Subject: Is This Person The Present Day Edgar Cayce? June 29, 2012.

I have a great respect for Edgar Cayce and have read and believed a lot of his material. This talks about a man who this week appeared on the Coasttocoastam radio show and he believes that he lived as Edgar Cayce in a past life.

Wynn Free's Experience with the Council of Elohim From

Wynn Free's Website

It's hard to put into words what we're sharing on this website. For many of you, this will be your first look at something which will, very likely, totally confront every reality system you've ever been exposed to.

Suffice it to say that after a period of researching the ch-nnelings of David Wilcock (the subject of my book) and having my own personal experience of voices communicating with me and validating it all through my own processes of cross referencing and discernment, I decided it was very important to give access to what I was learning to others so they could draw their own conclusions.

When you subscribe to message a Day you'll get a sequence of emails, each one with a short transcript of one of the messages from these interdimensional intelligences, with my comments. Most people recognize the level of wisdoms contained within these transcripts. But there's also a cosmology presented which a human could not figure out on their own.

The overall theme has to do with the transition our planet is in the midst of and the cosmic significance of the Mayan Calendar end date of 2012. It also has to do with the prophecies of Je--s in R-velations . It also has to do with the book I wrote with and about David Wilcock, entitled The -eincarnation of Edgar Cayce?

Plus it has to do with what happened to me while I was writing the book, when, in 2002, a voice began communicating with me via two personal relationships, that identified itself as the Council of Elohim.

It may all sound crazy, but if you've opened your eyes recently, you might have noted that the world is probably not the world you expected to be in. The things which appeared to be your security no longer seem so secure. There is a cosmic significance to it all and that's what's being explained in Message a Day.

You can see by the flashing testimonials at the top of the page that my work is impacting people on a very profound level. This includes PHD's, Doctors, other authors, healers, and more.

I am very impassioned about what I am sharing here. Just sign up for Message a Day, at the top of the page by pushing the subscribe button and make your own decision. Thanks for being interested.

While I was going to the library to pick up a book I saw a bunch old books being given away. One of them was "All Creatures Great And Small". I am enjoying reading it. Here's some information about it.
