An intense desire to do no harm by John S-allman

The tension mounts as the moment of your awakening gets ever closer, especially as the vast majority on Earth have great difficulty in sensing its forthcoming arrival. Changes are happening all over the world that are signaling, to all who choose to see, that something of great importance is in the offing. You Light-workers know what it is, but even you have little understanding of what it truly means or when it will occur. The moment is close, but, because time is an imprecise aspect of the illusion, it is not possible to give precise dates and times. The illusion and its apparent time-line are illusory, without foundation, imaginary concepts that move in only one direction and which appear very real to you.

You are carrying much anxiety while waiting for this momentous event, and there have been few of what you would call concrete examples to re-olve your doubts that the essential and necessary changes leading up to it are being made. Nevertheless, things are changing within the illusion which are allowing you to become ever more aware of its falsity, as inconsistencies show up which confirm the insanity of its myriad propositions about the meaning of life. Life within the illusion is an opportunity for humanity to evo-ve spiritu-ally, and eventually, every human will evolve. However, because of the egoic nature of humanity's thought forms, most of your thinking and the words and actions that resulted have been very divisive, causing you to see yourselves as separate from one another.

As embodied beings that certainly seems to be the case, and you experience that separation almost all of the time because your bodies are part of the illusion and so serve to strengthen that perception. However, your science is today demonstrating the opposite very clearly: that there is no separation, that everything is interconnected and affects everything else. Nothing that anyone does is independent, private, o= r hidden, because the interconnections between all life forms are myriad, and anything that occurs affects the whole. Frequently, of course, this is not readily apparent, but it is a fact everything that occurs within the illusion has an influence on everything else.

The study of ecology has shown many examples of apparently unrelated activities and events impinging on and altering things far removed from where the events or act ivities occurred. This has led to concern about the enormous power that pollution from toxic waste has to severely damage the environment for inordinate periods of time. As a result many have become involved in attempting to stop the damaging activities that are being carried out on such a wide scale across the planet, and to repair the damage that has already been done.

This is a sign of spiritual evolution.

Initially

it was rather self-serving, the not in my backyard syndrome, but awareness is growing rapidly that to take care of myself I must also take care of my neighbor, and to do that you have to know your neighbor, and in knowing him you come to love and appreciate him.

The expanding awareness of this fact is causing enormous changes in people's attitudes and behaviors all over the world, and it can be seen in little things, such as reusing your shopping bags, and in large things, as laws are changed to ensure that pollution by industry is reduced and controlled, and that where pollution has occurred it is then cleaned up. Initially these efforts may seem to be small in comparison to the size of the problems, but your growing awareness, aided by new technologies, will enable resolution of all these pollution issues that are of global significance.

As you address these issues more intelligently, and with growing understanding of the interconnectedness of everything, your concerns for others, for all life forms, and for the planet brings with it a very much increased sense of responsibility for all your thoughts, words, and actions, and an intense desire to do no harm. This is spiritual evolution in action.

You are now rapidly evolving spiritually, and you have reached a stage from which you most intensely wish to awaken into the presence of G-d where you know that all exist in eternal peace and joy. It has seemed like a dream that you have always known was true, and yet, because of your experiences over many life times in the illusion, you have also harbored many doubts about that truth maybe it is only a dream! Now those doubts are dissolving as the moment for awakening approaches, and the assistance you are presently receiving from the spiritual realms, added to your own determination to awaken, will ensure that no other outcome is possible. Your awakening is assured.

Your loving brother, Jesus.
