

Subject: Why MacArthur Was Removed. Part 3.

From: "John Winston" <johnfw@mlode.com>

Date: 24/04/2012, 05:58

Newsgroups: alt.conspiracy.area-51

Subject: Why MacArthur Was Removed. Part 3.

April 23, 2012.

This shows how arsenic was spread around.

Tomorrow on tuesday April 24, 2012, there will be a TV show dealing with UFOs on the TV show called "Anderson" on channel 3 at 3:00 PM.

.....
.....

It basically states that the Jesuit is through all means moral or immoral -- the immoral acts can supposedly be 'forgiven' if they are done in the name of the Roman 'c-urch' -- to devote their life to bringing about the destruction of the P-otestant movement, and to bringing all nations under the control of ROME for the glory of the 'Queen of H-aven', no doubt the same p-gan g-ddess w-rshipped by the ancient Babylonians -- none other than the ancient Queen Semaramis to whom we can credit the post-deluvian resurgence of w-tchcraft. There is much evidence that pa-an Rome wo-shipped of the 'Queen of He-ven' previous to the rise of Ch-istianity, and eventually gave her the name 'M-ry' to win favor with the Chri-tians. Ma-y was a virgin when she gave birth to Je--s, but scripture confirms that she gave birth naturally to other children following this. Jes-- was born through the womb of Mar-(The SON OF MAN) but was conceived by the Infinite S-irit of G-d (The SON OF GO-). Therefore -ary should not be mistaken as the "Mother of G-d" any more than Joseph should be accepted as the "Father of Go-", nor his parents as the "Grandmother" or "Grandfather" of G-d, etc.

Many allege that the Roman 'chu-ch' is nothing more than the continuation of the ancient Roman Empire which sought to dominate the world, and that they merely donned relig-ous garb when they discovered that religi-us feeling was an ENORMOUSLY effective way to control the masses. The fact that Constantine was the last official Roman EMPEROR and the first official Roman P-PE is cause for great suspicion. M-Carty continues:

"Allow me to quote for you from U.S. Senator B-nton's 'THIRTY YEARS VIEW,' Volume II, page 21, regarding the d-ath of Pr-sident Harrison: 'There was no failure of health or strength to indicate such an event or excite apprehension, that he would not go through his term with the same vigor with which he commenced it. His attack was sudden and evidently fatal from he beginning.'

"And at the close of the chapter in Senator Be-ton's book, we read this significant bit of information which should be well pondered concerning Harrison's family: 'That the deceased Presi-ent had been closely preceded and was rapidly followed by the deat-s of almost ALL OF HIS numerous family, sons and daughters...'

"That is 'extirpation' with a vengeance, is it not? (Note: The Jesuit oath calls for members of the order to 'extirpate' the enemies of Rome - Branton)
(2) Presid-nt Zachary Taylor

In his first message to Cong-ess, he said: 'But attachment to the UNION of states should be fostered in every American heart. For more than half a century... this Union has remained unshaken...'
"The arch-plotters, fearing that suspicion might be aroused by the de-th of the Pres-dent early in his administration, as in the case of President Harrison, permitted him to serve one year and four months, when on the Fourth of July, 1850, arsenic was administered to him during a celebration in Washington at which he was invited to deliver the address. He went in perfect health in the morning and was taken ill in the afternoon about five o'clock and d-ed on the Monday following, having been sick the same number of days and with precisely the same symptoms as was his predecessor, Pre-ident Harrison.

93) Attempt on Pr-sident James Buchanan
He was invited to deliver an address on Washington's Birthday, and made reservation at the National Hotel (which by the way was the headquarters of the Jesuit trai-ors), for himself and his friends.

"The gentleman had had his ear to the ground evidently and heard the rumble of the Abolitionists, and when the committee asked for a conference, he coolly informed them that he was PRE-IDENT OF THE NORTH, AS WELL AS THE SOUTH.

