This tells what their houses look

I was also asked how to obtain a 5th dimension green thumb. Here is my opinion of how it is done. The human body is made up of several bodies, the physical, astral and celestial. The physical in the third dimension, the astral is in the fourth and the celestial is in the Fifth dimension. Use your celestial mind to project an invisible ray of energy that will come out your finger tips. Put your hand toward the plant and say, "I bless you. Grow and make a wonderful plant". If you don't believe me, then try putting a curse on another plant beside the first one. The first will grow very well, the second wither and probably die.

What we do as a collective, when you sleep at night, is send huge beams of a specific green light frequency in the atmosphere of the surface, purifying the air and replenishing and repairing the Earth's atmosphere. Without this, the death toll on this planet would rise over 1000 times more globally each day. There are also many teams of beings from other cities of Light doing a similar but slightly different work as we. A great many of us contribute to your well-being by assisting the smooth functioning of the Earth and keeping humanity alive until the day of the "great cleansing," which is soon approaching. Expect it to start manifesting now until the end of this decade, and some more beyond that.

Aurelia - Do you have tunnels?

Cusco - Indeed, we have tunnels going in all directions, all over South America and beyond. We also have tunnels going directly to Telos. Actually, beings like Adama can travel between Telos and Machu Picchu in less than a couple minutes of your time. In fact, there is a whole network of underground tunnels going all over Terra. We also have a very close connection from the inner city of Quetzalcoatl at the Equator. This is a city inhabited by those of the ancient Inca and Aztec cultures. They live pretty much the way we do and we have very heartwarming exchanges with them. Basically, we are of the same origins and culture, and in the past we have assisted each other greatly. There is a direct tunnel between the two cities.

Aurelia - Do you have a leader?

Cusco - We have leadership, yes, but not a real leader, as you understand it. We have learned to govern ourselves. We attained that level of spiritual maturity a long time ago. Of course, we have a high council like all cities do, and that is the governing board of our city. When people have reached a high enough level of evolution, the great governor of your soul and life is your Divine Presence.

Aurelia - What are your homes like?

Cusco - Most of us live in pyramidal-shaped homes made of crystal materials created with our minds. Many of our public buildings and teaching places are circular in shape and also made of crystal of various textures and colors. Our creativity is rather expanded and our city very beautiful. In Telos, it is rather the opposite. They live in circular homes and most of their public buildings and gathering places are pyramidal, and always conceived from elegant imagining.

Thank you, Aurelia, for giving us the opportunity to express ourselves again to the many seekers of truth through your published books. We bless you with our flame of love, gratitude and harmony.

Aurelia - You are welcome. I did also have some forgiving to do regarding Atlantis, and bringing these messages from your realm is my way of showing that I have fully forgiven.
