Subject: Royal Family And Are You An Old Soul? June 6, 2012.

Here is something about the Royal Family.

A good article - any who have not read this, read it do not skim through.

The sad truth is that if there was a rebellion they would have plans to infiltrate and have control within 5 to 10 years.

I'm sure everyone here is well aware of what the royal family is really all about, but if you have family or friends who think its just fine to support these entities then this may be a good article to point them in the right direction. Alas, I think the flag wavers at the recent venues here in the U.K. this week-end are likely beyond help.

Recalibration of Dark & Light"

San Antonio, TX
February 25, 2012

Duality is static and unchangeable... right? Think again. For all things are being reshuffled, and even the one that you think you understand fully - dark clearer understanding. Often what happens live has implied energy within it, which carries a kind of communication that the printed page does not. So enjoy this enhanced message given in San Antonio, Texas.

Clearer understanding.

The Recalibration of Dark & Light

This live c-annelling was Given in San Antonio Texas

To help the reader, this ch-nnelling has been revisited [by Lee and Kryon] to provide even clearer understanding. Often what happens live has implied energy within it, which carries a kind of communication that the printed page does not. So enjoy this enhanced message given in San Antonio, Texas.

Greetings, dear ones, I am Kryon of Magnetic Service. I speak to those who have an elegance of wisdom. You may not think of this as you, for there are those here who are literally only feeling this for the first time, but there's an elegance in this room. The elegance of discernment is here, and this is placed upon you so that you would discern what is true and what is not - including this very message.

There is a dispensation of wisdom occurring on this planet. For all those who would question themselves or what has happened this day [The Kryon seminar] or wonder if they were manipulated with knowledge or energy, they should go inside and feel that raw, pure energy of the love of G-d. Raw, in that it is not clouded with a filter; you can see it for what it is. The appropriateness of all things reveals itself, including your place on the earth, living the way you're living with those you live with, with everything you've learned. Your wisdom will tell you that it is all correct and proper, and you haven't made any mistakes. You are wiser than you think.

The room is filled with old souls. Very, very few of you here are not. An old soul is one who has been on the planet more than 100 times or more. My partner has spent the last hour teaching about the past and giving you an option to see the planet as it develops in a way nobody expected. Humans become fearful when there seems to be no predictions about what takes place, for the predictions of doom did not happen. However, they're just not looking in the right place, for what is taking place now is what many of the ancients told you could happen.

Old souls make a difference on this planet. They carry energetic weight with their wisdom. You are those old souls, dear Humans. But do not put a time on this change, for neither S-irit nor Gaia will react to your clock. Instead, put the compassion of Go- on the change. See that which is appropriate for your life for now, and then stand back and create it. Listen to it. See it happening. Take a trip to the future where it is happening. Feel it upon your lives.

Blessed is the Human Being who knows they are a part of the plan and the system, for these are the Humans who will plant the seeds for peace on Earth.

The Energy of Recalibration

We wish to continue the series that we are calling, "The Recalibration of All Things". We have given you information in the past about the recalibration of the planet, of humanity and even of the Universe. Now we speak of the recalibration of dark and light and what it means to you.

So before I begin, I must define what I mean by dark and light and then I will also define what I mean by the new 2012 energy. When I speak about dark and light to you, what do you think about? I'll tell you what many are trained to think about: They're trained to think about e-il and good and bad. They're trying to put these things in the appropriate boxes where they were taught they belong using linear thinking. They will turn to the mythology that taught them about an entity with a tail trying to capture your soul and other mysterious entities around that work for that main ev-l entity.

So I will tell you again: The entity that is after your soul is mythology, dear ones. It doesn't exist in your reality. But you might say, "Wait a minute, Kryon. Are you telling me -vil doesn't exist?" No, dear ones, I didn't say that. What I'm telling you is that all the darkness on this planet has come from Human Beings. You don't need to assign energy to a mythological creature to have e-il on the earth. The darkest of the dark can be created by the Humans if they choose to do that. Dark power can be created because Humans are powerful and can manifest it. Darkness is not that hard to manifest.

However, we have told you before that the light/dark balance of the planet is what is at hand. Those who carry light in the dark room will not have darkness around them, for the definition of darkness is the absence of light. But if there are only a few who carry the match, there's going to be a lot of darkness. So you are subject to that, for you will walk around in whatever light balance is created by humanity.

You might call it a system. All of life is affected - all of it - by the light and dark balance of where humanity decides to place this balance. The definition of dark and light has to do with the Human consciousness balance, since it is the Human Being who creates dark and light for the planet. It's a concept. So this is the subject of this message: What is the new balance of the earth energy going to mean to you, personally, today?

Second definition: The 2012 energy is a marker, a seeming perception of a time frame that you have now passed and are well into, which gives a confluence of energy permission to change reality. The earth, being Gaia, begins to shift with you and for you, and the energy of the planet moves into areas that it never has before.

The Movement of the Kundalini on Earth

I gave a ch-nnel in the area you call Peru. We talked about the prophecy of the ancients, which was called the movement of the feathered serpent. This has also been called the centering of wisdom on the planet. Some have called it the movement of the Kundalini. The Kundalini is an energy that is always associated with movement. It is also often associated with procreation, and the metaphor is therefore dealing with the rebirth of humanity.

Civilization itself is at stake within this movement, and you've passed the marker - an alignment that many said would never happen. This is the fifth time you've been through this opportunity and now, dear ones, you're headed for the potential of peace on Earth.

Twenty-three years ago, we told you this could happen and that the potentials were strong for it. Now, all that is around you is struggling with it, for the shift is here. I'll say this over and over: The old energy of darkness dies hard, screaming and struggling to keep what it has had, and it struggles with its own demise. So that is the energy we speak of now, and the subject is the Human consciousness balance between dark and light. Many have called this duality.

How does this new balance affect you?

Let's start with the personal, then we'll go to something bigger and then something even bigger. We'll end with a prediction we've never given before - a potential that has arisen only recently.
