

Subject: Is This World In Need Of Repair?

From: "John Winston" <johnfw@mlode.com>

Date: 19/05/2012, 15:42

Newsgroups: alt.conspiracy.area-51

Subject: Is This World In Need Of Repair?
May 19, 2012.

Here are some space people who think this World of ours is need of repair.

.....
.....

Ja-is

Some of this universe is in a state of disrepair and collapse and will not withstand even another traverse around the cosmos. This is where we come in, the A-htar Command. We identify these problems and weak links in the chain that is this ever connected and grand universe, and we utilize our gifts to assist these worlds rebuild themselves and repair the damage that has been done to them. Your planet is one of these planets that is in a state of great disrepair, and this state must be rectified if your people wish to call her home for another lap around this universe.

Each people of this universe are given a planet in which they can call their home. It is up to each people to care for and to nurture their home, to keep it clean, to keep it safe, to keep it operating and functioning the way it was designed and the way it was created to take care of and nurture its people. This is a very delicate give and take, where one cannot take too much from the other if a harmonious balance is to be maintained. Here in your world at this period in your history one is taking too much from the other, and if this imbalance is not corrected your planet will no longer be able to maintain her orbit around her galaxy. This is the way this universe has been designed, and it was designed in such a way as to teach the inhabitants of a planet how to safely and properly preserve their mother planet, as well as the consequences when they choose to allow her to fall into decay from neglect and abuse.

Here in your world today you have a serious problem. There are those of your people who are currently in power, and have been for quite some time, who care not for one moment about your mother planet or about you. They care only for themselves and their greedy desires for more fabulous wealth and their agenda for absolute power. These individuals must be removed from their seats of power and administration to allow to take their place those who do have the best interest of your mother planet in mind and will do all that they can to see her thrive and see her repaired to a state of ecological balance.

We are here to assist those of your world who are qualified and who have earned the right to take the reins of leadership here in your world. We are here in offers of our assistance to remove the soon-to-be former powerbrokers of your world, and we do this by decree of the glorious power that created you and created us as well. We are not here by our own decree and on our own accord, but are here in service to our Creator and in service to you, our brothers and sisters of the human family and to your planet, a living, breathing, conscious being who we call Gaia.

Whether you agree or not collectively to accept our assistance and right your ship that is listing badly and taking on great amounts of water is a matter for you to decide for yourselves as we cannot push you to accept our help. The consequences of your choice not to accept our assistance would see to the deterioration of your magnetic and tectonic structures around and within your earth. We have the knowledge, the experience and the tools to get the job done to reinstate your planet to her original pristine condition. We have the ability to remove those of your d-rk c-bal who are until this very day set on the destruction of your world and the e-slavement of your entire human r-ce.

If more of you, our brothers and sisters, could see this and understand this, many obstacles would be removed from our path to assist you in so many vital ways. This is where you come in. You may refer to yourself as a Lightworker or you may not, as this is not important, but what is important is that you recognize and understand how you can assist your planet and your people in this, their time of need. It is upon you to do whatever it is you have to do and that you can do to share the knowledge that you have been enriched with about the ca-al, what they are doing to your planet and what they plan to do with you. The more of your people who understand this, then the more we can openly assist you and the sooner we can, together with you, begin to tackle these mounting problems one by one, day by day.

This is the point that we stand before today. We stand at the ready, prepared to begin working with you on the many projects that are vital to the healthy survival of your world and your planet. Each and every day we do see gains in the amount of individuals who begin to learn of the existence and the detrimental impact of your ruling class we refer to as the cab-l and of our presence here in your world and why we are here. We wish more of you can learn of these facts on a daily basis, and we look to increase this productivity. The tools necessary to complete this job satisfactorily have been furnished to you. One of your greatest tools sits before you at this very moment, as it was designed and seeded into your world to allow great numbers to connect and almost instantly share information.

We say to you to utilize this gift for you to its greatest potential, as it is perhaps your greatest ally at this time where allies are what you need more than anything else. We are your allies, and we can be utilized to your greatest potential as well, and we again advise you to utilize the tools that sit before you at this very moment to help open the door for the gifts that we bring you to help bring down this criminal caba- and their dastardly agenda and help you help yourselves restore your mother planet to her beautiful and undamaged state, which will once again allow her and your people to prosper and to thrive and to continue together your journey around your galaxy and your universe.

Laying the groundwork for such an historical meeting between beings from different worlds is a great task which presents many great challenges. We clearly understood how great a challenge this would be here on this planet, and so we enlisted the assistance of many qualified and talented beings from throughout the cosmos to i-carnate here, to become one with the people of this world and to one day awaken and respond to their mission to bring to this world a new way of being. We say to you today that we proudly see so many of our Lightworkers, our Starseeds, responding to their call of duty, and we wish to see so many more of you awaken to your true identity and your purpose for being here at this period in time. We ask those of you who have awakened to this divine purpose to do whatever it is you have to do to awaken your brothers and sisters who are also here, but are yet in a deep slumber.

Many more Lightworkers have journeyed here than was needed for this project, to allow us to be absolutely certain enough would awaken and respond to their call to accomplish each task that needs to be done. There are so many more of you than have so far responded to their call, and we see it as important that many more awaken. Again, you have the tools at your disposal that have been provided by intelligences far more advanced than here in your world, no matter who currently gets the credit for these. Recognition is not important to us in the least. What is of importance is the safety and well-being of your host planet and you, our dearly loved brothers and sisters of our universe.

We wish to see at this time each and every one of you that has awakened and that understands the importance of your roles here in this world to utilize the gifts provided you and begin to gently awaken as many as you can to their higher purpose and the important matters that need to be dealt with here in your world. Once sufficient numbers are reached we will go ahead with the stages of operation that will bring to your world the great changes that are necessary and will allow your planet and your people to thrive beyond anything that has been imagined by any of you. Let us together begin and you will reap the rewards that you have earned and that are provided to you by our Creator. This is our promise to you, our brothers and sisters of the human family.

Is This World In Need Of Repair?

We are you Family of Light from the stars.

As c-anneled through Greg G-les

John Winston. johnfw@mlode.com