body serving as an biological release for the Hall of Records.

ABOUT ELESTIAL CRYSTALS The translation for Elestial is "Crystal of the Angels" which explains the strong link with the Archangelic realm. Elestials are strong light generators. The bigger the crystal the stronger it is. Very big ones can move you literally. The belief is that the Elestials are the Kings and Queens of the mineral Kingdom it represents supreme knowledge. Elestials are master healers and work on many levels. These crystals work on the release of all physical and psychical blockages which are in the way of your evolution. Elestial quartz have a strong balancing effect on both sides of the brain. Both hemispheres are synchronized and exhausted brain are as revitalized. The Elestial concentrates its energy in the pineal gland in the brain where thoughts and feelings are brought into sharp focus. They stimulate the crown chakra and pineal to rise above situations and emotions.

These crystals have very intense complex etchings that are packed with incredible information. An individual may retrieve information stored in Elestials by running their hands over the etchings of the crystal. This is similar to the way the blind use Braille. . It is believed this crystal can repair damaged cells in the brain and rewire the damaged areas to bring back new life.
