Subject: Words From The Federation.

June 16, 2012.

This comes from The Wanderer Of The Skies.

I went fishing today with my number one son at Pincrest Lake, Calif. He caught three rainbow trout, one of which was one foot, two and a half inches long. I caught one nice rainbw trout. I saved the interestines and heads of the fish to feed the Bigfoot. I haven't had the opportunity to check and see how our last feeding of them came out.

A message worth sharing....

Ja-is

Greetings from the Federation:
Sunday, March 25, 2012

Let us begin by saying that your world will shortly be undergoing changes that will bring it into alignment with the Ascension process. Gaia has sent her message to the Creator that she is ready. She, and all of us, are anxiously awaiting the response. It is no small matter. The response from the Creator could be the green light which allows us to move forward with disclosure. Therefore, our hearts are turned towards the Creator at this time as we await word of how and when to proceed.

This message from Gaia is her assurance that she is prepared for the next step and is willing to proceed. It is also her assessment that all living beings which take sustenance from her are reasonably prepared for the next phase. This assessment is very important, for without it Creator would not consider such a position viable. Therefore, we have moved collectively into a very important phase of the process and one which brings us no end to the excitement of the prospects before us.

There has been a turning away of many who see this process dragging on and use this as proof that it was never meant to be in the first place. This will change upon the Creator's response and we are reasonably excited to believe that the time has come. The call has gone out from the Federation to all systems in the cosmos and an even greater number of visitors are now heading this way to observe this next phase in activities. In that respect, you can expect that another Norway spiral will occur as more dimensional beings arrive over the next several weeks.

Many exciting things are now planned in the days and weeks ahead. As your financial institutions, you will see more and more a willingness to openly discuss what has, until now, been the 800 pound gorilla in the room. You will hear statements as p-liticians and me-ia personalities begin to openly talk about the I-luminati and their role in your world and what must be done to take back the world for your people.

A new discovery about to be revealed to the masses concerning the deepest underground cave yet found is a leak of information on one of the doorways to a world containing beings who you have called the Agarthans. It will set the stage, if necessary, for future revelations about these beings and their role here.

Keep in mind that as these matters develop, they are done so in a specific order for a specific reason that is interconnected to a much grander plan than we cannot reveal to you now. But as these pieces come into place, they will be self-executing. And when the dominoes fall, they will fall quickly and without any doubt on your part. There will be no guess work involved at that time.

Quiet your mind so that we may speak to you. Open your hearts so that you can hear each other. Stay in the moment and stay courageous in your calling. We are with you and we are you.

Be at peace.
