Subject: Words From Matther. Part 2 of 2.

July 8, 2012.

This says there are strange looking beings livings that may be stepping out of alien space crafts but they won't reveal themselves, as to what they look like till a later time.

19.
Now then, during the short time before Earth exits third density, the remaining dark ones will make last gasp efforts to cling to their remnants of influence and vast fortunes. Blatant l-ing by recalcitrant p-liticians will go on for a short while and so will people's polarized views about what best serves their personal interests. Earth still must release some negativity through geophysical events. Those situations, however, have been just life for so long that most people are inured to acceptance.

20.
What will cause considerable unrest are the shocking truths that will be coming forth, and there will be alarm about the high number of d-aths as many s-uls leave the planet for one reason or another.

That combination is more than enough for the populace to handle emotionally and mentally without adding to the mix of strange beings emerging from spacecrafts. It is for that reason that the universal high council decided to delay landings and the extraterrestrials living among you will delay revealing their true identity. The advantages of this postponement far outweigh the f-ear that is foreseen by a premature introduction of aliens.

The council, who are among the most highly e-olved so-ls in this universe, reasonably had expected that sufficient changes would have taken place by now so that members of our universal family would be welcomed by Earth's peoples. But the stronghold of the darkness has lasted much longer than logically anticipated.

23.
The sou-s who had agreed to accept deeply dark roles that would offer many millions the chance to complete third density karma and then would join the light forces, were highly evo-ved so-ls themselves. When they entered the agreement, it was with the certainty that their sp-ritual fortitude would resist the lure of holding to dark ways. Instead, they became enchanted with controlling the masses and amassing grand wealth, spiraled into the depths of darkness and knowingly refused to honor their agreement.

Their powerful global network has kept the great majority of your population in duality and the mentality that keeps minds closed. By no means are these people bad they just are stuck in third density's limitations. Their bedrock beliefs that have been formed by the various methods of mind control include the orientation that if any other civilization really does exist and ever came to Earth, it would be to annihilate the planet's population.

Even some messages that are tel-pathically ch-nneled, or claim to be, state that a civilization pretending to be benevolent actually intends to conquer and enslave you. Other messages purport that ETs will evacuate you prior to the cataclysmic cleansing that will devastate the planet, and still others report that degree of devastation but without your rescue. All those kinds of claims are designed to create fear and all are pure nonsense.

26.
That is why we often have urged you to be discerning about information from all sources. Ask within and trust your intuition to tell you what is true and what is not. Developing discernment and learning to trust the messages from your soul to your consciousness not only will eliminate unnecessary feelings of fear, they are upward steps in soul evolution.

27.
The council knows the collective consciousness of Earth's residents, thus they know that the arrival of extraterrestrials at this point would panic most people. Not only would that create more negativity for Earth to get rid of, it would strengthen the dark ones they thrive on fear energy.

28.
At this juncture, it is deemed judicious for you and for your brothers and sisters from outer space to meet closer to the end of the year, when they can join you in full recognition and overtly assist you without any lamentable repercussions. However, that timing is not set in stone it could be earlier. There is continuous monitoring of Earth happenings and how effectively the light intensity is raising the collective consciousness, and as soon the possibility of widespread fear no longer exists, our space family will join you.

29.
During the interim they will continue using technology aboard their crafts to reduce the toxic effects of chemtrails and other pollutants. They will continue to level out the effects of earthquakes and soften the power of major storms without decreasing the amount of negativity released. They will keep on causing weaponry to malfunction, blocking the most potent aspects of the Illuminati's weather control technology, and destroying their operations in mammoth underground facilities. Also with divine permission to assist you, they can relocate specified individuals who refuse to step down from the helm of various activities that are against the good of Earth humankind.

30.
Knowing about these major leaps forward and other marvelous life-changing developments to come, you can feel joyous, excited, confident and soundly prepared to surmount whatever challenges you may encounter during the next few months. And those months will seem to fly by your sensation of time passing faster and faster will keep increasing as the planet continues ascending.

31.
If you are experiencing anomalies that you know are not symptoms of disease, very likely they are the effects of adjusting to the increasingly high energy planes Earth is passing through as well as your cells transitioning from carbon to crystalline. Soon those anomalies will fade away.

32.
You are your first responsibility. This is not selfishness or egotism, nor is it lack of love and caring for others. It is that only you can make decisions that are in line with your instincts and intuition, your soul's guidance to your consciousness that nudges you into avenues that in your soul contract you chose to experience during this lifetime. This may include changes in relationships, employment, location, group affiliation or other interests and activities.

33.
On a different level, it may be divesting yourself of trivial interests and meaningless pursuits and detaching from the need to garner material possessions. Earth's Golden Age doesn't include interests, habits, attitudes or behavior that are superficial or in any way hurtful to self or others, such as jealousy, envy, self-centeredness, spitefulness, bitterness, resentfulness, mean spiritedness, gossiping. If you recognize any of those in yourself, there is time to change. Focusing on your life in the wondrous Age- that you are rapidly approaching will enable you to embrace others and life itself with love.

The goal of every soul is to evolve spiritually and intellectually. Pre-birth agreements, which are designed for soul growth of all individuals who want to share the lifetime, are made in unconditional love. When you are experiencing the karmic lessons you chose, you sense that life is flowing smoothly. If heavy restlessness and longing for different circumstances arises, it signifies that the agreed upon experiencing has been completed and it's time to move on to other contract selections. In the vibrations of the lighter energy planes Earth has reached, both contentment and dissatisfaction are magnified let the sensations you feel guide your decisions and actions.

35.
In the case of extremely difficult situations, the consciousness doesn't understand that the circumstances are for learning and growing, but the soul knows it is attaining the balance it needs to evolve. When an individual seriously deviates from contract provisions say, by excessive control or cruelty beyond what the recipient chose the suffering soul grows by leaps and bounds and the perpetrating individual devolves. Always, divine grace comforts and uplifts those who are wrongfully treated that is, in harsh ways they didn't choose in soul contracts and offenders incur karma that is equally difficult to endure.

36.
Along this line of offenders, it won't be much longer until you know who has been arrested for crimes against humanity and other deeds that have adversely affected life on Earth. These individuals veered far afield from their soul contracts. Some will be convicted and others will die before coming to trial, but none will escape self-judgment. By the physics that governs life in this universe, throughout the life review process in Nirvana, they will feel exactly the same pain and anguish as did all those whose lives their diabolical deeds affected. This excruciating self-punishment process is beyond your capacity to imagine, and so is those individuals devolved capacity in their next incarnation.

37.
Knowing what lies ahead for them and understanding that they are the weakest links in the eternal chain that is our soul family will let you more easily feel forgiveness. The high vibrations of forgiveness, like all other goodly expressions, are soul growth in action.

38.
Lighted souls throughout this universe are beaming love and cheering as you joyously travel this home stretch to Earth's Golden Age.
