First of all here is an announcement from Ralph.

.....

Hi All

The next meeting of the Mother Lode Dowzers will be on Saturday, 2 Jun. Beginning at 10:00 am, we will read from the Urantia Book, Paper 76, The Second . We'll have some dowsing exercises. If you can't think of any needs to dowse about, I'll provide a few. Maybe we can build a French Coil. (JW Maybe I lived a rather sheltered life but I have never heard of a French Coil.)

The next day, Sunday, 3 Jun, there will be a meeting of the Sierra Dowzers, at a new location in West Sacramento. Hopefully, I will have more details before then. Anyone want to carpool?

Ralph

This talks about us trying to drum up another w-r.

Daily Bell:

Any last statements you want to make? Do you have a timeline for social collapse or wa- or whatever? Are the e-ites moving too fast because they're scared of the Internet?

Foster Gamble:

Well, I just did a video blog yesterday that I think will come out on Saturday morning on the Thrive site on this very topic because I am more concerned about this, more than I ever have been. I had just done one on a potential false flag in Iran last week, and how I see them doing the same thing they did in Vietnam, same thing in Iraq beating the drums for -ar under false pretenses and I have a concern that they will potentially even s-nk the USS Enterprise and say the Iranians did it in order to get it going over there.

But the one that I just did has to do with the Greek situation. I believe that what we are seeing is predominately a domino situation: Collapse the economies throughout the European Union and there is enough interconnectedness with all those b-nks and gov-rnments that it could be the domino collapse that really goes globally. I also think they are not only trying to do that this year, I think they may be trying to do it within the next few months, but potentially weeks and that's why I did that video log right now.

I am really concerned that they are doing this last little pump-up of our stock market, and then going to bring the whole thing down in order to create the fear reaction to bring in their global govern-ent.

I am not optimistic about the near-term transition, and I am encouraging people to prepare individually, in their communities, and in their lives, and then with whatever time you have to get out and be active with groups, exposing the agenda and creating the new systems that can emerge as the old ones come down. Whether it's new alternatives to gove-nment or alternatives to central ba-king, alternatives to corporate m-dia. The work that so many people are doing right now is so great and it only needs to be amplified so it can emerge, rather than a global po-ice state as the systems come down.

Daily Bell:

Any websites, etc., that you want to recommend?

Foster Gamble:

Mainly,

<http://www.thrivemovement.com>

and particularly the liberty and the solutions section. In the solutions section there's a very copious set of solutions, strategies, tactics and tools, and then there's a whole section under solutions on liberty. This is for people who aren't that familiar with it. We go into principles, debunking the common myths and that type of thing.

The main thing is the organizational strategies that we have, such as connecting with other organizations, with other communities, principles around which to organize and use the Internet if you are inclined to link up with one another on a national and global scale in that liberty section you will find resources in every section, and we have the resource tree where we recommend websites and books.

Daily Bell:

Thank you for being so generous with your time.

Congratulations on the movie. We'll be watching ...

Foster Gamble:

Well, thank you so much for your open-mindedness and open-heartedness. Also, to the Daily Bell, I deeply congratulate you on the work that you've been doing, getting this critical word out for years, and I am truly thrilled and honored to be included in the form of this interview and your support of Thrive.
