From Jelaila S-arr and the Nibiruans About P-esident O-ama and Presidential S-ul Contracts

by k-uilapele

There it is... perhaps the most controversial word in the current world vocabulary... "O-ama". A person born in Hawaii (or Kenya or Indonesia or Sirius or Mars or maybe even Chicago), who became Pr-sident of the U-ited States because of the the unfair endorsement of the H-rpo Corporation (reverse "Harpo", please), George S_ros, and all of those African American Asian Indonesian Martian movie stars in Hollywood; who has been renamed, by many, as, "constitution violating dictator", "Obummer", "Ob-ma The Dud!" (that's from just the past 24 hours of titles at NesaraNews and RMN), and who clearly has no place in a Washington D.C. arena that's really a g_overnment community of w_ite Caucasian, male, straight (not gay), only had one wife in their lifetime, C-ristian (no Buddhists, Muslims, or woo woo's allowed), c-urch going (every Sunday) people, who only want the best for the Un-ted States, as long as they get lower than the poor to middle class populations' tax rates, corporate loopholes for their businesses, exemptions from criminal prosecution for insider trading from legislation they know will be passed next week, a lifetime pension, and the best healthcare in the world (because, of course, they love all Americans (and they tell us so, almost every day)).

Clearly, Oba-a does not "belong".

And now Jelaila St-rr helps us understand why he is there.

we still have time to make the changes we need to make in order to have our current presiden- return to our side, so to speak.

d.. Nibiruans are not saying that Obama will most definitely be reelected; they are saying that it appears that he will based on the preponderance of energy for that event to occur.

e.. Delivering last week's message regarding Obama's future role was one of those times. Readers created a new record for just how angry and vulgar they could be.

f.. Some souls choose to carry out a pre-idential contract during one or more i-carnations... they are fully trained ahead of time.

h.. This -oul will be moved and swayed by the forces and people that have the most power at any given moment... will make them appear to be duplicitous and suspect at times.

i.. ...when we stand up, not letting fear stand in our way, our presid-nt will do the same, making decisions that serve our best interest as a nation.

j.. Because we are at the end of an a-e and on the threshold of a monumtal consiousness shift, we must work together with a higher understanding (meaning that we understand that we control the outcome).

k.. As we learn to reclaim our power by taking responsibility for our lives, our pr-sident will do the same, even when faced with t-reats on his life.

l.. If you have used the Formula of Compassion, you know that when you release someone from playing a dark role in your life, that person/so-l is able to go in peace and, in some cases, return in a more loving role.

m.. ...the Nibiruans are not supporting Obam- over anyone else...they offer no personal preference...they are simply giving us an update on where we stand now, and what the future could hold based on the patterns in play at the present time.

Jelaila Starr 6-11-12 Message (the O-ama piece)

...Now about Presi-ent Ob-ma.

The Guides (9D Nibiruans) have asked me to talk about our pre-ident in light of his s-ul contract and where that stands.

As they explained back before O-ama was elected, they felt that Ob-ma has a contract to mirror the nation's consciousness. (This goes for all nations and all national leaders.) In that role, our presid-nt's actions will be a mirror of our own. How he handles challenges and deals will be no different than how we as a nation handle our own. Right now we see our pr-sident erring towards the PTB and serving their agenda more than ours.

Many of us feel that we have been betrayed and are angry, vowing to cast out votes with a different candidate come election time. The Nibiruans tell us that based on what they see as they project out along the timelines, that Oba-a will be reelected. Moreover they say not to give up on him because we still have time to make the changes we need to make in order to have our current pre-ident return to our side, so to speak. As they remind us, we are the ones who really decide what he does. As we continue to peacefully stand up and say no, as we continue to band together to support full disclosure, we show that we are willing to feel the fe-r but do the right thing anyway. That's exactly what our preside-t needs to dom [do] and he will follow suit.

Now, I know that many of you have been supporting Ron Paul. I asked the Nibiruans about that and they explained that Ron Paul was never intended to be elected, only to wake people up. He has done a really good job of that. Furthermore, Ron Paul did not have a presid-ntial contract...Oba-a did.

Keep in mind that the Nibiruans are not saying that Ob-ma will most definitely be reelected; they are saying that it appears that he will based on the preponderance of energy for that event to occur.

So there you have it. Do your research, check out those sites, do a bit of investing and get ready for an unprecedented global shift. It's coming very soon.

Jelaila Starr 6-18-12 Message

Being a messenger for an off-world group such as the Nibiruans, is sometimes a thankless job. Delivering last week's message regarding Obama's future role was one of those times. Readers created a new record for just how angry and vulgar they could be. Made me almost decide that this was no longer worth it....almost.

I was just going to let the firestorm blow over and maybe not do a message this week, but then I received a request to do one anyway, clarifying what had been misinterpreted. So, I'm giving this another shot. First off, let me explain presi-ential -oul contracts.

Pr-sidential So-l Contract

Some sou-s choose to carry out a pre-idential contract
during one or more inca-nations. Regardless of which "side" they work on, they are fully trained ahead of time.

But unlike a normal presiden-ial contract, there are those that will have a unique twist to them in that they are carried out during times of great social change. In such cases, the s-ul must be able to carry forth in the face of a firestorm (there's that word again) of conflict far greater than normal.

This -oul will be moved and swayed by the forces and people that have the most power at any given moment. That will make them appear to be duplicitous and suspect at times.

We the people, have the power to determine the choices our pres_dent makes. When we sit back and let others take our power we will find our pre-ident uses that power against us. But when we stand up, not letting fea- stand in our way, our pr-sident will do the same, making decisions that serve our best interest as a nation.
