Subject: Drake.

May 18, 2012.

The last time I checked I found that Drake is the male gender of a duck. This information is from a whistleblower that they call Drake which is not his real name.

In the past I have mentioned that a couple of birds called Scrub Jays were building a nest in the outside, front lighting fixture of my home. They hatched out the eggs in about 26 days, which is the prescribed days to hatch Scrub Jays eggs according to Google.com. All is going well with them and they are just bundles of fluff, according to nuber one son, who used a special, offset remote mirror to look at them.

Now onward and upward to discussion at hand.

Hello All:

If we all help pass the information on. We will be helping the ones doing the legal part to rid us of those that would control us. The arrest should start in the next few days.

G-d Bless

Love to all SmileRed roseRed heart

It has come to my attention that a lot of people want to know who I am. I will offer a part of the base of what I know without endangering myself or others. The basis of the knowledge I hold is extraordinary in its scope (content and reach) and those whom I am in contact with.

Not being willing to take anyone's word for it, I went behind the scenes and found who 'they' were talking to. This involves most of the 'news' web sites many are familiar with, credible or not.

My m-litary service includes n-clear w-apons, very high s-curity clearances, and Vietnam. Most of the "incidents" from this time forward, I was involved in at some level, major, minor, and local. I started in the field of information in the late nineties and progressed from that time forward. I use a portion of the old cold w-r spy network, people in several sensitive positions, and those who agree to pass along info no one else gets. There are several contact avenues that also offer info, military, political and citizen eyes. In all, an extreme information highway.

The validity of what I've sent out has been the best at the time, almost all of which was verifiable. And yes, I was called on to prove a lot of it at first. This was not an easy task and caused me to be able to protect and out the info at the same time, I learned how.

Forces in the main stream media took most of what I offered and called it everything but true, and I was a nightmare head case trying to cause problems through the use of my imagination, and the internet...

Those who own the media control its content, most of which is questionable at best...I know, because I was directly involved in a few of those 'international and local incidents' that were reported as something else altogether...So I have first hand knowledge of this.

I have been a patriot since taking my oath of service in the 60's. I had always been raised to be a patriot, but that oath haunted me all the time... until I decided I would start taking action.

The present information I have shared comes from a plan I was privileged to read some years ago. To date it has been in the works well over twenty (20) years. Many old fashioned old timers knew better than the direction our country was headed, even way back then, so they started writing the plan. It deals with offering the basic freedoms our country was founded on, and how to return to that freedom.

My research extends into a lot of law, application, and the origin of law itself. The offerings used in the manner in which I stated them to be used, when used correctly, I never lost. This includes local, state, federal, and international applications.

A group of individual people in individual states, has completed the paperwork that sets our nation free.

It is my hope that we all can keep our freedom this time...that is up to We The People.

The extent of the information offered on the recording is, at this time, the limit I use to protect the many who are involved in our efforts. If anyone who reads this believes that freedom can still be available, then I urge all those to play the recording to others of a like mind.

A qualified person does not have to be a rocket scientist. Try finding someone who is so honest it hurts to be around them. A person who knows the meaning of right and wrong according to their conscience... and who listens to it. In order to start to turn things around, it will take as many people as possible to stand up in any way they can. Put together groups all over our country at the local level. Get everyone to know each other and look into using your group to put the right kind of people in office.

Who am I to speak and by what authority do I do so?

It is each persons constitutional 'duty' to remove a repressive g-vernment ...the present one qualifies.

I feel a moral obligation to stop the theft so hungry children in our own country of plenty, can eat.

It ain't doing this for me.

It is for my children and grandchildren, because their future hangs in the balance...I feel it is the least I can do for them. As one voice in the wilderness...I CRY FREEDOM...!
