With loving greetings from all souls at this station, this is Matthew. It is our joy to tell you that a great deal of major importance is underway.

Although some information that could be published very likely won't be, namely, that a sizeable number of high ranking Illuminati are in line for arrest, most high level accomplishments are known primarily to the participating parties.

In various parts of the world, negotiations are ongoing between representatives of civilizations that are assisting Earth and some of the principals in your governments, banking, manufacturing, military, agriculture, mining, medicine, education, religions, transportation, entertainment, actually, every field that affects life in your world.

Considering that spectrum and the level of attendees, you won't be surprised to know that some within the Illuminati ranks are among them.

The outer space representatives enter these meetings looking no different from you, then shift into their natural bodies for a while before returning to their first appearance. As you can imagine, this shifting, actually, the very presence of these individuals from other worlds! has had profound effects on your negotiators. However, the extraterrestrials' only purpose is to produce profound results, wise decisions by your people, and those are coming about.

The visiting contingent has made persuasive presentations that opened your negotiators' eyes to the folly of proceeding in their respective directions of competition, conflict, corruption, conquest and deception. Some Illuminati in attendance are eagerly jumping on the band wagon; others are less enthusiastic, but since it is abundantly clear that their day is over, they are joining their counterparts who very willingly abandoned ship, so to say.

Knowledgeable discourse and reasonable discussions that lead to expanded awareness and cooperation always are far preferable to more forceful measures. Furthermore, the only means whereby light warriors do battle is with light itself. Enlightenment facilitates smooth transitioning from old systems to new, and that is important indeed; but the greater significance is that it is your leaders in all those areas, not individuals from other civilizations, who are setting the new course for your world.

Considerable progress has been made in the two areas with the most immediate impact, governing bodies and the global economy. From factual reports in your mainstream media, this doesn't appear to be so, especially regarding the economy. There is much talk and little action in the United States and the countries that you call the Eurozone, all of whose massive debts are increasing by the day.

What this portends for the world, according to your analysts, is ominous.

Because they have no idea that today's situation is the essential prelude to instituting honest and equitable systems, their conclusions are based on history and academic views about how to handle multinational economic matters. Like everything else being forecast on those bases, the economic analyses don't apply in this era that is unprecedented in the universe.

Much publicity also is given to the many unknowns in various governments.

The direction of Egypt's new leader and how the half of the country that didn't vote for him will react.

Where Iran's nuclear development will lead.

How animosity of longstanding between the Israelis and Palestinians will be resolved. What is going on in Pakistan. How other nations may respond to Syria's civil war. How menacing North Korea may become.

What plans do Russia's and China's leaders have.

What to do about the impoverished countries in Africa and Latin America.

Because a particular issue is in the forefront of so many minds around the world, we shall speak of it. President Obama will be reelected, and this is no more a matter of politics now than it ever was. Often we have told you that the Golden Age master planners requested this signal from a highly evolved civilization to come to the planet specifically to fill one of the most strategic positions during this phase of Earth's ascension out of third density and entry into fourth. And all of you agreed with this when you enthusiastically chose your own roles in this lifetime.

We also have spoken about the formidable opposition to Obama's endeavors to bring about greatly-needed reforms in his country and to achieve peace in the world. What we didn't disclose before is that light warriors came from his homeland to protect him and his family from the band of dark reptilians, also from another planet, that the Illuminati hired to kill the Obamas.

This shows the extent of the dark ones' fear that this president would end their long reign, and they are right. Very soon they will have no more means to buy assassins, members of Congress or multitudes of lobbyists; then all will see the light in Obama and herald his wise leadership and actions toward world unity.

Those and other national and international situations of interest or concern can most aptly be described as moving at varying paces toward the light at the end of the tunnel. Because the energy momentum of world transformation cannot be slowed or detoured, stability will emerge out of all current turmoil. Ideologies and philosophies that have perpetuated fear and divisiveness are on the wane, and those cornerstones of duality will cease altogether when the planet enters the lower planes of fourth density, around the end of this year.

By then, everything that emits low vibrations will cease. This includes rulers of tyrannical regimes or cultures that deny women God-given and civil rights; Satanists; the controllers of your advanced technologies who have used them for destructive purposes; principals in the Vatican; individuals who still are censoring information or ordering the production of films that glorify war or portray aliens as monstrous invaders.

How can almost inconceivably monumental changes in conditions and behavior come about by the end of your year? Only light-filled persons will be living on Earth then.

In the meantime, there will be confusion and commotion. Many apple carts are going to be upset as changes initiated. There will be negotiations to end combat and the leave-taking of troops, the return of refugees to their homes. Laws, policies, regulations and practices that are unjust or injurious will be overturned, including unfair taxation rates.

Redistribution of the wealth in your world will ease, then end the unconscionable disparity between the few and the masses.

Other major changes will come incrementally after the planet enters fourth density. Members of your universal family will be assisting you in efforts that require technologies, such as elimination of all sources of pollution in your air, waters, and soil and other environmental restoration processes as well as new forms of power and transportation.

Your leaders, all of whom will have spiritual and moral integrity, will continue to add or amplify reform measures, and Earth will continue her return to her original paradise self and a moderate climate globally.

All of those differences from life as you've known it are dramatic indeed, but it is your expanding consciousness and spiritual clarity that will bring about the most stunning personal changes as you ascend with Earth through fourth density and into fifth. Along the way you will obtain perfect health and re-grow missing limbs and organs. Not only will you overcome the effects common to aging, but those in advanced years gradually will become younger. You will communicate telepathically with souls elsewhere in the universe, travel astrally, and visit beloved people in Nirvana. Through visualization, you will learn to manifest whatever you want.

In short, you will be using the innate powers you always have had as your birthright, and you will take your rightful place within our universal family of multidimensional, eternal souls.
