This talks about when the stock market will crash.

Overall, things are looking very good. However, unless we see these senior c-balists on world TV confessing to their crimes, we must not be complacent. Until this financial w-r is over, keep your powder dry and stay alert.

I'll be very glad to see all this happen, as I know many of you will too. I've had enough of these g-ngsters and would love to live in a world free of w-rs, where peace reigns in every country. Drake speaks of them airing the entire history of these I-luminati ga-gsters on a dedicated television c-annel after all these arrests happen and the new g-vernment is in place. I look forward to learning about all their hidden se-rets and hope that the rest of the sheep in Am-rica wake up and watch this ch-nnel instead of mindless trash that's on TV right now.

While I don't let what other people think of me bother me, I will get some satisfaction when those non-believers see it all on Main Stream News and I can smile and say I told you so. LOL! Yes, there are aliens yes, there are people called the Il-uminati and yes, you really are being p-isoned by them with chemtrails, fluoride, processed foods, prescription d-ugs, electromagnetic low frequencies (ELFs), and yeah there really is a secr-t space program based in Area 51 where we have over a 100 spaceships and go to Mars and the Moon all the time.

Anyway, as for the stock market (to watch on youtube:
<http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=3DxVVzHuRD0yo>

I'm not expecting much to happen until the head gan-sters get arrested and press the sell button before the sheriff breaks down their front door. They are still in control of the stock market as far as I can tell and are keeping it up until the last minute but when is the question here? I just don't know that answer? There is also the likelihood that the good guys will step in at some point and stop the crash from continuing to 1929 levels.

I'm just keeping my eyes out for the Euro to crash and then get prepared to short the US Dollar when it peaks out on the spike up rally it will get from the Euro tanking. Again, this should have about a 2 week window before it hits America (according to Lindsey Wi-liams and now Drake). If you ever wanted to bet all your chips at the Vegas gambling casino, this will be your best chance win in my opinion.

The bad guys want to crash the market to bring on the New Wo-ld Order to enslave us all even more, forcing us to accept their new currency, steal up all the assets for pennies on the dollar, and put chips in all of us to keep control of their slaves. They have planned this great stock market crash for decades I'd say. Drake mentioned that Trillions of Dollars were leaving the country in only a few minutes during the 2008 crash and that the good guys seen what was happening and closed down the electronic access to stop it from crashing even further (this is about at 1 hour and 47 minutes into the video).

Now, I don't know how much of that is accurate as I find it too obvious that the 666 spx low on March 6th, 2009 was done on purpose by the Illu-inati because it's a ritual number to them which means that the good guys didn't stop this mass exit of money from the market to foreign bank accounts owned by the gang-ters, but instead they stopped it. The good guys wouldn't have any reason to stop the market at such a ritual number, but yet it stopped there? I think it stopped there because the bad guys planned it that way.

Looking back at that day I see that the high was 699.09 (or 666 upside down), and the low was 666.79 come on, it's that obvious of who controlled that days trading? Of course the gangsters did! The ritual is very in your face here, as the multiple Nines indicates Completion of the move, and it's other meaning of the mark of the beast too.

So, maybe the good guys seen what was happening and did do something to assist in stopping them from crashing the market further I don't know? But regardless of that, it's the past now and the current period we are living in clearly shows that the good guys are making huge progress toward defeating these gangs-ers.

It takes a long time to bring down any organization that has been in control for hundreds (if not thousands) of years, so I'm just happy to see the current steps made by them and support them all the way. I want peace, not wa-! I enjoy life and don't like to live in f-ar therefore I don't. I know that I'm an immortal s-irit and can't die, so the gang-ers don't scare me with their fe-r mongering movies showing the world ending in some Armageddon scenario.

After this is all over with, we traders will be much more successful trading a new stock market that isn't a 100% controlled by ga-gsters. While I'm sure there will still be some manipulation in it, I think it will be minimum and the charts will become much more accurate and easier to read, predict and make some profit from. I'll be happy to become a bull then, as we should see an explosion in certain new technologies that have been suppressed for decades now.

For now though, I'm just waiting patiently for right signal to short this fat pig right before it's slaughter. I'm not sure when this will happen, but the May/June time period is still my expected date for the final high in the market. This lines up with what Lindsey Wil-iams said too, from his el-te source that said the market won't collapse in March, April, May, or June which leave July through the rest of the year for it to crash.

I would love to tell you that the market is going down this week, but I just don't have a clue? It's very, very controlled right now and there is no signs yet of any big sell off starting. It's just a bunch of choppy action every day with a very narrow trading range. How do you trade that? I just don't, as it's not worth my time or risk. I'd rather wait until the proper time to attack. I've been burnt too many times over the last 3 years shorting this pig while the gan-sters turn the market up against gravity and make my winning position turn into a losing one.

Ending this post on a good note, I'm happy to see all these positive things happening right now. This is going to be a very interesting year indeed!

Best of luck to all us sheep.