"The following quotations from the NEW YORK HERALD and THE POST at the time chronicled what followed:

"'The appointments favoring the North by the Jeff Davis faction will doubtless be accepted, and treated as a declaration of w-r, and a wa- of extermination on one side or the other.' (Feb. 25, 1857)

"On Washington's Birthday, Buchanan's stand became known and the next day he was poi-soned. The plot was deep and planned with skill. Mr. Buchanan, as was customary with men in his station, had a table and chairs reserved for himself and friends in the dining room at the National Hotel. The Pre-ident was known to be an inveterate tea drinker; in fact Northern people rarely drink (i.e. drank) anything else in the evening. Southern men preferred coffee. Thus, to make sure of Buchanan and his Northern friends, arsenic was sprinkled in the bowls containing the tea and lump sugar and set on the table where he was to sit. The pulverized sugar in the bowls used for coffee on the other tables was kept free from poison. Not a single Southern man was affected or harmed. Fifty or sixty persons dined at the table that evening, and as best can be learned, ABOUT THIRTY-EIGHT DIED FROM THE EFFECTS OF THE POI-ON.

"Preside-t Buchanan was poi-oned, and with great difficulty his life was saved. His physicians treated him understandingly from instructions given by himself as to the cause of his illness, for he understood what was the matter."

Researcher Dennis P-ssero also quoted the above in his 'CON-PIRACY TRACKER' newsletter (no longer being published). Being the avowed Ca-holic that he is, we cannot say that Pa-sero had any particular bias against the Cat-olic chu-ch in his exposition of the Jesuits, but that he saw the corruption in the Roman Institution and exposed it. Pas-ero has made some interesting comments in relation to Jesuit-Ma-onry and the ass-ssination of one of the most popular Pre-idents in American history:

"...Pr-sident Abraham Lincoln. The subject of Lincoln's m-rder is too vast to be covered here. McCa-ty believes that the Jesuits and their tools, the KNIGHTS OF THE GO-DEN CIRCLE were behind the crime. What is interesting is that Pr-sident Harrison, Taylor, Buchanan, and of course Lincoln, were all strongly dedicated to the preservation of the Union -- and all had made speeches indicating their stand. If the Jesuits wanted the Union split, they were not alone. In 1876, Otto Von B-smarck had this to say: 'The division of the Un-ted States into two federations of equal force was decided long before the Civil w-r by the High Fi-ancial Power of Europe. These ban-ers were afraid that the Un-ted States, if they remained in one block and as one nation, would attain economical and finan-ial independence, which would upset their fina-cial domination over the world. The voice of the Roth-childs predominated. They foresaw the tremendous booty if they could substitute two feeble democracies, indebted to the (European) fina-ciers, to the vigorous Republic, confident and self-providing. Therefore, they started their emissaries in order to exploit the question of sl-very and thus dig an abyss between the two parts of the Republic.'

"While McCar-y links the Gold-n Circle with the Jesuits, Dr. Stuart C-ane says that the Gol-en Circle was financed by the Roth-childs. (Note: Dr. John Co-eman had stated in essence that the old-line 'Blue Bl-od' or BL-CK NOBILITY families of Europe who claim DESCENDENCE from the ancient Roman Emperors make up the link between the Ro-hschilds, who control M-sonry; and the Jesuits, who control much of the Ca-holic world behind the scenes - Branton)

"In order to create a rift using the slavery problem Go-den Circle agents became known as Abolitionists in the North, and as Secessionists in the South. Even the fiery John Br-wn, who led the raid on Harper's Ferry, was financed by the International Ba-kers. Every member of the Southern cabinet belonged to the Gol-en Circle -- as did every member of the Northern cabinet with the exception of Lincoln and Secretary S-ward.

"When things began getting rough for the Confederacy, the Rothsc-ilds even planned an inva-ion of the U.S. by British troops swooping down from Canada, and by French forces established in Mexico under the Emperor Maximilian, but this did not come off because the Russian Czar (who's go-ernment was later to be overthrown by the Bolshevik Rev-lution - Branton) said he would intervene on the side of the North if the European forces attacked. According to Mag-Gen. Count Cherep-S-iridovich, the Rot-schilds had one of their agents in the Vatican, a J-wish- Jesuit named Father F-sher, convince the Po-e that the Vat-can should finance Maximillian who would in return re-establish Catholi-ism in Mexico, which had conveniently been abolished by Benito J-arez, a Fr-emason. Later, when the Civil W-r was over, the guerrilla army branch of the Knights of the Go-den Circle, headed for Mexico to aid Maximillian who was running into trouble with the Ju-rez forces.

Part 3.

John Wnston. johnfw@mlode.com