Subjec: Offer Of A Gift. Part 2 of 2.

May 29, 2012.

The good type space people are here to show us how to get out-from-under the people who are pulling the strings now.

We are here to assist you break free from their bondage, but we cannot and will not do it all for you. We will do everything we can to assist you make these changes here, and we await your move or your request for further intelligence from us that will assist you in your task. We await a response from you, our brothers and sisters on the front line, and we wish you the very best in your efforts to restore to the people of your planet their sovereign right of freedom that has been taken from them by these individuals.

We wish to see action soon from you as there are many programs and projects that we wish to begin implementing in your world that will benefit greatly all of you on so many levels, your current lives will not be recognizable from your new lives of freedom from the toils that are today a necessary component for your survival. Your people will be taking a great leap from lives based primarily on a need to survive, to lives based on an inner desire to express themselves artistically, creatively and academically, and share all the gifts they create with others throughout your world fr-e of charge to them. This is what is possible for your world, and it only waits for you to take possession of it.

Choose now the way you wish to leave this time. Choose the way in which you wish to exit the reality you have come to know as your only option. There are other options available to you that will allow you to experience more freedoms and more luxuries then you are currently experiencing here. There are many doors that can and will open for you upon your knock, and they will lead you into corridors that lead to a new existence, a new reality beyond the current limitations of this 3rd dimensional construct of mind and matter.

There have always been these doors open to you. There has always been a means for you to exit which no longer serves you and your higher purpose in this universe. You, as a sovereign so-l on a journey of choice, have never been tied to any one reality that you did not wish to experience further. This law applies to you and to your reality today just as any other day and period in your existence. We look to offer you the opportunity to exit this reality according to your own terms and according to your own time schedule that you have allotted yourself to spend here.

Not everyone will choose to leave this paradigm. Not everyone is prepared for the freedoms that wait beyond this illusion. Not everyone has learned all the lessons available through this setting, and not everyone has experienced all they wish to experience here in the physical. Remember this, and remember that there is no right or wrong choice as all is personal preference, and it is not anyone's right to force their preferences on another as none of us know better what one needs or wishes to experience but ourselves.

How a being chooses to leave here is also a matter of personal preference. Some may choose to leave here through the d-ath experience. This is all right, as for many, this choice and method of exit will lead them to the higher dimensions and the new experience that they seek. For others, this method of leaving here does not suit them and they have chosen an alternative means to exit this reality and begin anew beyond its limitations. For these souls, ascension in body is the method they wish to utilize as their means into the higher realms of this universe. For these souls, they have made a choice that they do not wish to experience death and rebirth again, but wish a continual incarnation without stops and starts to interfere with the steady and beautiful flow of their journey.

All is a matter of personal taste and preference, and we say to you to allow all others no matter how close they are to you to take all the time that they need to decide for themselves how they wish to continue their journey, always remembering that their journey will indeed continue, it is just the manner in which they continue it that may differ from yours. If you could do that you would be doing your fellow beings a great service, as each of us needs to find just what it is that vibrates our heartstrings and makes our heart sing in harmony.

We are the Galactic Federation of Light.
